Denise DeBartolo York
OWNER/CHAIRMAN

With more than 26 years experience in the field of sports management and real estate development and operations, Denise DeBartolo York has received accolades as one of the most successful business women in the United States. She has also been a successful pioneer in the professional sports industry. She has been consecutively named to San Francisco Business Times Influential Women's List since 2002 for heading one of the largest women-owned businesses in the Bay Area. DeBartolo York has also been nominated to Business on Leadership since 2000. For her numerous achievements, DeBartolo York was inducted into the National Italian American Sports Hall of Fame in 2003.

DeBartolo York serves as chairman of The DeBartolo Corporation and oversees the Corporation's portfolio, including the five-time world champion San Francisco 49ers.

While her family has been the backbone of the celebrated 49ers franchise for decades, DeBartolo York's involvement in sports ownership branches out beyond the realm of professional football. When The DeBartolo Corporation owned the Pittsburgh Penguins of the National Hockey League (1981-91), she was one of only a few female executives in the league. She was team President when the Penguins captured their first Stanley Cup title in 1991. Denise, her father, Edward J. DeBartolo, Sr. and her son, Jed, enjoyed piloting Pittsburgh through a thrilling six-game run in the Stanley Cup finals after the Penguins took the series lead 3-2 and iced the Minnesota North Stars with an 8-0 win in game six. During three seasons as Pittsburgh's President, DeBartolo York helped the Penguins post a 113-106-21 record and qualify for the Stanley Cup playoffs twice. She also was instrumental in attracting the NHL All-Star game to the city of Pittsburgh for the first time ever, January 21, 1990. DeBartolo York and her father have been widely recognized as the individuals who saved hockey in the Pittsburgh area by establishing a championship caliber organization and drafting star players like Mario Lemieux (1984) and Jaromir Jagr (1990).

DeBartolo York, who previously served as Executive Vice President of Personnel and Corporate Marketing/Communications for The Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation (EJDC), was instrumental in the development of the corporation's employee programs and communication tools. Based on her accomplishments, she was elevated to the position of Vice Chairman in April 1994. After the death of her father, Edward J. DeBartolo, Sr. in December 1994, DeBartolo York was named Chairman.

In April 2003, DeBartolo York was inducted into the National Italian American Sports Hall of Fame, joining a class that included NBA coach Mike Fratello, Heisman Trophy winner Gino Torreta, former Brooklyn Dodgers pitcher Ralph Branca and former baseball manager Bobby Valentine, among others.

In addition to her business responsibilities, DeBartolo York gives generously of her resources and time to numerous charitable and community organizations. Along with her husband, John York, and the San Francisco 49ers, DeBartolo York was of paramount importance with the Mills Corporation and YMCA being awarded the "Pier 27 to 31" project in San Francisco, bringing affordable recreational activities on the waterfront for citizens of all ages in the Bay Area. She also has given substantial support to many youth organizations in San Francisco. She is a regular contributor, both financially and with support, to numerous agencies in the Bayview Hunter's Point area, including the Bayview YMCA and the Bayview Boys and Girls Club.

DeBartolo York and her husband, John, were finally able to see their continued efforts in the Hunter's Point area come to life when their blueprints to expand recreational space for the Boys & Girls club on Hunters Point Hill in San Francisco were culminated in April, 2004. It was announced that the 49ers, along with an associated San Francisco Police Department office, would significantly enlarge the new facility for neighborhood youth while enhancing public safety.

Just one month earlier, in March, Denise and John were honored with the Outstanding Corporate Philanthropy Award at the Catholic Charities/Catholic Youth Organization's Loaves & Fishes Dinner for their remarkable contributions to the San Francisco community.

She supports the Marie Denise DeBartolo York and the Denise & John York Foundations' intent to utilize grant funds to provide help for the poor, the underprivileged and the needs of children. Additionally, she is committed to the efforts of the 49ers Foundation, who awarded grants totaling $750,000 in 2004-05. Recipients included the 49ers Academy in East Palo Alto, AIM High School in San Francisco, Eastside College Prepatory High School in East Palo Alto and Pathways for Kids in San Francisco. In addition, the 49ers Foundation gifted over 1,100 auction items to assist with fundraising efforts of non-profit organizations throughout the San Francisco Bay Area.

In September 2002, she presented a check for $100,000 on behalf of LISC (Bay Area Local Initiatives Support Corporation) and NFL Grassroots for the creation of a new football field and facility in Crocker-Amazon Park located in South San Francisco. And in 2004, DeBartolo York helped spearhead the effort to install a synthetic sports playing surface at Burton High School in San Francisco. An amount of $250,000 was presented to the school after teaming again with NFL Grassroots Program, a partnership between the NFL Youth Football Fund and LISC.

Continuing her father's tradition of a strong belief in education, Denise has awarded more than $300,000 in scholarships to high school seniors in the Mahoning Valley (OH) through the Edward J. DeBartolo Memorial Scholarship Foundation, which was established upon his death in 1994. Additionally, she is the campaign chairman and major donor for the Youngstown Diocese Catholic Education scholarship league, and chairman of "Operation Education," a fundraising effort by Youngstown's Catholic High Schools. Through her generosity and commitment, she was financially responsible for the Chapel at Cardinal Mooney (OH) High School, among other structures and renovations.

Some of DeBartolo York's other supportive efforts in education and athletics include a recent contribution of $500,000 to the women's athletic programs at Youngstown State University and the development of the DeBartolo Stadium Club, also at YSU. Last year, she made a significant contribution of $1 million to St. Mary's College for building construction and renovations. As a member of Ursuline Sisters Financial Advisory Board, DeBartolo York assisted in developing and implementing a massive fundraising drive in 1991 for the construction of a new preschool, kindergarten and adult education center. In 2001, Denise took the lead in a second fundraising effort for assembly of an additional school building for inner-city children by providing leadership and several million dollars of financial assistance.

In 1991, she served as the chairperson for MADD's (Mothers Against Drunk Driving) Project Red Ribbon Campaign and is currently involved with the efforts of the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. She was recognized for the contribution of three additional classrooms and library to St. Charles Elementary School in Boardman, OH. As a major contributor, she is responsible, among other projects, for the new concourse at Fellows Riverside Gardens in Mill Creek Park, located in Youngstown. In keeping with her tradition of commitment and kindness to children, she has made generous donations to Tod Children's Hospital in Youngstown, and with her concern with patients and families of the terminally ill; she continues to be a major supporter of Hospice.

DeBartolo York began her career with The DeBartolo Corporation after graduating from St. Mary's College at Notre Dame. She and her husband, John York, are the parents of two sons and twin daughters.

DID YOU KNOW...

Denise is naturally left-handed but writes with her right hand. When she was in elementary school the nuns would not allow her to write with her left hand, insisting that she learn to write right-handed. They even resorted to hitting her with the ruler if they caught her writing with her left hand.

John York
OWNER/VICE CHAIRMAN

As Owner of the San Francisco 49ers, John York has been instrumental in the organization's assertive effort this offseason to restore excellence to the 49ers. Committed to instituting a championship football squad and front office staff, York and his front office executives made significant and aggressive acquisitions during the 2005 offseason to bolster the club's leadership both on and off the field.

His two major football-related hires in 2005 have been commended throughout the league. In January, he hired the highly-respected and motivated Mike Nolan to take over the reigns as the 49ers head coach. Mike, son of former 49ers Head Coach Dick Nolan, who led his teams to three NFC West Divisional Championships in the 1970's, is determined to finish the job his father began. To accomplish that deed, Nolan immediately added a wealth of knowledge and passion into the organization that is reflected in both his personal approach and in his highly-touted coaching staff. Included in his impressive repertoire of mentors is legendary linebacker Mike Singletary, who adds an innate presence of leadership and motivational expertise to the 49ers force.

And on the personnel side, York helped to recruit one of the league's most intriguing and young talent scouts in Scot McCloughan, tabbing him as the 49ers Vice President of Player Personnel.

On the field, the 49ers made a big splash in the April 2005 NFL Draft with the first overall selection of top quarterback Alex Smith.

While York continues to fulfill his pledge to formulate a winning football team, he has also made great strides in recruiting some of the sharpest minds in the sports industry to strengthen the 49ers front office staff. Over the past few years, the growing organization has been recognized throughout the sports industry with acclaims including a 2002 Webby Award finalist nod and a nomination as a 2004 Pete Rozelle Award finalist.

York also led the charge to partner with San Francisco powerhouse KNBR Radio to serve as the 49ers Flagship radio station in 2005. Along with the newly created partnership with KNBR, the 49ers have extended their long term partnership with KPIX CBS 5, KBHK UPN Bay Area for preseason game broadcast and season-long television coverage. Through these media partnerships, the 49ers Faithful will be given extensive, in-depth coverage with a greater line of shows. More than 20 hours of local media coverage will be devoted to the team each week during the season.

While continuing to focus on the team, he has also continued to be extremely active throughout the Bay Area community. York has been particularly active with the 49ers Foundation and the 49ers Academy. The money raised by the 49ers Foundation is allocated through grants to local Bay Area charities. Under the leadership of Denise and John York, the 49ers Foundation has become one of the premiere foundations in the NFL. Over the last three years, the foundation has awarded over two million dollars to organizations in the greater San Francisco Bay Area. He is a frequent visitor at the Bayview YMCA, Bayview Boys and Girls Club and the 49ers Academy, where he periodically teaches classes throughout the year.

In March of 2005, York and his wife, Denise, were honored with the Outstanding Corporate Philanthropy Award at the Catholic Charities/Catholic Youth Organization's Loaves & Fishes Dinner for their remarkable contributions to the San Francisco community.

One month later, Denise and John's continued efforts to expand recreational space for the Boys & Girls club on Hunters Point Hill finally came to fruition. It was announced that the 49ers, along with an associated

San Francisco Police Department office, would significantly enlarge the new facility for neighborhood youth while enhancing public safety.

And in May of 2005, York was presented with the Distinguished American Award from the Northeastern Ohio Chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, Inc. in Cleveland, Ohio.

In addition to his duties with the 49ers, York doubles as President of The DeBartolo Corporation, where he oversees the operations of the corporation's portfolio. A member of the Board of Directors, York is essential in steering The DeBartolo Corporation's other business responsibilities while maintaining interests in several other ventures, including an investment firm based in Youngstown, OH and a software systems organization in Nashville, TN.

York, a successful entrepreneur with a multi-faceted business background, has a proven record for developing turnkey operations. In 1982, he founded DeYor Laboratories in Youngstown, OH. From three employees, York molded a 500-person operation with facilities in three states. With revenues between $25 and $30 million annually, his business was considered among the largest in the Midwest.

Bringing this expertise to The DeBartolo Corporation, York assumed the position of Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations in December 1994. York successfully instituted programs designed to shore up the operations, increase fan participation and enhance the overall value of the racing portfolio. He developed the inaugural DeBartolo Racing Challenge in 1997, tying together the Derbies at Thistledown in Cleveland, OH, Remington Park in Oklahoma City, OK and Louisiana Downs for three-year olds.

York is also noted for his generous support of youth activities and education beyond the Bay Area. In 2002, the Yorks made a $500,000 contribution to the Youngstown State University women's athletic programs. He serves on the Science Advisory Council at the University of Notre Dame and also was selected to be a member of Youngstown State University's Search Committee for a new athletic director.

York currently holds the position of Vice President for the Boardman (OH) Community Baseball Association, an area baseball league for children ages five through 18. He was instrumental in the construction of "Fields of Dreams," a local baseball complex comprised of 20 baseball fields, and has participated in local youth basketball programs as a coach and organizer.

Still an actively involved alumnus of the University of Notre Dame, York sponsored the medical ethics symposium during the Third National Undergraduate Bioethics Conference in South Bend. And for his continued support of local education, York was recognized in 1996 for his generosity and guidance in the renovation of the library at St. Charles Elementary School, as well as the addition of three new classrooms in 1997. In the spring of 1999, York donated a new math and science building at his alma mater, Little Rock Catholic High School.

A native of Muskogee, OK, York graduated magna cum laude from the University of Notre Dame in 1971. After receiving his doctorate from Stritch School of Medicine at Loyola University in 1975, York underwent seven years of post-doctorate training at such prominent universities as Loyola of Chicago and Vanderbilt. An accomplished writer and lecturer, York has numerous presentations to his credit.

York and his wife, Denise DeBartolo York, have four children.

DID YOU KNOW...

For years, York, a few of his friends and his children have been making a trip twice each summer to Boundary Waters in Minnesota. Each trip is highlighted by hours of fishing. They fish out of canoes and have to paddle and portage (carry) the canoes everywhere they go. Their trips usually last four to five days and consist of canoeing 12-20 miles, although they found themselves canoeing 105 miles on a six-day trip in 1991. Everything they take on the trip has to be carried on their backs, including fishing poles, food and camping supplies.

SCOT MCCLOUGHAN

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Scot McCloughan enters his first season with the 49ers after being named Vice President of Player Personnel February 2, 2005.

McCloughan will manage the college scouting and pro personnel departments. He will oversee all aspects of player personnel including the draft, free agency, trades and re-signings.

McCloughan serves as the chief liaison with the coaching staff and works with Head Coach Mike Nolan in determining the team's personnel needs and desires. McCloughan also works with the management team with respect to Collective Bargaining Agreement compliance and is the team's main conduit for all high-level issues. Additionally, he works closely with Director of Football Operations, Paraag Marathe, on all salary cap decisions.

McCloughan, 34, brings experience, knowledge and an NFL lifeline to the top of the 49ers personnel department. For the last five seasons, McCloughan has served as the Director of College Scouting for the Seattle Seahawks. Since taking over that post in 2001, 25 of 28 draft choices remain on the team and will report to training camp in July, including six projected starters.

Prior to joining the Seahawks, McCloughan was a college scout with the Green Bay Packers from 1996-99 under the direction of Ron Wolf.

Evaluating talent has almost come naturally to McCloughan as he was practically born into the profession. His father, Kent, has been a college scout for the Oakland Raiders for 29 years. His brother, David, is the 49ers' Director of College Scouting.

McCloughan played baseball at Wichita State before joining the Toronto Blue Jays minor league system for three years. He and his wife, Kelli, have a six-year old son, Caden, and twin girls, Adison and Avery who will turn two in October.

MURLAN FOWELL

VICE PRESIDENT/OPERATIONS

With his extensive knowledge of business management, Mo Fowell is entering his 20th year with the 49ers and his second as Vice President of Operations. Prior to his promotion, Fowell served as the Director of Stadium Operations for the 49ers for 15 years. He initially began with the 49ers in 1986 as the team's Luxury Suite Manager.

In his present role, Fowell splits his time between the 49ers two facilities – the stadium in San Francisco and the practice facility in Santa Clara. He is responsible for the supervision of stadium operations and the practice facility, where he oversees security, field maintenance, building maintenance, reception and all other aspects relating to the facility.

One of the major undertakings Fowell was responsible for in his stadium supervision was coordinating the $30 million renovation of Candlestick Park in 1986. Part of that task included the implementation of the luxury suite sales and marketing program.

A charter member of the Stadium Managers Association (SMA), Fowell is also a member of the NFL Task Force on Security, which was established after the events of September 11, 2001.

Before joining the 49ers, Fowell spent 15 years in the restaurant industry, compiling an impressive resume and honing his managerial skills. For three years, he worked as Vice President of Operations for Ole International Foods (1983-86) and was responsible for operating three full service restaurants in Boise, ID and Lewiston, ID. From 1980-82, he worked as a District Supervisor for El Torito Restaurants, Inc. and oversaw the company's regional expansion into the Northwestern United States.

Fowell attended the University of Wyoming and Montana State and majored in business administration.

Born in Billings, MT, Fowell and his wife, Cheryl, reside in Half Moon Bay, CA.

DAVID PEART

VICE PRESIDENT/SALES AND MARKETING

With more than two decades as a sports marketing professional, David Peart enters his second season with the 49ers as Vice President of Sales and Marketing. Peart is responsible for the team's revenue-generating, marketing and branding activities. He oversees the sales and marketing staff.

In a little over 12 months, Peart has attracted some of the industry's most talented sales and marketing executives to help lead the 49ers efforts to build a 49ers brand and turn the team into the most fan-friendly team in sports.

Under Peart's direction, the 49ers have started an ongoing fan research program to provide fans a forum to communicate with the team. He has also directed the launch of an extensive marketing and branding campaign to increase brand awareness.

Additionally, Peart led the team's efforts to take the 49ers' radio rights in-house and forge a new multi-year broadcast agreement with Susquehanna San Francisco. The move will feature more than 20 hours of local coverage each week. The 49ers have also extended their long-standing partnership with KPIX CBS 5 with increased local coverage of the team and have negotiated a new multi-year naming rights agreement for Monster Park.

Peart came to the 49ers from the Houston Texans, where he spent four years as the Vice President of Corporate Sales. In Houston, he was a member of the executive team that managed the most successful expansion franchise launch in U.S. sports history. Peart oversaw the Texans Alliance Partnership program and directed the team's corporate sales efforts. In addition, he coordinated the Texans efforts to secure naming rights for Reliant Stadium and managed the radio and television broadcasting business relationships. The Texans earned several distinctions, including the top rating in J.D. Power and Associates NFL Fan Experience Index and the 2003 PRISM Award, which is given annually to the top major league professional sports team based on business excellence criteria.

Prior to joining the Texans, Peart was Assistant Vice President of Advertising Sales for the Southwest Sports Group in Dallas. Prior to his stint in Dallas, Peart served as Regional Vice President of Sales for Network International/SMG. From 1987-1993, he was Director of Advertising Sales for the Pittsburgh Penguins. He has been involved in seven naming rights projects, most recently Reliant Stadium.

A Pittsburgh native, Peart earned a bachelor's degree from Point Park College in Pittsburgh and attended Carnegie Mellon University for his graduate studies. In 2003, Peart completed the prestigious Rice University Program for Managers. He is a founding member of the Advisory Board of Baylor University's Center for Sports at the Hankamer School of Business. He and his wife, Julie, reside in Menlo Park with their two children, Tyler and Kelsey.

LARRY MACNEIL

VICE PRESIDENT/CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

With 20 years of experience in finance and accounting, Larry MacNeil is in his third year as Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for the 49ers.

He is responsible for the management of the organization's business office, budgeting, forecasts, financial reporting, internal controls, partnership tax matters and cash management. MacNeil also works closely with the team's General Counsel with respect to insurance and contract matters, as well as the football operations staff on salary cap issues.

MacNeil's record as a financial leader and problem solver is extensive. After beginning his career in public accounting, MacNeil spent 12 years as a partner with a management consulting firm delivering financial expertise to a broad range of companies across the country. Over the course of his career, MacNeil has worked with clients in commercial banking, real estate development and management, insurance, investment banking, transportation, litigation, reorganization and education. MacNeil is a seasoned negotiator, having executed more than $2 billion in acquisitions, sales and financing transactions.

MacNeil served for 12 years as a Senior Partner with National Advisors, a San Diego based management consulting firm (1988-00). MacNeil began his career with Kenneth Leventhal & Company, CPAs in Southern California, supervising audit and consulting engagements (1984-88).

He earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Kansas and is a licensed CPA in California.

ED GOINES

VICE PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS AFFAIRS/ GENERAL COUNSEL

Ed Goines enters his fifth season as Vice President of Business Affairs and General Counsel for the 49ers. Goines oversees the 49ers legal and business contractual matters, provides counsel to senior management and oversees the legal aspects of the team's player contracts and coaching and front office employment agreements. Goines reviews, analyzes and assists in the structuring of commercial relationships with the team's marketing partners, local media partners and other service providers. Additionally, Goines acts as a liaison to governmental officials and civic and community organizations. He also serves as legal counsel to the team's non-profit charitable entity, the 49ers Foundation.

Goines is active in several San Francisco Bay Area community service organizations, including serving on the board of the San Francisco Bar Association and taking a leading role in expanding mentoring opportunities for urban youth.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Goines spent more than 10 years in senior positions in the legal and business affairs departments of several industry-leading companies, including Ticketmaster, Mattel Toys and Major League Soccer. Goines served as Vice President,

Assistant General Counsel and Chief Privacy Officer of Ticketmaster Corporation. While at Ticketmaster, Goines was responsible for the legal and business aspects of the company's online ticketing operations and established the ticketing company's online consumer privacy standards.

Goines was senior counsel for Mattel, Inc., principally involved in negotiating and drafting license and sponsorship agreements relating to Mattel toys and software products involving the Barbie and Hot Wheels brands. He also managed the international prosecution and enforcement of Mattel's trademarks and copyrights. Before that, Goines was in-house counsel for Major League Soccer, responsible for structuring the soccer league's licensing and sponsorship arrangements and leading its trademark and copyright anti-counterfeiting efforts.

In 1992, Goines began his legal career in the Los Angeles office of the Cleveland, OH based national law firm of Baker and Hostetler. He is a graduate of the UC Berkeley-Boalt Hall School of Law and a 1988 graduate of Stanford, where he received a degree in political science. Goines was born in Hot Springs, AR.

PARAAG MARATHE

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Paraag Marathe enters his fifth season with the 49ers and first as Director of Football Operations. Previously, he spent one season as Assistant to the General Manager and three seasons as Special Projects Manager in the 49ers personnel and football operations departments.

In his current role, Marathe is the club's chief contract negotiator and coordinates its compliance with the NFL's collective bargaining agreement. He is also responsible for the management of the club's salary cap as well as multi-year forecasting at both the individual club and league level. Marathe serves as the liaison with the team's business office and CFO with regards to player compensation.

In his time with the 49ers, Marathe has developed new systems within football operations to better understand and predict market trends on player contracts and their salary cap ramifications. He has also developed new methods and systems for evaluating and acquiring players for the College Draft and at the NFL professional level. He also manages the club's research and development efforts and assists with budgeting for various football administrative departments.

Marathe is also frequently allocated by Head Coach Mike Nolan and Owner/Chairman John York for special assignments within both the business and football sides of the organization.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Marathe worked at management consulting firm Bain & Company from 1999-01 as a Senior Associate Consultant, where he advised clients in a variety of industries including private equity, leveraged buyout, software, retail, sports footwear and health clubs. Before that, Marathe worked in the corporate consulting group at the International Management Group (IMG) from 1997-99, where he worked primarily on stadium naming rights deals and corporate sponsorships.

Born in Sunnyvale, CA, Marathe received his bachelor's degree with high honors from the Haas School of Business at the University of California, Berkeley and received his master's in business administration (MBA) from Stanford University's Graduate School of Business. He resides in Santa Clara, CA.

TERRY TUMEY

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

With an extensive background in football and advanced experience in business, Terry Tumey enters his first season as the Director of Football Administration. He enters the position after excelling in his role as Assistant Director of Football Administration for the past two seasons.

Tumey is responsible for planning and managing the finances for the football administration department, including the scouting and coaching budgeting, training room, video department, equipment room, strength and conditioning, travel and training camp. He also assists in contract negotiations and works with the management team with respect to the salary cap and compliance with the Collective Bargaining Agreement. He is also a key liaison with the groups that comprise the NFL Management Council.

Tumey is responsible for the coordination of the team's general football activities from inter-club communication to league-level issues such as the coordination of NFL Europe and non-player football contracts.

After spending two years as a personnel assistant (2001-02), evaluating talent and scouting opponents, Tumey was elevated to assistant director in March 2003.

Tumey's experience in business is substantial, having worked as senior associate for Coopers & Lybrand (1993-94), where he analyzed and advised on corporate relocation strategies among many other duties. He served as a capital planning manager for Panda Management Company in Pasadena (1994-95), developing marketing plans and analyzing the viability of potential restaurant sites.

From 1988-90, Tumey gained experience in real estate as an assistant project manager for Griffin Homes in Calabasas (1988-89) and as project manager with Crescent Bay Company in Santa Monica (1989-90).

Prior to coming to San Francisco in 2001, Tumey spent two years as a defensive assistant coach (1999-00) for the Denver Broncos. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, UCLA, in 1992 and later joined the Bruins staff full-time in 1995, serving as the defensive line coach for four years (1995-98).

A three-time All-Pacific-10 first-team choice as a nose guard at UCLA (1985-87), Tumey helped the Bruins win four bowl games, compile a record of 36-10-2 and finish ranked in the top-10 three times during his four-year career.

Tumey earned his bachelor's degree in political science in 1988 and returned to UCLA's Andersen School of Business where he received a master's in business administration in 1993.

A native of Tulsa, OK, Tumey and his family reside in Piedmont, CA.

MARIE P. DeBARTOLO SPORTS CENTRE

In loving memory of their mother, Marie P. DeBartolo, San Francisco 49ers Owner Denise DeBartolo York and her brother, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr., dedicated the team's training facility and office complex to her in August of 1988.

Situated on an 11-acre site in Santa Clara, CA (approximately 40 miles south of the stadium), the complex provides players, coaches and staff with all the necessary components for daily practices, weekly game preparations and general overall operations in one functional, state-of-the-art setting.

From its master blueprint to the smallest of details, the facility exemplifies the DeBartolos' strive for perfection and drive for superiority. It also reflects their dedication to the organization and first-class standard for operating procedures.

Three natural grass practice fields with underground drainage and watering systems allow for workouts in all Northern California weather conditions.

A two-story, 52,000 square-foot building (more than three times the space the 49ers had in Redwood City) houses all offices and facilities with the exception of the ticket and stadium operations. Located upstairs at the facility are offices for coaches, administration, sales and marketing, business operations, public and community relations, pro scouting and college scouting.

The ground floor contains a spacious dressing room area with 60 permanent lockers and allocations for extra (portable) lockers to be used during mini-camps and training camp when squads are larger.

A well-equipped weight room and training area downstairs accommodates both preventative and rehabilitative conditioning. A 30-by-40-foot hydro-therapy indoor swimming pool is also available.

Also located downstairs are numerous meeting rooms, each featuring a digital projection unit, allowing players and coaches the opportunity to analyze previous games, practice sessions and upcoming opponents.

Media facilities include two interview rooms and a 120-seat auditorium and conference room (wired for live television broadcasts from the site), making the set-up ideally suited for weekly press conference coverage and daily reporting duties. Located just outside the weightroom is a canopied patio area used for team meals, press luncheons and other team-related activities.

MIKE NOLAN

HEAD COACH
19th NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

A highly successful defensive mind, Mike Nolan will begin his first season as head coach of the San Francisco 49ers. Nolan enters his 19th year in the league and 24th year in coaching. He joins San Francisco after an impressive stint as the defensive coordinator of the Baltimore Ravens, a position he has held with three other teams including the New York Jets (2000), Washington Redskins (1997-99) and New York Giants (1993-96).

Nolan launched his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Oregon. Within five years, he had held positions as a linebackers or defensive backs coach at Stanford, Rice and LSU. In 1987, he joined the NFL under the Broncos' Dan Reeves. After three stints as an NFL defensive coordinator, Nolan was hired as a wide receivers coach for the Ravens in 2001. Brian Billick had envisioned Nolan as a defensive coordinator, and Nolan moved into that position with the departure of Marvin Lewis.

Over the past two seasons, Nolan's defense has yielded nine Pro Bowl starters. His stingy defensive units also produced the last two NFL Defensive Players of the Year.

In 2004, Nolan's defense finished tied for second in the NFL in average rush per carry (3.6 yards). The Ravens defense allowed only 16.8 points per game, good for fourth in the AFC. Nolan's unit had 34 total takeaways, including 13 interceptions. Additionally, safety Ed Reed was named the AP NFL Defensive Player of the Year. Reed earned 20 votes from a national panel of writers and broadcasters who cover pro football to make him the first safety to win the award in 20 years. He led the NFL with nine interceptions and set an NFL mark with 358 return yards on those picks. Reed joined LB Ray Lewis, CB Cris McAlister and LB Terrell Suggs as players selected to start in the 2004 Pro Bowl.

In 2003, Nolan's defense was among the NFL's best, finishing third overall. Baltimore ranked first in the AFC with 17 fumble recoveries, led the NFL in sacks (47) and tied for first in the AFC and second in the NFL with 41 takeaways. The Ravens defense allowed just 281 points and grabbed 24 interceptions. Nolan was named to USA Today's All-Joe Team following the 2003 season and NFL Assistant Coach of the Year by the Football Digest. During the 2003 season, Baltimore allowed the fewest yards per play (4.2) and fourth fewest passing yards (175.3 per game) in the NFL. Linebacker Ray Lewis was named the AP's NFL Defensive Player of the Year and was the leading vote-getter on AP's All-Pro team (49 of 50 votes). Reed, one of eight Ravens to make the Pro Bowl, tied a Ravens' record with seven interceptions and Suggs was named the AP's NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year while setting a Ravens' rookie record with 12 sacks.

Nolan was promoted to Baltimore's defensive coordinator in 2002. The season was especially challenging for Nolan due to the fact that the Ravens newcomers out-numbered starting veterans on defense. Eight rookies comprised the defensive roster by season's end, while Lewis was lost to a shoulder injury in October. Although the team faced adversity, Baltimore finished first in the AFC with a team-record 25 interceptions, second in the NFL in fewest yards per rush (3.7), third in the NFL in fewest yards allowed on first down (4.87 yards—best in the AFC) and third in the AFC with 31 takeaways. Linebacker Peter Boulware was double and triple-teamed with Lewis and defensive end Michael McCrary (knee) was out, however, Boulware still logged a career and team-high 59 sacks including seven that 2002 season.

Nolan joined the Ravens in 2001 and served a one-year stint as wide receivers coach. Tutoring the Ravens wide receivers followed a one-year stay as the NY Jets defensive coordinator in 2000. Under Nolan's tutelage, the Jets defense rebounded to tenth overall (tied with Philadelphia) in the league—11 positions better than the previous year.

From 1997-99 Nolan was the defensive coordinator of the Washington Redskins. In 1997, the Redskins allowed the eighth-fewest points in NFL and finished third overall in pass defense. He also spent four seasons as defensive coordinator under then-head coach Dan Reeves for the New York Giants (1993-96). In his first season, the Giants defense allowed the fewest points in the NFL (205). Nolan also worked on Reeves' staff from 1987-92 with the Denver Broncos as linebackers coach and as special teams coach/defensive assistant.

Nolan participated in the 1981 Broncos' training camp as a defensive back under Dan Reeves. He joined the Broncos after earning three letters at free safety for the Oregon Ducks. Nolan graduated from Woodside (CA) High School. He is the son of former NFL head coach Dick Nolan (San Francisco and New Orleans), who directed the 49ers to three NFC West Divisional titles in the 1970's. Nolan and his wife Kathy, have four children: sons, Michael and Christopher, and daughters, Laura and Jennifer.

Nolan's coaching background: 1981 (Oregon), 1982-83 (Stanford), 1984-85 (Rice University), 1986 (Louisiana State University), 1987-92 (Denver Broncos), 1993-96 (New York Giants), 1997-99 (Washington Redskins), 2000 (New York Jets), 2001 (Baltimore Ravens), 2002-04 (Baltimore Ravens), 2005 (San Francisco 49ers)

DUANE CARLISLE

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH
6th NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

Duane Carlisle was named as the 49ers assistant strength and conditioning coach on March 10, 2005. He will direct all of the speed, agility and conditioning programs for all positions on the team. Carlisle will also assist Johnny Parker with the implementation of the lifting programs throughout the season. Additionally, Carlisle will assist Dr. Suzanne Nelson with the implementation of a comprehensive sports nutrition program. He will also assist the team's athletic trainers with reconditioning injured players as they prepare to return to the playing field.

Carlisle, the president and founder of Lightning Fast Training Systems, is one of the leaders in the area of athletic performance training. He has spent the last 13 years pushing athletes to perform to their maximum potential.

Carlisle recently served as the speed development consultant for the Philadelphia Eagles (2000-04). He was also the head speed, strength and conditioning coach for the Philadelphia Charge of the Women's United Soccer Association and the speed, strength and conditioning consultant for Major League Lacrosse's New Jersey Pride (2001-2003). Additionally, Carlisle was the speed development coordinator with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays (1997-98) and was the sprint and jump coach at Penn State University.

He has prepared numerous players for the NFL Combine including Pro Bowlers Brian Westbrook, Priest Holmes, Matt Hasselbeck and Jerry Azumah. Carlisle has also served as the Director of Strength and Conditioning at the prestigious Lawrenceville Boarding School in Lawrenceville, NJ (2000-04).

Carlisle is a native of Haverhill, MA and was a track and field athlete at the University of Maryland. He graduated in 1989.

A.J. CHRISTOFF

SECONDARY COACH
1st NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

A.J. Christoff enters his first year with the 49ers after being named secondary coach January 25, 2005.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Christoff spent his entire coaching career in the collegiate ranks, making an impact at 11 universities around the country, including stops at Pacific-10 schools Stanford, UCLA, USC, Oregon and Oregon State. He has been a defensive coordinator for 17 seasons at six schools, including Idaho, Oregon, Stanford, Notre Dame, Colorado and Cincinnati.

Christoff's teams have appeared in 11 bowl games in the last 21 seasons. He has been on the coaching staff at five different universities that have advanced to bowl games, including Notre Dame, Alabama, UCLA, Colorado and Cincinnati.

Christoff is a native of Ritzville, WA. He earned a B.S. degree in biology from the University of Idaho and a master's degree in health education from Oregon State. He and his wife, Susan have two children: Rob, who is a linebackers coach at Montana State University and Andrea, a doctor at Los Angeles Children's Hospital.

Christoff's coaching background: 1972 (Oregon State), 1973-74 (New Mexico), 1975-76 (Idaho), 1977-82 (Oregon), 1983 (Stanford), 1984-85 (Notre Dame), 1986 (Georgia Tech), 1987-89 (Alabama), 1990-94 (UCLA), 1995-98 (Colorado), 2000 (USC), 2001-02 (University of Cincinnati), 2003-04 (Stanford), 2005 (San Francisco 49ers).

BILLY DAVIS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
14th NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

Billy Davis enters his first season as 49ers defensive coordinator after being named to lead the club's defensive unit February 9, 2005.

Davis joins San Francisco after completing his first season as linebackers coach of the New York Giants. Prior to New York, Davis spent the previous three seasons as the Atlanta Falcons linebackers coach. Keith Brooking was selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his three seasons under Davis.

The selection of Davis also adds another coach who has successfully run the 3-4 defense, a scheme that Nolan has strongly hinted the 49ers may implement as their base. In 2002, Davis was instrumental in helping Atlanta's linebackers adjust to the new 3-4 defense installed by defensive coordinator Wade Phillips.

Davis joined the NFL in 1992 as a defensive assistant with the Pittsburgh Steelers, working with the secondary for a year, then tutoring the linebackers for two seasos. In 1995, he began a four-year stretch as the outside linebackers coach with the Carolina Panthers under Dom Capers.

With Davis as their coach, linebackers Kevin Greene and Lamar Lathon finished first and second in the NFL in sacks, with 14.5 and 13.5 respectively, in 1996. Each made the Pro Bowl and the second-year Panthers advanced to the NFC Championship Game.

After leaving Carolina, Davis had a pair of one-year stops, first with the Cleveland Browns in 1999 (as a defensive assistant/linebackers) and next with the Green Bay Packers in 2000 (defensive assistant/defensive line).

Davis began his coaching career at Michgan State in 1990 where he stayed on through the 1991 season.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Davis was a college quarterback and receiver at the University of Cincinnati from 1985-1988. His father, Bill, served 13 years in the NFL including six years as the Browns' director of player personnel.

Davis' coaching background: 1990-91 (Michigan State), 1992-94 (Pittsburgh Steelers), 1995-98 (Carolina Panthers), 1999 (Cleveland Browns), 2000 (Green Bay Packers), 2001-03 (Atlanta Falcons), 2004 (New York Giants), 2005 (San Francisco 49ers).

GARY EMANUEL

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH
1st NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

Gary Emanuel enters his first season as the 49ers defensive line coach after being named to the position February 14, 2005.

Emanuel joins San Francisco after spending the past eight seasons at Purdue University where he most recently held the position of assistant head coach/defensive ends coach (1997-2004). Prior to joining the Boilermakers, Emanuel spent three seasons at Washington State coaching the defensive line (1994-96) where the Cougars ranked second in the NCAA in total defense (229 yards per game), third in scoring defense (12.1) and third in rush defense (73.8) while leading the Pacific-10 in rushing defense. Emanuel served in a similar capacity for three seasons at Syracuse University tutoring the Orangemen's defensive line (1991-93).

Many of Emanuel's products have gone on to successful NFL careers including Chad Eaton (New England Patriots, Seattle Seahawks), Akin Ayodele (Jacksonville Jaguars) and Shaun Philips (San Diego Chargers).

During his 24-year coaching career, Emanuel spent four training camps as a member of the NFL Minority Fellowship program. Those camps included the Oakland Raiders (2001), Arizona Cardinals (2000), Cleveland Browns (1999) and Chicago Bears (1995). He also spent a training camp with the Buffalo Bills (1992) as part of the Ralph C. Wilson Minority Coaching Fellowship.

Emanuel began his coaching career at his alma mater Plymouth State (1981-84) where he served as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach as well as head coach of the Panthers basketball team (1983-85). Following his time at Plymouth State, Emanuel moved on to West Chester University (1985-86), University of Massachusetts (1986-88) and Dartmouth College (1988-91) before heading to Syracuse in 1991.

Born in Philadelphia, PA, Emanuel was raised in New London, Connecticut, and received a bachelor's degree in 1982 from Plymouth State College.

Emanuel's coaching background: 1981-84 (Plymouth State), 1985 (West Chester), 1986-87 (Massachusetts), 1988-91 (Dartmouth), 1991-93 (Syracuse), 1994-96 (Washington State), 1997-04 (Purdue), 2005 (San Francisco 49ers).

BISHOP HARRIS

RUNNING BACKS COACH
12th NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

Bishop Harris enters his first season as the 49ers running backs coach. He was named to his position February 21, 2005.

Harris joins the 49ers after four successful seasons as the New York Jets running backs coach. In New York, Harris helped Curtis Martin to his last four 1,000-yard seasons since his arrival in 2001, including Martin's personal record of 1,697 yards in 2004. Harris previously served as running backs coach from 1998-99 for the Buffalo Bills. At Buffalo, Harris helped fullback Sam Gash make consecutive Pro Bowl appearances and helped guide running back Antowain Smith to his best season as a pro, picking up his first 1,000-yard season in 1998. Harris served in the same capacity with the Oakland Raiders from 1995-97 and the Denver Broncos from 1993-94. In Oakland, Harris directed two rushers to 1,000-plus rushing seasons (Harvey Williams 1,114 yards in 1995 and Napoleon Kaufman 1,294 yards in 1996).

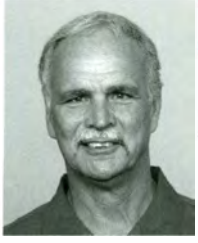
Harris coached on the collegiate level at Duke (1972-75) and was an assistant at North Carolina State (1977-79) before serving on the staff at LSU (1980-83). He moved to Notre Dame (1984-85) and then was a member of the University of Minnesota's coaching staff (1986-90), serving first as the linebackers coach and then as running backs/assistant head coach for the following three seasons.

Harris was named the head coach at his alma mater, North Carolina Central, in 1991 and held that role through the 1992 season. He was an All-Conference defensive back at NCCU from 1960-63 and earned his master's degree in Education from Duke.

Harris' coaching background: 1972-75 (Duke), 1977-79 (North Carolina State), 1980-83 (Louisiana State), 1984-85 (Notre Dame), 1986-89 (Minnesota), 1991-92 (North Carolina Central), 1993-94 (Denver Broncos), 1995-97 (Oakland Raiders), 1998-99 (Buffalo Bills), 2001-04 (New York Jets), 2005 (San Francisco 49ers).



PETE HOENER

TIGHT ENDS COACH
7th NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

Pete Hoener enters his first season with the 49ers after being named tight ends coach February 16, 2005.

Hoener joins San Francisco after spending the 2004 season as the offensive line coach of the Chicago Bears. Under Hoener, the Bears offensive line went through seven starting combinations in 2004, but featured Pro Bowl center Olin Kreutz. Hoener's offensive line paved the way for running back Thomas Jones to establish a career-high 948 rushing yards.

Prior to his stint with Chicago, Hoener spent three seasons with the Arizona Cardinals as both the offensive line coach (2003) and tight ends coach (2001-02). Hoener broke into the NFL coaching ranks with the St. Louis Cardinals (1985-86), tutoring the tight ends while working alongside Jim Hanifan.

In addition to his five years of NFL experience, Hoener chalks up over 25 years of college coaching knowledge, with 15 as an offensive coordinator. His coaching stops include Texas A&M (2000), Iowa State (1998-99), Texas Christian (1991-97), Purdue (1989-91), Illinois (1986-88), Indiana State (1978-84), Illinois State (1977) and Missouri (1975-76).

Hoener played football and earned a bachelor's degree from Bradley University (1974).

JIM HOSTLER

QUARTERBACKS COACH
6th NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

Jim Hostler enters his first season as the 49ers quarterbacks coach. He was named to the position February 1, 2005.

Hostler joins San Francisco after spending two seasons with the Jets as their wide receivers coach (2004) and quarterbacks coach (2003). He joined the Jets after serving as an offensive assistant/quality control coach and assistant wide receivers coach (2001-02) for the New Orleans Saints. Hostler began his NFL coaching career with the Kansas City Chiefs as an offensive assistant/quality control coach (2000).

Hostler helped tutor a lineage of talents including QB Chad Pennington, QB Vinny Testaverde, WR Santana Moss, WR Wayne Chrebet and WR Justin McCareins with the Jets. He also coached 2002 first-round draft selection Donte Stallworth as a member of the Saints coaching staff.

Hostler began his coaching career at his alma mater, Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP). He spent nine seasons at IUP and helped the Indians qualify for the NCAA Division II playoffs five times, including one trip to the National Championship game (1990). While at IUP Hostler spent time as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (1999), linebackers coach (1997-98) and running backs coach (1990-92, 1994-96). Hostler also spent the 1993 campaign as the offensive coordinator at Juniata (PA) College.

A four-year standout at IUP (1986-89), Hostler was a four-year letter winner and two-time all conference selection at cornerback. He also helped the Indians capture two Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference titles and three trips to the Division II playoffs while compiling a 38-9 record.

Hostler's coaching background: 1990-92, 1994-99 (Indiana-PA), 1993 (Juanita-PA), 2000 (Kansas City Chiefs), 2001-02 (New Orleans Saints), 2003-04 (New York Jets), 2005 (San Francisco 49ers).

VANCE JOSEPH

SECONDARY ASSISTANT
1st NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

Vance Joseph enters his first season with the 49ers after being named the 49ers secondary assistant on February 17, 2005.

Joseph joins San Francisco after spending last season as the defensive backs coach at Bowling Green State University (2004). He joined the Falcons after working in the same capacity at his alma mater, the University of Colorado, for two seasons (2002-03). Joseph also had a brief stint as the secondary coach at Wyoming (2002). He cut his coaching teeth as a graduate assistant at Colorado (1999-01).

Joseph lettered three times during his five-year (1990-94) collegiate career at CU as a quarterback. Joseph was a true freshman who saw action on Colorado's 1990 national championship team.

Joseph signed as an undrafted free agent with the New York Jets in 1995 where he made the transition from quarterback to defensive back. He played 17 NFL games with the Jets and Indianapolis Colts over the course of two seasons. Joseph finished his career with two interceptions.

Born and raised in Marrero, La., Joseph received a bachelor's degree in marketing in 1994 from CU.

Joseph's coaching background: 1999-01, 2002-03 (Colorado), 2002 (Wyoming), 2004 (Bowling Green), 2005 (San Francisco 49ers).

LARRY MAC DUFF

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
7th NFL Season, 3rd with 49ers

A 30-year veteran of the collegiate and NFL coaching ranks, Larry Mac Duff enters his third season as special teams coordinator for the 49ers.

Under Mac Duff in 2004, long snapper Brian Jennings was named as the "need player" for the Pro Bowl. First-year punter Andy Lee was named to several All-Rookie publications and several players set career-high's in special team tackles. Additionally, the 49ers special teams unit showed improvement in several team categories including kickoff coverage, punt coverage and punt return average.

Mac Duff came to the 49ers after two stints at the University of Arizona where he served as the Wildcats defensive coordinator for a total of 12 seasons.

In between stops at Tucson, Mac Duff spent four seasons as special teams coach for the New York Giants from 1997-00. Under Mac Duff, the Giants led the NFL in field goal defense in 1999 and 2000 and paced the NFC in punt returns in 1999. Kick returner Ron Dixon became the first player in NFL history to return two postseason kickoffs for touchdowns during the Giants NFC Championship run in 2000. The Giants went on to capture two NFC East Championships in Mac Duff's tenure.

Mac Duff's first stop in Arizona set standards for defense in the early 1990's. The Wildcats 'Desert Swarm' unit led the nation in scoring defense in 1992, allowing only 8.9 points per game and finished second in total defense. The impressive display was repeated in 1993 when the Wildcats led the nation in rushing defense while allowing a conference-record 30.1 yards per game. Arizona finished among the top 10 defenses for four consecutive seasons spanning from 1992-95.

After a decade coaching in the high school and junior college ranks, Mac Duff joined Stanford as defensive line coach in 1980. He moved West to Hawaii in 1984 to run the defensive line and special teams. Under Mac Duff's tutelage, Hawaii produced its first Division I first-team All-American in defensive tackle Al Noga.

An All-American defensive end at Fullerton (CA) Junior College, Mac Duff helped his team to a national title in 1967. He moved on to Oklahoma in 1968 where he played linebacker for the Sooners, graduating with a degree in physical education in 1970. He later earned a master's degree in physical education from Cal-State Fullerton in 1972. Mac Duff prepped at Sunny Hills High School in Fullerton, CA, where he lettered in football and baseball.

Born in Clinton, IA, Mac Duff and his wife, Barbie, have one son, Justin.

Mac Duff's coaching background: 1980-83 (Stanford), 1984-86 (Hawaii), 1987-96 (University of Arizona), 1997-00 (New York Giants), 2001-02 (University of Arizona), 2003-current (San Francisco 49ers).

BEN MCADOO

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE/QUALITY CONTROL COACH
2nd NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

Ben McAdoo enters his first season with the San Francisco 49ers after being named assisant offensive line/quality control coach on February 14, 2005.

McAdoo joins San Francisco following a brief stint at Stanford University where Walt Harris tabbed him to tutor the offensive tackles and tight ends. In San Francisco, he will assist George Warhop on the offensive line and handle the quality control aspects of the offense.

He spent the 2004 season as an offensive assistant/quality control coach with the New Orleans Saints where he assisted 49ers offensive coordinator Mike McCarthy.

Prior to his season in New Orleans, McAdoo spent time at the collegiate level coaching at the University of Pittsburgh (2003), University of Akron (2003), Fairfield University (2002) and Michigan State University (2001-02).

McAdoo is a native of Homer City, PA and attended Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP).

McAdoo's coaching background: 2001-02 (Michigan State), 2002 (Fairfield), 2003 (Akron), 2003 (University of Pittsburgh), 2004 (New Orleans Saints), 2005 (San Francisco 49ers).

MIKE MCCARTHY

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
13th NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

Mike McCarthy enters his first season as the 49ers offensive coordinator. He was named to his position January 27, 2005.

With innovative game plans that feature both chain-moving power and quick-strike passing, McCarthy is widely known as one of the top offensive minds in the NFL. McCarthy is a reputed developer of quarterbacks, having tutored Brett Favre, Jake Delhomme, Jeff Blake, Marc Bulger, Matt Hasselbeck and Aaron Brooks.

McCarthy joins San Francisco after serving as the New Orleans Saints offensive coordinator since 2000. After leading the NFC in scoring in 2002 with 432 points and 49 touchdowns, the Saints had another record-breaking season in 2003. The 340 points the Saints scored that season was the eighth-highest in club history, and all four of the team's scoring totals since 2000 under McCarthy rank in the club's all-time top 10. Under McCarthy's direction, the New Orleans offensive unit set 10 team records and 25 individual records.

Until McCarthy's hiring, the Saints hadn't produced a 1,000-yard wide receiver in eight years, but under McCarthy, Joe Horn caught 437 passes for 6,289 yards and 45 touchdowns and was selected for four Pro Bowls over a five-year span. Also until 2000, the team hadn't generated a 1,000-yard performance from a running back in a decade. But a Saints' running back has since reached the milestone each of his last five seasons. Two runing backs, Ricky Williams and Deuce McCallister, achieved this honor.

Following the 2000 season, McCarthy was chosen as the NFC Assistant Coach of the Year by USA Today. While coaching quarterbacks at Green Bay in 1999, the Packers ranked seventh in the NFL in passing and ninth overall in total offense with quarterback Brett Favre passing for 4,091 yards.

McCarthy also spent six seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs, serving as quarterbacks coach the last four years. As an offensive assistant in 1993-94, he worked closely with Hall of Fame quarterback Joe Montana. As quarterbacks coach from 1995-98, McCarthy's signal callers threw just 52 interceptions - the lowest total in the AFC during that period despite Kansas City using three starting quarterbacks during that span (Steve Bono, Rich Gannon and Elvis Grbac).

Before joining the Chiefs, McCarthy coached at the University of Pittsburgh from 1989-92 under Paul Hackett. McCarthy spent his first three years working with the quarterbacks before tutoring the wide receivers during his final season at the school. McCarthy's top pupil at Pittsburgh, QB Alex Van Pelt, broke Dan Marino's school records for career and single-season passing yards.

A collegiate tight end, McCarthy was an all-conference selection (1985-86) at Baker University (KS). McCarthy captained the school's 1986 team that finished as an NAIA Division II National runner-up. After his playing career, McCarthy joined the coaching staff at Fort Hays State (KS) as a graduate assistant from 1987-88.

McCarthy's coaching backgound: 1987-88 (Fort Hays State), 1989-92 (University of Pittsburgh), 1993-98 (Kansas City Chiefs), 1999 (Green Bay Packers), 2000-04 (New Orleans Saints), 2005 (San Francisco 49ers).

JOHNNY PARKER

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH
18th NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

Johnny Parker enters his first season with the 49ers as strength and conditioning coach after being named to his position February 14, 2005.

Parker, an 18-year NFL coaching veteran, joins San Francisco after spending the past two seasons in the private sector following a year with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2002) in which the Buccaneers captured their first Super Bowl title. He began his NFL career in 1984 with the New York Giants (1984-92) prior to joining the New England Patriots (1993-99). As a member of Bill Parcells' staff, Parker helped guide the Giants to appearances in Super Bowls XXI and XXV and the Patriots to an appearance in Super Bowl XXXI. He has been a part of three Super Bowl Championship teams and one runner-up.

Following the 1994 season, the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society named Parker the recipient of their President's Award, presented annually to the top strength and conditioning coach in the NFL.

Parker began his coaching career at Indianola Academy as linebackers coach (1969-73) prior to entering the collegiate ranks at the University of South Carolina as the Gamecocks strength and conditioning coach (1974-76). Following his years at South Carolina, Parker spent time at Indiana University (1977-79), Louisiana State (1980) and his alma mater University of Mississippi (1981-83) prior to joining Parcells and the Giants in 1984.

Born in Greenville, South Carolina, Parker was raised in Shaw, Mississippi and received a bachelor's degree in 1968 from Ole Miss. Parker also received a masters degree from Delta State.

Parker's coaching background: 1974-76 (University of South Carolina), 1977-79 (Indiana University), 1980 (Louisiana State), 1981-83 (University of Mississippi), 1984-92 (New York Giants), 1993-99 (New England Patriots), 2002 (Tampa Bay Buccaneers), 2005 (San Francisco 49ers).

JEFF RODGERS

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS COACH
3rd NFL Season, 3rd with 49ers

Jeff Rodgers enters his first season as the 49ers assistant special teams coach. Rodgers previously served the past two seasons as special teams quality control coach in San Francisco and continues to work directly with special teams coordinator Larry Mac Duff.

Rodgers joined the 49ers staff from the University of Arizona, where he spent two seasons as a graduate assistant on defense, working with the secondary in 2001 and the flex linebackers in 2002.

Rodgers played four seasons at linebacker for the University of North Texas. He earned his degree in business, specializing in entrepreneurship and strategic management, in 2000. Rodgers prepped at Westlake High School in Austin, TX.

Born in St. Paul, MN, Rodgers is single and resides in Santa Clara, CA.

MIKE SINGLETARY

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/LINEBACKERS
3rd NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

Mike Singletary enters his first year as assistant head coach/linebackers for the 49ers after being named to the position January 21, 2005.

Singletary teamed with 49ers head coach Mike Nolan the previous two seasons as the Baltimore Ravens inside linebackers coach. Players have flourished under his tutelage, including Ray Lewis, who earned 2003 NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors. Under Singletary, the inside linebackers have finished first and second in tackles in each of his seasons coaching the position. He was also part of a coaching staff that directed the Ravens defense to a third overall finish in 2003 and sixth overall in 2004.

In 2001, Singletary won the Walter Camp's "Man of the Year Award," based on his reputation for integrity and leadership within his profession and contributions benefiting his community, country and fellow man. He also co-founded Leadership Zone, a company that provides leadership training.

Singletary was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1998 after a stellar career with the Chicago Bears from 1981-92. He boasted 1,488 tackles (885 solo), finishing as the Bears' first or second leading tackler each of his last 11 seasons. Singletary was named to the NFL Team of the 80's after being selected to play in a team-record 10 consecutive Pro Bowls. He was also named All-Pro eight times (1983-89; 1991) and an All-NFC selection nine consecutive times (1983-91). He also started a defensive team-record 172 games for the Bears, trailing only running back Walter Payton's 184 career starts for the all-time team lead.

Singletary was drafted in second round of the 1981 NFL Draft from Baylor University.

Singletary's coaching background: 2003-04 (Baltimore Ravens), 2005 (San Francisco 49ers).

JERRY SULLIVAN

WIDE RECEIVERS COACH/SENIOR ASSISTANT
14th NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

Jerry Sullivan enters his first season with the 49ers after being named wide receivers/senior assistant coach January 25, 2005.

Sullivan, a 14-year veteran of the NFL coaching ranks, joins the 49ers after spending the 2004 season as wide receivers coach for the Miami Dolphins. Sullivan was a member of the Arizona Cardinals coaching staff for three seasons (2001-03). In his first two years with the club, Sullivan mentored the team's wide receivers, where he worked with a group that included David Boston. Under Sullivan's guidance, Boston led the NFL with 1,598 receiving yards on 98 receptions in 2001 and was selected to the first Pro Bowl of his career. In 2003, Sullivan was promoted to offensive coordinator where he worked with rookie wide receiver Anquan Boldin, a second-round draft choice who finished third in the league in receptions (101) and receiving yards (1,377) on his way to being named the NFL's Rookie of the Year as well as a starter on the NFC's Pro Bowl squad.

Sullivan has coached a multitude of Pro Bowl receivers, including Anthony Miller (1992-93), Tony Martin (1996), Herman Moore (1997-98), Germaine Crowell (1999), Boston (2001) and Boldin (2003).

Sullivan's NFL coaching career began in 1992 with the San Diego Chargers. Following his five-year tenure in San Diego, Sullivan coached wide receivers in Detroit from 1997-2000. Prior to that he coached on the collegiate level from 1971-91, including stints with Texas Tech, South Carolina, Indiana University, Louisiana State University and Ohio State.

Sullivan's coaching background: 1971-72 (Kansas State), 1973-75 (Texas Tech), 1976-82 (South Carolina), 1983 (Indiana), 1984-90 (Louisiana State), 1991 (Ohio State), 1992-96 (San Diego Chargers), 1997-00 (Detroit Lions), 2001-03 (Arizona Cardinals), 2004 (Miami Dolphins), 2005 (San Francisco 49ers).

ROBERT TALLEY

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH
1st NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

Robert Talley enters his first season with the 49ers as the special assistant to the head coach. Talley was named to the position March 19, 2005.

In his role, Talley will assist the offensive coaching staff as well as Head Coach Mike Nolan.

Talley joins the 49ers coaching staff after spending eight years on the Dartmouth staff where he served as the team's defensive coordinator (2000-2004) and defensive backs coach (1997-2004). During that span, Talley helped coach two players to the NFL ranks including linebacker Zack Walz (Arizona) and safety Lloyd Lee (San Diego).

Prior to his eight-year stint with the Big Green, Talley led the linebackers at Colby College in Waterville, ME, where he was also involved with the program's scouting, recruiting and strength and conditioning programs during the 1996 campaign.

Talley began his coaching career at the University of Massachusetts in 1991, where he worked with the defensive backfield and special teams. From 1992-94, he took over as the outside linebackers and specials teams coordinator. And in 1995, he served as the defensive ends coach and special teams coordinator.

A two-time All-America defensive back at Boston University, Talley was co-captain of the Terriers' football squad his senior season in 1990. Talley was named to the All-Yankee Conference team three times and set the BU record for career tackles.

Born in New York City, NY, Talley grew up in Staten Island, NY and went on to play as a quarterback and defensive back for Curtis (Staten Island, NY) High School.

Talley and his wife, Sarah, reside in Santa Clara, CA.

Talley's coaching background: 1991-95 (University of Massachusetts), 1996 (Colby College), 1997-2004 (Dartmouth), 2005 (San Francisco 49ers).

JASON TARVER

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT/OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS
5th NFL Season, 5th with 49ers

Jason Tarver enters his fifth season with the 49ers and will serve as the defensive assistant/outside linebackers coach. Tarver will coach the outside linebackers with Assistant Head Coach Mike Singletary. Tarver spent his first three seasons with the 49ers as an offensive quality control coach before becoming the assistant running backs coach last season.

Tarver joined the 49ers staff after spending three seasons as a graduate assistant coach with UCLA. In his three seasons with the Bruins, Tarver worked primarily with the defensive backfield and also assisted with special teams.

A Northern California native, Tarver played defensive back and wing back at Foothill High in nearby Santa Clara University, but played football at West Valley College in 1994 and 1995 because the Broncos cut the program.

After a series of injuries cut his career short, Tarver spent the next two seasons as an assistant coach at West Valley in 1996-97.

Born in Stanford, CA, Tarver earned a bachelor's degree in chemistry from Santa Clara in 1997 and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He also earned his master's degree in biochemistry from UCLA and received the departmental prize for distinguished teaching in 1998 and 2000. Married to Katie, couple resides in San Jose, CA.

Tarver's coaching background: 1996-97 (West Valley College), 1998-00 (UCLA), 2001-current (San Francisco 49ers).

GEORGE WARHOP

OFFENSIVE LINE COACH
10th NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

George Warhop enters his first season as the 49ers offensive line coach. He was named to the position January 31, 2005.

Warhop joins San Francisco after spending two seasons with the Dallas Cowboys. In his two seasons with the Cowboys, Warhop's offensive line helped account for 3,768 rushing yards, 25 rushing touchdowns and 216 first downs. Prior to his stint with Dallas, he spent five seasons as the offensive line coach for the Arizona Cardinals.

During his five years with the Cardinals offensive line, Warhop tutored a group who was able to steadily decline the quarterback sacks allowed from the 78 surrendered in 1997 before his arrival, to 50 (1998), 45 (1999), 35 (2000) to 29 (2001). The latter was the second-fewest in franchise history in a 16-game season, trailing only the 22-sack effort of the 1978 line. Largely because of Warhop and his troops' work, Arizona averaged 4.5 yards per carry on the ground, the tenth-best per carry average in the league and the team's highest average in 17 seasons.

In 1998, his first season with the Cardinals, Warhop's linemen allowed 50 sacks, a 28-sack improvement over the previous season. Warhop's first Cardinals' line also merited credit for Arizona's 18 rushing touchdowns, exceeding the combined totals of the previous two seasons (eight in 1996 and nine in 1997).

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Warhop spent the 1996-97 campaigns as an offensive line assistant with the St. Louis Rams, working with Jim Hanifan. Warhop was offensive line coach at Southern Methodist University in 1993 and then served in a similar capacity at Boston College from 1994-95. From 1991-92, he was the offensive coordinator for the London Monarchs of the World Football League, helping the team win the World Bowl in his first season.

He entered the coaching arena in 1983 at his alma mater, Cincinnati, and then served on the offensive staffs at Kansas (1984-86), Vanderbilt (1987-89) and New Mexico (1990-91).

Warhop's coaching background: 1983 (Unviersity of Cincinnati), 1984-86 (Kansas), 1987-89 (Vanderbilt), 1990 (New Mexico), 1991-92, London Monarchs (World League), 1993 (Southern Methodist), 1994-95 (Boston College), 1996-97 (St. Louis Rams), 1998-02 (Arizona Cardinals), 2003-04 (Dallas Cowboys), 2005 (San Francisco 49ers).

Personnel and Scouting

DAVID MCCLOUGHAN

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

David McCloughan enters his first season with the 49ers, overseeing the club's college scouting department. McCloughan joins San Francisco after spending the previous nine years in the player personnel department of the Oakland Raiders.

A native of Loveland, CO, McCloughan played four seasons in the NFL as a defensive back with Indianapolis, Green Bay and Seattle. He was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at Colorado and led the nation in punt returns as a senior with a 16.4-yard average.

Additionally, McCloughan was a first team All-Big Eight performer as a junior and a first team All-Academic pick as a sophomore. He was also a member of the 1990 Colorado National Championship team. He graduated with a degree in marketing and attended Loveland (CO) High School where he lettered in football, basketball and track.

McCloughan and his wife, JoDee, have two sons.

TOM GAMBLE

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Tom Gamble enters his first season with the 49ers, overseeing the club's pro personnel department. In his role, Gamble will monitor every NFL roster with an emphasis on scouting talent of upcoming pro free agents. He will also be responsible for maintaining continuous depth and personnel on the 49ers roster. Prior to his arrival in San Francisco, Gamble served as an area scout for the Indianapolis Colts for seven seasons under Bill Polian.

He worked in 1997 as a part-time scout for the Carolina Panthers while dueling as a pro scout with the Baltimore Ravens. Gamble entered the NFL as an assistant in the player personnel department of the Philadelphia Eagles in 1986. He stayed with the Eagles through 1994, serving as an area scout, handling contract negotiations, and later served as Director of Pro Scouting. He served as a defensive assistant/quality control coach with the New York Jets in 1995-96.

He was named All-Carolina's Conference and All-NAIA District 26 in 1985 as a pitcher at High Point University. Gamble earned his B.S. from High Point in 1987 and a M.S. from Rowan University in 1988.

The son of former Philadelphia Eagles President Harry Gamble, Gamble was born in Cherry Hill, New Jersey. He and his wife, Juliette, have three sons, Tom, Gregory and Mathew.

TRENT BAALKE

AREA SCOUT

Trent Baalke enters his first season with the 49ers and eighth NFL season as he scouts the Western region for San Francisco. Baalke joins San Francisco as an area scout after serving four years on the Washington Redskins scouting staff, his last (2004) as the club's college scouting coordinator. He joined the Redskins in 2001 and spent three seasons as Washington's national scout, traveling throughout the country in search of rising talent.

Before joining the Redskins, Baalke spent three seasons (1998-2000) as a scout with the New York Jets. He previously held the position as the athletic director at Shanley (Fargo, ND) High School. Before his time at Shanley, Baalke was the defensive line/strength and conditioning coach at South Dakota State (1990-95). He cut his coaching teeth as a graduate assistant and defensive line coach in 1989 for North Dakota State, helping the squad finish with a 14-0 record and Division II National Championship.

A double major at Bemidji State (MN), Baalke received his bachelor's degree in health and physical education. He went on to earn his master's degree in secondary education and sports administration while coaching at North Dakota State.

Baalke played strong safety and was a two-time All-Northern Sun Conference and two-time All-Mid West Region honoree at Bemidji. Trent and his wife, Beth, have two daughters, Katlynn and Cassie. The family resides in Loveland, CO.

ROYLIN BRADLEY

AREA SCOUT

Roylin Bradley enters his first season with the 49ers as the club's scout throughout the Midland region. Just prior to his arrival in San Francisco, Bradley worked for AltairStrickland in Texas City, TX.

Last year, Bradley also served as a substitute teacher, mentoring at the middle school and high school level within his former institution, LaMarque (TX) High School.

Bradley spent the 2004 summer as an intern with the Seattle Seahawks scouting department under Scot McCloughan after returning from a one-season stint in 2003 with the Canadian Football League where he was a linebacker for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

After a successful span (1997-2001) at linebacker for Texas A&M, Bradley spent 2001 training camp with both the Philadelphia Eagles and Seattle Seahawks and also spent time in training camp in 2002 with the New Orleans Saints.

Bradley played defensive end and fullback for LaMarque (TX) High School where he received All-State and Player of the Year honors in the state of Texas in 1995 and '96. He also ran the 400 meters for LaMarque's track team.

Bradley resides in LaMarque, TX where he was born and raised.

TODD BRUNNER

Todd Brunner is in his sixth season with the 49ers as a regional scout.

Prior to coming to the 49ers, he spent two seasons with the Cleveland Browns as an area scout where he scouted the Northeast region in 1999. Brunner joined the Browns from the Philadelphia Eagles where he spent four seasons (1994-97) as an area scout covering the Northeast region. He joined the Eagles as a scouting intern in 1992 and worked as a scouting assistant in 1993.

Brunner went to Lehigh University, where he lettered two years in football. As a junior, he led the team in special teams tackles and as a senior quarterback, tied or broke 14 school passing records. After Lehigh, he spent one season as a graduate assistant at Temple in 1991 and earned his master's degree.

Born in Middletown, NY, Brunner and his wife, Nancy, reside in Robbinsville, NJ with their daughter, Annie Elizabeth, and son, Chad Joseph.

JUSTIN CHABOT

AREA SCOUT

Justin Chabot is in his second season with the 49ers as a regional scout. Previously, Chabot spent five years as Director of Football Operations at Northwestern.

Chabot was extremely familiar with the Wildcats program, having starred as an offensive lineman on the 1995 and 1996 Big Ten Championship teams.

Chabot tallied 41 career starts on the line for Northwestern, including the 1996 Rose Bowl and the 1997 Citrus Bowl. A four-year letterwinner and captain of the 1996 squad, Chabot was named first-team All-Big Ten by the media and coaches his senior year. Chabot was also named to the Academic All-Big Ten list in 1993.

Born in Washington, DC, Chabot was raised in Oxford, OH. He graduated from Northwestern in 1996 with a degree in sociology and played professionally during the 1997 season with the Pittsburgh Steelers and the New York Giants.

OSCAR LOFTON

Oscar Lofton, who joined the 49ers scouting staff in 1992, enters his 14th season with the club as a regional scout.

His football background includes six years as a scout for the National Football Scouting Combine (1986-92) and coaching stints at Holy Cross College (1963-66), Hammond (LA) High School (1967-73) and Tulane (1973-79).

A three-sport athlete in football, basketball and track at Southeastern Louisiana, Lofton was enshrined into that school's Hall of Fame in 1960. He received his master's degree in physical education in 1966 and headed SLU as athletic director (1979) and head coach (1980-85). He played three seasons (1960-61 and '63) for the Boston Patriots, missing the 1962 campaign while serving in the U.S. Army.

Born in McCall Creek, MS, Lofton and his wife, Billie Jean, have three grown sons, Kelly, Andy and Kyle, and seven grandchildren. The couple lives in Hammond, LA.

MATT MALASPINA

AREA SCOUT

Malaspina joins the 49ers in his first season as an area scout after spending five years as an area scout with the Seattle Seahawks. During that span, Malaspina was part of Scot McCloughan's personnel staff. He landed in the Northwest after having spent 1999 with the Carolina Panthers in a similar capacity. Prior to his time with the Panthers, he spent one season with National Football Scouting.

Malaspina was also an assistant offensive coach at Jacksonville University from 1997-98. He entered college coaching in 1997 as an intern at the University of Central Florida. A 1993 graduate of Central Florida, Malaspina had a brief playing career as a center for the Shreveport Pirates of the Canadian Football League, playing in 1994 and attending training camp in 1995.

Malaspina and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Oviedo, FL.

ETHAN WAUGH

PLAYER PERSONNEL ASSISTANT

Ethan Waugh is in his second season as a player personnel assistant for the San Francisco 49ers. His duties include assisting the personnel department in a variety of areas including the evaluation and scouting of college and professional players. He will also work extensively with the 49ers college scouting database.

He joined the 49ers after spending the previous two seasons at Illinois Wesleyan where he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He also served as the team's recruiting coordinator.

Prior to that, Waugh was an assistant at Western Carolina from 1997-01 where he worked with linebackers, defensive ends, tight ends and special teams. He also worked with the running backs in 2000 and '01.

Waugh grew up in Libertyville, IL and attended Lake Forest College, lettering two seasons as a defensive back before transferring to Lawrence University in Appleton, WI. A 1997 graduate of Lawrence with a bachelor's degree in history, he lettered two seasons as a quarterback and as a receiver. He earned a master's degree in American history from Western Carolina in 1999.

Waugh comes from a football family—his father, Maury, was his head coach at Lake Forest and is currently coaching at Wayne State in Detroit, MI.

He and his wife, Allison, were married in the spring of 2003.

MIKE WILLIAMS

PRO PERSONNEL ASSISTANT

Mike Williams is in his sixth season with the 49ers. He joined the 49ers in 1999 as a volunteer in the personnel department and became full-time as a pro personnel assistant in the spring of 2000.

His duties include advance scouting, evaluating free agents, setting up free agent workouts, establishing and maintaining contacts with player agents and coordinating draft room operations.

Prior to the 49ers, Williams was the defensive coordinator at De Anza College in Cupertino, CA in 1998. He served one year as the linebackers coach at Southern Utah University in 1997. Before working at Southern Utah, he was the defensive coordinator at St. Lawrence (Santa Clara, CA) High School for three seasons. While volunteering for the 49ers in 1999, he also taught at St. Lawrence.

Williams earned a bachelor's degree in economics from Santa Clara in 1989 where he was a four-year starter at safety and graduated as the school's all-time leading tackler. He attended Mater Dei (Santa Ana, CA) High School where he participated in football, basketball and track.

He and his wife, Holly, have a daughter, Emily Angeline. The family resides in Menlo Park, CA.

TODD LAZENBY

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Todd Lazenby is in his 10th year with the 49ers and third as head athletic trainer.

In 2001, Lazenby and the rest of the 49ers athletic trainers were honored by their peers with the prestigious NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year Award. The Ohio native was particularly active in treating and rehabbing both Bryant Young (leg) and Garrison Hearst (ankle) from career-threatening injuries.

Lazenby joined the organization following five years with the HealthSouth Corporation in Orlando, FL, where he was the staff athletic trainer. During his tenure with HealthSouth (1991-95), Lazenby coordinated the HealthSouth golf program, covered high school athletics and treated patients in the clinic. He arrived with familiarity to the 49ers organization, having worked the team's 1990 training camp.

Prior to joining HealthSouth in 1991, Lazenby served as a graduate assistant on the training staff at Ohio State. With the Buckeyes, he worked with a number of sports including the football, ice hockey and men's gymnastics teams, among a host of others.

Lazenby earned a bachelor's degree from Ohio State in health education and a master's degree in sports management. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA).

He and his wife, Stevie, have a son, Caleb, and a daughter, Lilli. The family lives in Milpitas, CA.

JEFF TANAKA

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeff Tanaka is in his seventh season as an assistant athletic trainer and his second coordinating the rehabilitation programs of the 49ers injured players. He spent the previous two seasons at the University of California in the same capacity.

In 2001, Tanaka and the rest of the 49ers athletic trainers were honored by their peers with the prestigious NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year Award.

Tanaka had four stints in the professional ranks before his tenure at Cal, beginning with a training camp internship with the Los Angeles Raiders in 1994. He then spent two seasons as a graduate assistant with the 49ers (1995-96) before accepting a position as an assistant athletic trainer for the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe in 1997.

After one season in Amsterdam, Tanaka spent the next two seasons at Cal where he was head athletic trainer for men's basketball and the men's and women's swim teams.

Tanaka received a bachelor's degree in physical education from Cal Poly San Luis Obispo in 1994 and in 2001, earned a master's degree in kinesiology from San Jose State. As a student-trainer at Cal Poly, Tanaka had experience with all 17 sports for the Mustangs, including football, basketball and women's volleyball. While serving his graduate assistantship through San Jose State, he became the first athletic trainer at Santa Teresa (CA) High School where he implemented the program and facility.

Born in San Jose, CA, Tanaka graduated from Branham High School. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and California Athletic Trainers Association (CATA).

He is single and resides in San Jose, CA.

MANNY RIVERA

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Manny Rivera is in his second season as assistant athletic trainer with the 49ers.

Prior to working in San Francisco, Rivera worked with the United States Olympic Committee for one year. With the USOC, he provided coverage for USA Olympic and Paralympics Developmental teams including track and field, archery, rowing, kayak, cycling, soccer, volleyball, rugby and softball.

In 2002, Rivera served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the Indiana University football team. At IU, he was directly responsible for the emergency medical supplies, training supplies and inventory, practice and game field set-ups, as well as organizing and packing for team travel. Rivera was also responsible for supervision, instruction and evaluation of undergraduate athletic training curriculum students.

Rivera was a member of the 49ers training staff as an athletic intern in 2001 and was a training student assistant at the University of Pacific. He received his bachelor of arts from UOP in 2001 and a master's of science in kinesiology from Indiana University in 2003.

Born in the Philippines, Rivera graduated from Benicia High School. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA). Rivera is single and resides in Santa Clara, CA.

STEVE URBANIAK

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

After five seasons with the 49ers as an assistant, Steve Urbaniak enters his third season as equipment manager with the 49ers.

He is responsible for the many details that go into filling a NFL team's daily needs. These needs include outfitting players and coaches in safe and advanced equipment, as well as ordering and maintaining all of the team's equipment and sideline apparel. Steve and his staff also transport team equipment to and from all games, as well as assist coaches with daily practice needs.

He came to San Francisco in 1999 after serving a one-year internship with the Miami Dolphins in 1998. While in Miami, he served as a member of the host team assigned to the Denver Broncos prior to Super Bowl XXXIII.

Urbaniak attended East Carolina University, where he helped the Pirates reach consecutive Liberty Bowls as a punter before spending two years as the team's student manager. He graduated with a degree in therapeutic recreation in 1998. A certified athletic equipment manager, Urbaniak is also a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association. He added acting to his resume in 1998, playing a small role in the feature film "Any Given Sunday." Urbaniak was born in Lowville, NY. He is single and resides in San Jose, CA.

49ERS FOUNDATION
COMMUNITY OUTREACH

49ers Foundation

The San Francisco 49ers Foundation was established in 1991 as the non-profit community outreach extension of the San Francisco 49ers. The mission of the 49ers Foundation is to provide support to non-profit organizations in the greater San Francisco Bay Area focusing on education, health care and youth development. Since its inception, the Foundation has been dedicated to enriching the lives of youth in the Bay Area.

The money raised by the 49ers Foundation is allocated through grants to local Bay Area charities. Under the leadership of Denise and John York, the 49ers Foundation has become one of the premiere foundations in the NFL. Over the last three years, the foundation has awarded more than two million dollars to organizations in the greater San Francisco Bay Area.

The 49ers Foundation awarded grants totaling $750,000 in 2004-05. Recipients included the 49ers Academy in East Palo Alto, AIM High Academy in San Francisco, Eastside College Preparatory High School in East Palo Alto, Pathways for Kids in San Francisco and, in addition, gifted over 1,100 auction items to assist with the fundraising efforts of non-profit organizations throughout the San Francisco Bay Area.

The 49ers Academy

Since opening in 1996, the 49ers Academy in East Palo Alto has received a steady stream of support from the entire 49ers organization. The school serves 6th, 7th and 8th grade students who benefit from a small, nurturing and personalized environment. The 49ers Academy provides a caring community where the emphasis is on one-on-one relationships to promote academic success in children who have struggled in other school programs.

Bayview Hunter's Point YMCA

The Bayview Hunter's Point YMCA is a premier community organization for children, youth, adults, and seniors to develop mind, body, and spirit to their fullest potential in a safe environment that engages the entire community and embraces diversity.

Edgewood Center for Children and Families

Named the San Francisco 49ers Courage House in 2003, Edgewood Center was founded in 1851 as a refuge for orphans of the Gold Rush Era. For 152 years, Edgewood has provided a loving home for abused, neglected and abandoned children. Its mission is to provide children with an opportunity to grow into self-reliant individuals. Edgewood annually serves 5,000 children and families throughout the Bay Area and beyond.

Community Relations Programs

Project FUEL Overview

The San Francisco 49ers aim to promote health, education and safety among youth in public schools and neighborhood after-school programs through a youth wellness plan called Project FUEL. Several programs are housed under the Project FUEL umbrella. All of these programs help address health and safety issues youth face today. Project FUEL programs are implemented in the San Francisco, San Mateo and Santa Clara counties.

49ers Foodball

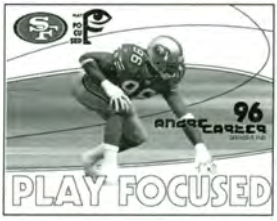
49ers Foodball is a curriculum that provides supplemental materials such as the Nutrition Playbook for elementary school educators and community leaders to teach kids about the basic food groups and making healthy choices. All the lessons and activities contained in the Nutrition Playbook were adopted from the Washington Apple Education Foundation's Healthy Choices for Kids program.

Tackle A Book

Tackle A Book promotes literacy and reading during summer months and throughout the school year by way of incentives from 49ers and other sponsors. The programs run through library systems and elementary schools in the Bay Area. Youngsters are rewarded with bookmarks, classroom posters and other incentives for their reading achievements.

Gatorade Jr. 49ers

During summer training camp, the 49ers host more than 700 youth who take part in the Gatorade Jr. 49ers Training Camp Clinics. Kids learn fundamental football drills and the importance of proper hydration. Youngsters run through a variety of stations, where they learn football techniques such as passing, receiving and agility. In an effort to expand the outreach, the 49ers take the program off-site to local Bay Area elementary and middle schools.



Play Focused

Play Focused is a program designed to raise the level of eye care for children. The 49ers support the services of the San Francisco Optometric Society and Santa Clara County Optometric Society to children in public schools. Trading cards and bookmarks, featuring 49ers players, are distributed to the children at the screenings.

Join The Team

The JOIN THE TEAM initiative is the NFL's commitment to making a difference off the field and in the community. The San Francisco 49ers take pride in striving to make a difference in the San Francisco Bay Area—a commitment that is important on every level of the organization.

The 49ers encourage fans to explore their individual talents and find ways to give back. Just like the players on our team are unique and have various roles, volunteers come from different backgrounds and offer special talents. You can Join The Team by mentoring a child, serving food at a shelter or reading to the blind. Join the 49ers in making a difference in the community and Join The Team!

DID YOU KNOW...

Arnaz grew up in Louisiana, in the land of New Orleans Saints and Dallas Cowboys fans, yet was always a San Francisco 49ers fan. A high school quarterback, Arnaz looked up to Joe Montana and naturally became a fan of Montana's alma mater, Notre Dame. While he ended up playing as a quarterback at Notre Dame and wearing Montana's #3 jersey, he now adds another mutual piece of Montana's football repertoire to his own—the 49ers.

DID YOU KNOW...

Throughout his life, Fred has been breaking horses in and around Alabama. The purpose of breaking horses is to transform a wild horse into a tame horse so they may be handled properly. Whenever Fred finds time to make his way home to Alabama, he and his brother-in-law spend time out on the ranch working with the wild horses. At times, Fred will ride the wild horse until it becomes familiar with the human touch.

2003: Saw action in 15 games with two starts, recording 17 tackles (16 solo) while logging time at both cornerback and safety...Valuable special teams member with 15 tackles along with three forced fumbles and one fumble recovery...Registered one special teams tackle and one fumble recovery at St. Louis (9-14)...Tallied four solo tackles, one special teams tackle and one forced fumble vs. Cleveland (9-21)...Recorded two special teams tackles vs. Detroit (10-5)...Recorded two special teams tackles and one forced fumble vs. Tampa Bay (10-19)...Inactive at Arizona (10-26)...Forced one fumble and recorded three special teams tackles vs. Pittsburgh (11-17)...Recorded two special teams tackles at Baltimore (11-30)...Registered one solo tackle and one pass defensed at Cincinnati (12-14)...Made first career start at cornerback and had three tackles (two solo) and one pass defensed at Philadelphia (12-21)...Started at safety and recorded CAREER-HIGH nine solo tackles vs. Seattle (12-27).

COLLEGE: Played at North Carolina A&T...Helped team win Black College Championship in 1999...Led the squad in interceptions and named team's Defensive Back of the Year in 1999.

PERSONAL: Born Dwaine L. Carpenter (11-4-76) in Pinehurst, NC…Prepped at West Montgomery (Wadeville, NC) High School…Married…He and his wife, Taptolia, have two sons, Jaelin and Jordan, and one daughter, Sequoia.

DID YOU KNOW...

After graduating from North Carolina A&T, Dwaine joined the Rochester Brigade of Arena Football League2 in 2001 and later the Buffalo Destroyers of the Arena Football League during the AFL's 2002 and 2003 seasons. To help pay bills during that time, Dwaine worked at Burger King when he wasn't busy on the playing field until his talents in the AFL were discovered by the 49ers. He was then invited to Santa Clara for a free agent tryout and the 49ers signed Dwaine as a free agent shortly after on May 27, 2003. Against the odds, he won a spot of the 53-man roster where he has remained since.

DID YOU KNOW...

Fighting off defenders is nothing new for Andre. He has been a black belt in karate since the age of 12 and uses the technique he has learned to ward off opposing blockers. If Andre's in the mood for something a little more 'low-key' to fill his spare time, the piano player taps into his flair for music and tickles the ivories.

DID YOU KNOW...

P.J.'s determination has always compensated for his lack of "ideal" size. He was considered too short (5-foot-10) and too slow to play major college football but led Northern Illinois University in receiving twice, including 77 catches for 1,028 yards in 2003. After his first season as a 49er, P.J. reached out to younger players with his "Live Your Dream" football camp at his local high school in Illinois. Fleck's first camp drew 170 boys, ages 9 to 18, for a three-hour fun day of drills. Helping him lead the group were 49ers QB Ken Dorsey and C Norm Katnik and Jets WR Justin McCareins.

PERSONAL: Born Joselio Basilio Hanson (8-13-81) in Inglewood, CA...Prepped at St. Bernard (Playa Del Rey, CA) High School...Led team to state semifinals...Single...Resides in Inglewood, CA.

DID YOU KNOW...

Joselio is one of the few undrafted free agents to beat the odds and earn a roster spot on the 49ers 53-man active list. Though the 49ers didn't pluck Hanson in the 2003 NFL Draft, they were fortunate to scoop him up the following week and sign him as a free agent. The young talent impressed during training camp and was signed to the 2003 practice squad. In 2004, he took his game to the next level and was selected to the 49ers active roster where he saw action in 13 games and notched his first career sack.

DID YOU KNOW...

While many NFL players choose to relax and vacation during their short spring respite, Terry opted to put his nose to the grindstone. His offseason included a stint as an Operations Intern for the NFL Europe at the league's training camp in Tampa, Florida. Terry got a taste of what goes into the operational size of a training camp while assisting with the logistics of the camp, coordinating player physicals to planning meals for six different NFL Europe clubs.

DID YOU KNOW...

There is definitely not a shy bone in Brian's body. The outgoing long snapper is one of the most sociable players in the 49ers locker room. And after attending 13 schools throughout his home state of Arizona, it's easy to see how Brian adopted his friendly demeanor. He attended six pre-schools, five elementary schools, one middle school and finished his educational whirlwind tour at Red Mountain High School in Mesa, AZ.

DID YOU KNOW...

Andy never attended a NFL game growing up in South Carolina. Even when he went on to become a standout punter on the collegiate level at the University of Pittsburgh, he was still a stranger to live NFL action. The first professional game he ever attended was as a player with the 49ers last season. And his first NFL season was memorable after sailing the fourth-longest punt (81 yards) in team history.

49ERS ACADEMY

Over the past year, the 49ers Foundation has partnered with various Bay Area organizations to raise funds for their worthwhile programs. One of those programs, the 49ers Academy, raised $140,000 for the low income students that attend the school in East Palo Alto. The 49ers Academy is comprised of students in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades who are considered to be in high-risk settings. The Academy provides these students a small, intimate teaching environment with plenty of personalized programs.

DID YOU KNOW...

When the 49ers acquired Willie on July 15, 2005, it marked the first time since 1988 that San Francisco made a straight player-to-player trade. San Francisco traded defensive end John Engelberger to the Broncos to gain depth at the cornerback position from Willie. In 1988, the 49ers traded center Fred Quillan to the New Orleans Saints for wide receiver Wes Chandler. Until 2005, San Francisco's other trade acquisitions have been in exchange for draft picks.

DID YOU KNOW...

While he is igniting three-alarm fires across the line of scrimmage and into the backfield during the season, Brandon will also try to put out fires off the field. The linebacker plans to become a firefighter when his playing career is over. He said firefighting will give him an avenue to remain active athletically when football comes to a close and more importantly, he'll be helping others. Brandon plans on taking classes during the 2006 offseason.

JOE NEDNEY

KICKER 6

Ht: 6-5, Wt: 225, Born: 3-22-73
College: San Jose State
9th Year (FA in '05)
Games/Starts: 2004-0/0; Career-90/0
Signed through 2005

CAREER: Strong-legged, accurate kicker looking to bounce back from a season-ending hamstring injury in 2004 that sidelined him for the entire campaign in Tennessee…Had been anxiously awaiting the 2004 season after missing nearly all of 2003 after tearing right ACL in Titans season opener against Oakland…Endured rigorous rehabilitation workouts during the 2003 offseason to prepare himself for the 2004 slate…Led Tennessee in scoring during first two seasons with the club…Was successful for the Titans on 30 of 32 field goals under 40 yards (94%) and 70 of 72 extra points (97.2%)…Never missed a field goal (52 of 52) of less than 30 yards during his career…Joined Toni Fritsch (1979, 1980) and Al Del Greco (1998) as the only placekickers in Titans franchise history to successfully connect on 13 of his first 14 attempts to start the 2002 season…Connected on 12 career game-winning field goals—five with Tennessee, including a 26-yard field goal in overtime to give the Titans a win over Pittsburgh in the 2002 AFC Divisional Playoff round…Six-time Special Teams Player of the Week winner …Became only the second player (Deion Sanders) to win player of the week honors with four different teams (Miami, Arizona, Carolina, Tennessee)…Tied for second in the league with 12 touchbacks in 2001 and was fourth in the AFC in 2002 with nine touchbacks…At 6-foot-5, Nedney and Colts kicker Mike Vanderjagt share the distinction as the tallest kickers in the NFL.

ACQUIRED: Agreed to a one-year contract with San Francisco (3-10-05)...Signed with the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on (3-9-01)…Originally signed as an undrafted rookie free agent with Green Bay in 1995.

2004: (With Tennessee) Placed on Injured Reserve (9-8) after injuring hamstring in practice just one day earlier.

2003: (With Tennessee) Connected on 8 of 10 field goal attempts and nine extra point attempts in four preseason games…His second quarter 50-yard field goal gave Tennessee a 9-3 lead in season opener against Oakland (9-7) before suffering a torn right ACL while attempting a tackle on ensuing kickoff…Missed remainder of season after he was placed on Injured Reserve (9-11).

2002: (With Tennessee) Scored a team-high 111 points, the second-highest total of his career…Ranked seventh in the AFC in points among kickers and was sixth in field goal accuracy, connecting on 25 of 31 field goal attempts (80.6%), also the second highest mark of his career…Handled all kickoff duties and finished fourth in the conference with nine touchbacks…Made CAREER-HIGH 53-yard field goal at Dallas (9-15) to tie career long…Marked longest field goal since a 52-yarder (10-15-00) with Carolina and the team's longest field goal since 1996 (56 yards by Del Greco vs. San Francisco, 10-27-96)…Booted three field goals in three consecutive games (10-13 vs. Jacksonville., 10-27 at Cincinnati., 11-3 at Indianapolis)…Made four field goals (32, 37, 40 and 21 yards) for the sixth time of his career, a CAREER-HIGH at Baltimore (11-24)…Hit game-winning 38-yard field goal in overtime at the New York Giants (12-1), the 11th game-winner of his career…In his first playoff appearance, made two of three field goal attempts and all four extra point attempts in a 34-31 AFC Divisional Playoff win against Pittsburgh (1-11-03), including a 26-yard field goal in overtime to deliver the victory…Marked 12th career game-winning field goal…Left AFC Championship game at Oakland (1-19-03) in the second quarter after hyper-extending left knee while making a tackle.

2001: (With Tennessee) Played in 16 games with Tennessee and scored a team-high 94 points…Connected on 20 of 28 field goal attempts (long of 51 yards) and 34 of 35 extra point attempts…Split the uprights on three game-winning field goals in the final two minutes of regulation or in overtime and did not miss a field goal under 44 yards all season…Kicked off 72 times, placing 19 in the end zone with 12 touchbacks, which tied for second place in the NFL…Hit a season-long 51-yard field goal and two extra point attempts against Miami (9-9)…Named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after making the game-winning 49-yard field goal in 31-28 overtime win against Tampa Bay (10-14)…Received AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for the second consecutive week after hitting the game-winning kick from 46 yards with five seconds remaining in 27-24 win at Detroit (10-21)…Had a perfect day against the Lions, making four field goals (38, 46, 30, 46) for the fifth time in his career…Connected on both field goal attempts (22, 21) in 13-10 win at Oakland (12-22), including 21-yard field goal with 1:47 to play, his third game-winner of the season and 100th successful attempt of his career.

2000: (With Denver/Carolina) Played in 15 games—three with Denver and 12 with Carolina—after being waived by Oakland prior to opening day…Was eight of 10 on field goals with Denver before being waived and later signed by the Panthers (10-3)…Connected on 34 of 38 field goals for 126 points in Carolina…Field goal total ranked second in the NFL and his point total tied for fourth in league (Gramatica, Tampa Bay)…With Denver, connected on all four field goal attempts (24, 32, 22, 21) and all three extra point attempts against Oakland (9-17) after being signed the week before the game to fill in for the injured Jason Elam…Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his 12-point performance against Seattle (10-8), registering a CAREER-HIGH four field goals (44, 42, 22, 29) in his first action with Carolina…At St. Louis (11-5), converted on all four field goal attempts (35,45,24 and 46 yards), including the game-winning 46-yarder with 40 seconds remaining in the contest…Marked seventh game-winning kick, third four-field goal contest since joining the Panthers, earning him NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for the second time in 2000…Converted all three field goal attempts (20, 23 and 37 yards) against St. Louis (12-3) to set new Carolina record of 18 straight field goals made, breaking old mark of 16 set by John Kasay in 1996.

1999: (With Arizona/Oakland) Was with Arizona for four games (inactive three games) before being waived (10-4)…Signed by the Raiders late in the season and played in three games…In Raiders' regular season finale at Kansas City (1-2-00), converted on two field goals, including the game-winner from 33 yards in overtime.

1998: (With Arizona) Played 12 games for the Cardinals before suffering a left ACL injury…Converted 13 of 19 field goals and all 30 PATs for team-leading 69 points and sailed 22 of 54 kickoffs into the end zone with 13 touchbacks…Connected from 53 yards to provide margin of victory in 17-15 Cardinals win against Detroit (11-1).

1997: (With Arizona) Signed by Arizona as a free agent (10-14) and scored 52 points on 11 of 17 field goals (64.7 percent) in 10 games…Converted all 19 extra point attempts and sailed nearly one-half of his kickoffs (16 of 35, 45.7 percent) into the end zone for touchbacks…In first game as a Cardinal, was the hero of a 16-13 victory at Baltimore (11-23) with field goals of 22 yards, 27 yards, and a 43-yard game-winner as time expired.

1996: (With Miami) Re-joined Dolphins as a free agent and led Miami in scoring with 89 points on 18 of 29 field goals and 35 of 36 extra points…Tied for NFL lead in touchbacks with 20.

1995: (With Green Bay/Oakland/Miami) Was signed by Green Bay as an undrafted free agent…Then signed by the Raiders late in training camp and appeared on practice squad…Also spent time on Miami's practice squad later in 1995.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman as place kicker who also handled punting duties as senior at San Jose State…Finished as the school's all-time leading scorer with 236 points on 39 of 70 field-goal attempts and 119 of 132 extra points…Averaged 37.8 yards on 70 punts as a senior.

PERSONAL: Born Joseph Thomas Nedney (3-22-73) in San Jose, CA…Lettered in football as a kicker/punter and in basketball as a guard/forward at Santa Teresa (San Jose, CA) High School…Awarded college degree from San Jose State in May, 1998 after completing an internship in the Arizona Cardinals community relations department…Worked with the Easter Seals ABLE (Athletes Building Life Experiences) program in Tennessee…Married to Gina…Couple resides in Franklin, TN, with their daughter, Gabrielle (6-23-02) and son, Cade (3-11-05).

DID YOU KNOW...

Joe was born with air pockets in his lung tissue, and by the age of 17 his left lung had collapsed three times within a year. Prior to his junior year of high school, he underwent corrective surgery to help strengthen his lung. Although Joe played wide receiver during his first two high school seasons, doctors told him he would be unable to take part in heavy contact for several months. Determined to find a way to contribute, Joe, who played youth soccer prior to high school, received permission to try out for the kicker position. The position switch launched his kicking career and the rest is history.

THIRD TIMES A CHARM

Tony Parrish led the team in interceptions for the third consecutive season in 2004. In his three seasons with the 49ers, Parrish has accounted for 20 interceptions. Only three players have led the 49ers in interceptions for three consecutive years. Parrish also enjoyed his first two-interception performance of the season against Tampa Bay (11-21-04). It was the third multi-interception game of his career. Since the 11th week of 2001, Parrish has 21 interceptions, tied for the highest total in the NFL.

FORMING PARTNERSHIPS

The 49ers Foundation teamed up with Cadence Design Systems in 2005 to raise $1.279 million for the Fischer House, a "home away from home," for families of veterans receiving treatment at the VA Hospital in Palo Alto. The funds will also go to support the many community outreach efforts of the 49ers Foundation.

DID YOU KNOW...

During his junior and senior years at Crossland High School, Julian got a job installing and repairing air conditioning and heating units. While Peterson naturally enjoyed working with his hands, the job required training. He had to take a three-hour, five day a week course at Crossland before he and his classmates could see time on the field.

College: Washington
2nd Year (D-7 in '04)
Games/Starts: 2004-1/0; Career-1/0
Signed through 2006

CAREER: Rifle-armed quarterback with utmost confidence in ability…Tough, gritty athlete who shows great poise in pocket and has total command of huddle…More comfortable putting zip behind short and intermediate tosses…Stands tall under pressure and will take sack rather than throw ball into traffic…Solid field leader with good poise and stays in control when pressured…Shows good location and touch on short throws and is especially accurate on fade routes in 25 to 30-yard range…Does very nice job of anticipating when receivers will get open…Has good blue-collar work ethic and quiet, yet confident nature…Active for four games in 2004 and saw action under center for one.

ACQUIRED: Selected by 49ers in seventh round (No. 217 overall) of 2004 NFL Draft.

2004: Designated as third quarterback Weeks 1-7...Did not play at Chicago (10-31)... Designated as third quarterback Weeks 9-13...Did not play Weeks 14-15...Completed 4 of 10 passes for 55 yards with two interceptions vs. Buffalo (12-26) after being called in to duty for an injured Ken Dorsey (finger)...Did not play at New England (1-2-05).

COLLEGE: Went on to shatter most of school's game, season and career passing records at the University of Washington…Appeared in 38 games, starting 35 contests…Completed 792 of 1,373 passes (57.7) for 9,946 yards, 53 touchdowns and 42 interceptions, topping previous records of 458 completions by Damon Huard (1992-95), 811 attempts by Sonny Sixkiller (1970-72), 5,742 yards and 51 scores by Brock Huard (1996-98)…Average of 261.7 yards per game passing topped old Washington all-time record of 196.3 yards per game by Sixkiller…Pass completion percentage of 57.7 percent ranks fifth in school history…Threw for over 300 yards 14 times, surpassing old record of four by Brock Huard…Had 14 pass completions of 50 yards or longer, breaking old school record of nine by Damon Huard…Owns seven of team's top 10 passing yard performances, including top three marks in school history…Also has six of team's top 10 pass completion games…His 4,458 yards passing in 2002 set school and Pacific-10 Conference season records…His 10,220 yards (including postseason) rank fourth in Pac-10 history behind Cade McCown of UCLA (10,708, 1995-98), Steve Stenstrom of Stanford (10,911, 1991-94) and Carson Palmer of USC (11,818, 1998-02)…His 55 touchdown passes rank 13th in Pac-10 history…Majored in sociology.

PERSONAL: Born Cody Pickett (6-30-80) in Caldwell, ID…Attended Caldwell (ID) High School…Named 15th-best quarterback in nation by The Sporting News…Super Prep All-America and named to Tacoma News Tribune's "Western 100" and "Northwest Nuggets" teams…Passed for more than 1,600 yards and rushed for eight touchdowns in 1998...Second-team A-1, Division II All-State selection...Passed for more than 5,000 yards during career...Four-sport athlete in football, basketball, golf and rodeo…Qualified for National Rodeo Finals (team roper) in 1997, 1998 and 1999…Led Southern Idaho Conference in rebounds with over 10 per game on basketball court and earned Idaho State Player of the Year honors in hoops…Father, Dee, was championship roper on professional rodeo circuit and was 1984 World Champion Cowboy…Dee was inducted into Pro Rodeo Hall of Fame in August of 2003 and previously played quarterback at Boise State…Once out threw (75 yards) current Denver Broncos quarterback Jake Plummer at Plummer's summer camp in Boise…Single…Resides in Caldwell, ID.

DID YOU KNOW...

Cody's first passion is playing football. But had he not pursued a career in the NFL, Cody would have entered the family business, the world of Rodeo. He is the son of Dee Pickett, a 2003 Inductee into the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association Hall of Fame. Dee's list of accomplishments include the PRCA's Rookie of the Year in 1978 and in 1984, he won the world all-around title and the world team roping title. Cody qualified for the National Rodeo Finals (team roper) in 1997, 1998 and 1999.

DID YOU KNOW...

Ahmed was held back in the second grade. Instead of becoming discouraged, he used this as motivation to go on and become a two-time Academic All-American at Ohio State. He and his family have kept their Buckeye connection, splitting time and residence between Columbus, OH and Santa Clara, CA.

THE MAGIC NUMBER IS 17

San Francisco is 99-7 in their last 106 games when holding an opponent to 17 points or less. The team has an overall record of 283-56-4 since 1950.

DID YOU KNOW...

As an avid golfer, Tim is always looking for ways to improve his golf game, even finding a way to practice his chip shots without leaving home. He recently had a putting green installed in his backyard as a way to hone his short game. Now practice is right outside his back door.

BEST OF THE REST

Tim Rattay threw for a career-high 417 yards in a 31-28 victory against the Arizona Cardinals (10-10-04). It was also Rattay's first career 400-yard game as he completed a career-high and team-record 38 passes. Rattay's 57 passing attempts are tied for the second most in team history. Rattay is also the only seventh-round quarterback in the last 10 drafts to pass for over 400 yards in a game. He is one of only two seventh-round or undrafted quarterbacks to enter the league in the last 10 years to pass for over 400 yards in a game. Jeff Garcia was the other quarterback. He passed for 437 yards in 1999 and 402 in 2000.

RICHARD SEIGLER

Ht: 6-2, Wt: 238, Born: 10-19-80
College: Oregon State
2nd Year (D-4B in '04)
Games/Starts: 2004-7/0; Career-7/0
Signed through 2006

CAREER: Expected to build on rookie season in which he gained valuable experience as a member of the 49ers veteran linebacking corps…Solid contributor on special teams…Powerful tackler with good hands that are able to effectively push off blocks…Reacts and pursues ball with great effort…Flashes strong, hard face-up strike when delivering tackles…Knows how to maneuver hands underneath, taking tight ends off routes.

ACQUIRED: Selected by 49ers in fourth round (No. 127 overall) of 2004 NFL Draft.

2004: Saw action in seven games as a rookie, mainly on special teams…Finished with one assisted tackle on defense and six special teams stops…Inactive vs. Atlanta (9-12)…Saw action on special teams at New Orleans (9-19)…Inactive Weeks 3-4…Recorded one assisted tackle and one assisted special teams tackle vs. Arizona (10-10)…Saw action on special teams at New York Jets (10-17)…Inactive Weeks 8-13…Recorded one assisted special teams tackle at Arizona (12-12)…Tallied one solo special teams tackle vs. Washington (12-18)…Registered two special teams tackles (one solo) vs. Buffalo (12-26)…Recorded one solo special teams tackle at New England (1-2-05).

COLLEGE: Oregon State career record holder in defensive points (1,344)…Two-time team captain…Holds school record with 49 consecutive starts…Recorded 356 tackles (227 solo), seven sacks (57 yards), 53 tackles for loss (163 yards), 15 quarterback pressures, two fumble recoveries, one forced fumble, 17 passes defensed and nine interceptions (149 yards) in career…Only Steve Brown (415, 1970-72), Reggie Tongue (362, 1992-95) and Jeff Schneider (360, 1984-87) had more tackles at OSU…His 53 stops behind the line of scrimmage are second in school history…Majored in sociology.

PERSONAL: Born Richard Joseph Seigler (10-19-80) in Las Vegas, NV…Attended Chaparral (Las Vegas, NV) High School…Selected first-team All-State as wide receiver and linebacker and first-team All-Sunrise Conference as senior…Also played basketball…Selected All-Conference at forward as junior while leading team in scoring and rebounding…Has five brothers and three sisters…Single…Resides in Las Vegas, NV.

DID YOU KNOW...

An athletic player with great speed for his position, Richard came from inauspicious beginnings to succeed in football. As a youth, the doctor told his mother he would never be able to walk correctly. So in order to strengthen his legs, his mother put his left shoe on his right foot and right shoe on his left foot. The treatment worked as Richard was a two-time captain at Oregon State earning All-Pacific 10 honors in 2002 and 2003 and holds the school record with 49 consecutive starts.

DID YOU KNOW...

Derek has a knack for sniffing out the ball. For the eighth straight year, he has recorded over 100 tackles. His accomplishment is quite impressive as there are only two active players who currently have longer tackling streaks including Zach Thomas (Miami) and Derrick Brooks (Tampa Bay). Both have played one NFL season longer than Derek.

ISSAC SOPOAGA

DEFENSIVE TACKLE 90

Ht: 6-2, Wt: 321, Born: 9-4-81
College: Hawaii
1st Year (D-4 in '04)
Games/Starts: 2004-0/0; Career-0/0
Signed through 2007

CAREER: Anxiously awaiting to take part in action for first professional season after spending the 2004 season on Injured Reserve…Massive defender and big-play specialist with tremendous quickness for size…Unheralded defensive tackle quietly developed into one of college football's premier defensive players…Called "True Warrior" by former coaches…Excellent run-stuffer with tremendous upside in pass rushing…Possesses natural burst off snap…Uses explosion to power through blockers…Recognizes blocking schemes up front, using hands effectively to elude opponents…Has ability to plant and drive on the ball…Can be disruptive in pass rush and initial charge often takes the quarterback out of alignment.

ACQUIRED: Selected by 49ers in fourth round (no.104 overall) of 2004 Draft.

2004: Spent 2004 on Injured Reserve due to a back injury suffered in training camp.

COLLEGE: Mainstay on defensive line last two seasons at Hawaii…First-team All-Western Athletic Conference selection in 2003…Second-team All-WAC choice in 2002…Posted 128 tackles (70 solo) with four sacks (28 yards), 15 tackles for loss (56 yards), 11 quarterback pressures, two fumble recoveries, two forced fumbles and three passes defensed in 25 games with Warriors. Played two years (1999-00) at College of the Canyons (Santa Clarita, CA)…Two-time All-America selection for Cougars…Named National Defensive Player of theYear and first-team All-State as sophomore…Recorded national record 31 sacks in 2000…Team won Western State Conference Championship both years…Majored in general studies.

PERSONAL: Born Issac Sopoaga (9-4-81) in Pago Pago, American Samoa…Prepped at Samoana (Pago Pago, American Samoa) High School…Lettered twice in football and basketball and once in baseball…As senior, was named league's Defensive Player of the Year…Earned first-team All-League honors in junior and senior seasons…Member of league championship team as junior…Single…Resides in Pago Pago, American Samoa.

DID YOU KNOW...

When he's able to catch a breather in the offseason from his life as a professional football player, Issac makes a beeline to the South Pacific to spend time with family and friends back home in Pago Pago, American Samoa. The group of small, volcanic islands where he grew up falls about 2,600 miles south of Hawaii. His home turf extends just about 77 square miles in distance. En route, Issac also makes time to visit his collegiate stomping grounds at the University of Hawaii.

DID YOU KNOW...

Shawntae's career has been marked by success since he was a youngster playing football. And he hasn't accepted anything less from his own personal performance since the 49ers drafted him in the second round of the 2004 NFL Draft. Spencer was tops among rookie cornerbacks in the league last season with his 12 starts, 66 tackles and team-high 12 passes defensed. At the University of Pittsburgh, he left his imprint in Panthers' annals with 53 career passes defensed and at Woodland Hills (PA) High School, Shawntae led his team to their first-ever undefeated regular season and WPIAL Class AAAA title in 1999.

LINEBACKER U

Due to the injury to Julian Peterson, the linebacking trio of Jeff Ulbrich, Derek Smith and Jamie Winborn have increased their production as one of the top units in the NFL. The quartet combined for 472 tackles, 9.5 sacks, eight passes defensed, five forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries, three interceptions and one score in 2004. Ulbrich, Winborn and Smith all went over the 100-tackle mark. This was Winborn's first, Ulbrich's second and Smith's eight straight 100-tackle season. Smith and Ulbrich tied for the team-lead. Smith has led the team in tackles in each season of his eight-year career.

DID YOU KNOW...

Andrew will make an adjustment to his third position in as many seasons. A third-round pick out of the University of Miami, Williams began his career as a defensive end before injuring his leg in practice. Andrew was a mainstay in the 49ers offseason program, putting on 15 pounds of muscle to his already-chiseled frame to handle the pounding of playing a hybrid of outside linebacker and defensive end in the 3-4 defensive scheme. The change should allow him to reacquaint himself with the pocket, where he saw most action in Miami, tallying 38 quarterback pressures and eight sacks.

BUDDING RELATIONSHIP

The 2005 NFL schedule rotation slates the 49ers and their NFC West counterparts against the clubs of the AFC South. It marks the first time since the 2002 NFL re-alignment that San Francisco has been paired with the AFC South division, including an inaugural meeting with the NFL's newest addition, the Houston Texans. Although the 49ers have a playing history against Tennessee, it also marks the first meeting between the two teams in Nashville.

DID YOU KNOW...

Bryant and his wife, Kristin, have been following a class at the 49ers Academy since the group was in the sixth grade. The Young's encouraged these at-risk students to study with various incentives, including private tutors, pizza parties and classroom visits. The 50 members of the "Dream Team" graduated from the eighth grade and 49ers Academy in June, 2004. But the Young's will continue to support the group throughout high school. Upon high school graduation, if the students follow certain requirements, they will be provided with college tuition through the Young Dreams Foundation.

YOUNG'S NFL HONORS: Pro Bowl - 1996, 1999, 2001, 2002; All-Pro - 1996, 1998, 1999, 2001; NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year (UPI) - 1994; NFL Comeback Player of the Year - 1999

THE NUMBERS ADD UP

Over the past five NFL Drafts, not only has the league's number one selection been a quarterback, but each pick has garnered a jersey number that has continued to increase in perfect chronological order. The 49ers 2005 first overall choice, Utah quarterback Alex Smith, kept the streak alive with his No. 11 identity. The past five quarterbacks' jersey numbers have gone in sequential order starting with Atlanta's Michael Vick (7), Houston's David Carr (8), Cincinnati's Carson Palmer (9), New York Giants' Eli Manning (10) and the NFL's new kid on the block, Alex Smith (11).

7 Michael Vick (2001)
8 David Carr (2002)
9 Carson Palmer (2003)
10 Eli Manning (2004)
11 Alex Smith (2005)

COACHES

Pete Hoener	HAY-ner

Heading into his eighth NFL season, fullback Fred Beasley will provide veteran leadership on the 49ers offensive unit as he continues to serve as one of the league's best blocking fullbacks.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT MIKE NOLAN

"He has as solid and as comprehensive a feel for the entire game, and I'm talking on and off the field, as any coach that I have been around. The fact is that he literally grew up in the NFL, with his dad being a head coach and a long time coach in the NFL. He has an easy demeanor with the players, yet he still has the ability to command that authority and command that presence—to crack the whip when necessary but still do it in a way that the players know that he is approachable and that he can interact with them and has their best interests in mind."

– Brian Billick, Head Coach, Baltimore Ravens

"I think it's a terrific selection. Mike is a real football guy. He has a real sense of the game and the players. He's a high energy guy. He's demanding but has empathy with people. He gets people on his side through his confidence and his ability to connect with all kinds of the people. I think he'll bring a lot of energy to the team."

– Al Groh, Head Coach, University of Virginia

SELECT COMPANY

Alex Smith, the former Utah signal-caller, became the 49ers first overall selection since 1964, when wide receiver Dave Parks of Texas Tech was the top pick. Jim Drunkenmiller was the last quarterback the 49ers drafted in the first round prior to the acquisition of Alex Smith.

GAME 1
VS. ATLANTA FALCONS
SEPTEMBER 12, 2004 @ 3COM PARK
LOST 21-19 RECORD 0-1

Untimely penalties and turnovers were San Francisco's undoing in a 21-19 loss against the Atlanta Falcons.

TE Alge Crumpler gave the Falcons the early lead, taking a quick screen pass from QB Mike Vick and running around S Tony Parrish for a 15-yard touchdown to give Atlanta a 7-0 lead with four minutes remaining in the first quarter.

The Falcons struck again in the second quarter on the arm and legs of Vick. The mobile quarterback eluded the 49ers defense on a six-play, 49-yard drive that was capped by a two-yard touchdown run from RB Warrick Dunn.

Starting QB Tim Rattay left the game in the second quarter after injuring his shoulder. He completed 5 of 9 passes for 44 yards in his limited action.

QB Ken Dorsey replaced Rattay under center for San Francisco and immediately sparked the 49ers offense. Dorsey completed 4 of 5 passes for 56 yards as he directed a 10-play, 83-yard drive that was capped with a 23-yard K Todd Peterson field goal.

Dorsey opened the second half under center and again led the 49ers on a drive that led to a field goal, cutting the Falcons lead 14-6. But two series later, Dorsey was hurt while scrambling near the sideline and was replaced by Rattay.

Rattay had the 49ers moving offensively. A 13-yard pass to TE Eric Johnson, a RB Terry Jackson run and a 20-yard RB Kevan Barlow jaunt down the left sideline had the 49ers staring at first-and-goal from the three-yard line. After two incompletions, Rattay threw an errant pass that was picked off by CB Aaron Beasley who returned it 85 yards where only the effort of WR Curtis Conway and G Kyle Kosier were enough to bring him down. Two plays later, Dunn broke two tackles and raced into the end zone for the touchdown. The score and extra point put the Falcons up 21-6.

But Rattay bounced back from his miscue to lead the 49ers on two scoring drives. The first was an eight-play, 74-yard drive that was capped with an eight-yard touchdown pass to WR Cedrick Wilson. That score put the 49ers down by eight points with 6:14 remaining.

Rattay's second drive was done under pressure. With the clock winding down, he put the 49ers into game-tying position with an 11-play drive capped by a 16-yard touchdown pass to Johnson. The two-point conversion failed and Atlanta won the game by two.

Defensively, LB Julian Peterson set the tone with a stellar all-around performance with four tackles, two sacks for 25 yards, one pass defensed and two forced fumbles. LB Derek Smith led all tacklers with 11 tackles. LB Jeff Ulbrich recorded his second career interception and LB Jamie Winborn recorded his second career forced fumble on the game's first series.

SEPTEMBER 19, 2004 @ LOUISIANA SUPERDOME
LOST 30-27 RECORD 0-2

For the second consecutive week, the 49ers dropped a close contest with a 30-27 loss against the New Orleans Saints.

San Francisco took the field minus a handful of regulars and received solid efforts from several backups, including RB Jamal Robertson, who went from hero to goat in a matter of minutes.

With RB Kevan Barlow sidelined in the fourth quarter with a rib injury, Robertson filled in admirably. His one-yard plunge with 7:07 remaining gave the 49ers a 27-23 lead. The defense forced the Saints to punt and the 49ers had the ball at the 41-yard line with 3:41 remaining in the game. Robertson and QB Ken Dorsey then fumbled an exchange and the Saints recovered.

QB Aaron Brooks connected with WR Donte' Stallworth in the back of the end zone for a touchdown with 1:01 remaining in the game. The 49ers did have a brief glimmer of hope when it appeared a screen pass to RB Terry Jackson had the 49ers within striking distance at the two-yard line with 12 seconds left, but the play was called back on a pass interference penalty on WR Brandon Lloyd.

For most of the day Brooks had his way with the 49ers pass defense that was missing starting CB Mike Rumph. The Saints quarterback completed 25 of 34 passes for 279 yards and three touchdowns with a passer rating of 127.0.

There were stretches of dominance from the 49ers defensive unit, but the most effective weapon against Brooks was the San Francisco ground game that totaled 180 yards. Barlow paced the way with 114 yards and two touchdowns on 20 carries before leaving with a bruised rib. Jackson and Robertson combined for 66 yards.

The loss was clearly a disappointing one and it overshadowed a gritty effort from Dorsey in his first career start. The former Miami Hurricane completed 18 of 32 passes for 205 yards. He found veteran WR Curtis Conway eight times for 112 yards. It was Conway's 22nd career 100-yard game and first as a 49er.

VS. SEATTLE SEAHAWKS
SEPTEMBER 26, 2004 @ QWEST FIELD
LOST 34-0 RECORD 0-3

The 49ers lost their third consecutive game, while drawing a close to one of the longest running streaks in professional sports after a 34-0 loss to the Seattle Seahawks.

After 420 consecutive contests, the 49ers failed to score in a game. The last time this happened was October 9, 1977 during a 7-0 loss to the Atlanta Falcons in San Francisco.

Four turnovers from QB Ken Dorsey—two interceptions and two fumbles—and a general inability to get anything going offensively contributed to the loss. The 49ers defense didn't play as bad as the score would seem, but were left guarding a short field much of the day.

In just his second career start, Dorsey completed 19 of 32 passes for 153 yards. He was sacked three times and posted a quarterback rating of 45.4.

On the other side of the ball, QB Matt Hasselbeck made it look relatively easy. The Seahawks Pro Bowl quarterback completed 21 of 30 passes for 254 yards, two touchdowns and a rating of 117.9.

RB Shaun Alexander didn't post big numbers, in fact he averaged just 2.7 yards per carry while rushing for 52 yards, but he did score three touchdowns—two of them on the ground and one through the air.

San Francisco's ground game totaled a paltry 48 yards and was paced by RB Jamal Robertson's 24 yards. RB Kevan Barlow had 10 rushes for 22 yards.

Defensively, LB Derek Smith and LB Jeff Ulbrich tied for the team lead with 12 tackles, S Tony Parrish had eight tackles, one pass defensed and one forced fumble. LB Julian Peterson added eight tackles and a half sack.

VS. ST. LOUIS RAMS
OCTOBER 3, 2004 @ MONSTER PARK
LOST 24-14 RECORD 0-4

San Francisco dropped its fourth consecutive game to NFC West rival St. Louis 24-14 in the team's first game at the newly renamed Monster Park.

The game opened in a promising fashion for the 49ers. Utilizing a modified no-huddle offense, QB Tim Rattay completed 4 of 5 passes for 46 yards and had the 49ers in scoring position. But facing a 3rd and 6 from the Rams 22-yard line, Rattay was sacked for an eight-yard loss and the 49ers opted to punt.

P Andy Lee's effort went into the end zone and the Rams offense took over from there, driving 80 yards in 14 plays and capping the drive with a two-yard touchdown run from FB Joey Goodspeed.

On the 49ers next possession, Rattay was victimized by a blitzing LB Tommy Polley, who knocked the ball loose from the 49ers quarterback. The Rams recovered and one play later QB Marc Bulger had a six-yard touchdown pass for a 14-0 lead.

After a 49ers offensive possession that failed to produce points, the Rams launched yet another lengthy drive. Their third scoring drive of the first half was a 13-play, 79-yard effort that was capped by a 20-yard K Jeff Wilkins field goal to make the score 17-0 with 7:32 remaining in the first half.

Another double-digit drive by St. Louis, this one lasting 10 plays, was capped with a two-yard touchdown run by RB Steven Jackson to make the score 24-0.

But late in the third quarter the 49ers offense finally began clicking. Again in the no-huddle offense, Rattay steadily moved the offense down the field. And after seven quarters and 58 opponent points, the 49ers broke their longest scoring drought since 1974 when Rattay connected with WR Curtis Conway to cap a 15-play, 77-yard scoring drive.

Conway's touchdown, his first as a 49er, made the score 24-6 in favor of the Rams.

Rattay would add his second touchdown of the half late in the fourth when he hooked up with WR Rashaun Woods on an 18-yard score for the final points of the game.

Rattay finished the game 31 of 47 for a then CAREER-HIGH 299 yards and two touchdowns and a respectable quarterback rating of 88.9.

Defensively, LB Derek Smith and LB Julian Peterson led San Francisco with 10 tackles each. S Ronnie Heard added a season-high nine tackles.

GAME 5
VS. ARIZONA CARDINALS
WON 31-28 (OT) RECORD 1-4

QB Tim Rattay joined an elite group of quarterbacks who have led the 49ers to come from behind victories after directing the team to a 31-28 overtime victory against the visiting Arizona Cardinals at Monster Park. In a performance worthy of QB Joe Montana and QB Steve Young, Rattay coolly engineered two late fourth-quarter scoring drives that sent the game into overtime after trailing by 16 points with 8:19 remaining.

In overtime, a steely Rattay again led the team downfield and, buoyed by a roughing the passer penalty, putting the 49ers into scoring position where K Todd Peterson banged home the game-winning 32-yard field goal.

Rattay finished the game with a CAREER-HIGH 417 yards passing and a quarterback rating of 99.8. He was an impressive 14 of 20 for 115 yards and two touchdowns in the fourth quarter.

He also broke QB Joe Montana's team record by completing 38 passes. Montana held the previous mark of 37.

Rattay's favorite target of the day was TE Eric Johnson. The tight end added yet another CAREER-HIGH day with 13 receptions for 162 yards and one touchdown. It was questionable whether Johnson would even play following a rib injury he sustained against the Rams.

Johnson caught a six-yard touchdown from Rattay with 4:35 remaining in the game that pulled the 49ers within 10 points. Rattay ran in the two-point conversion and suddenly the 49ers were within eight points.

Now they needed a stop and the defense was up to the task. RB Troy Hambrick was stuffed for no gain on first down. QB Josh McCown threw incomplete on second down and on third down LB Brandon Moore came up with a huge stop, holding Hambrick a yard short and forcing the Cardinals to punt.

Taking over at the 49ers 28-yard line, Rattay calmly took control of the 49ers offense again. A nine-yard pass to WR Curtis Conway, a 15-yard scamper by Rattay (his first of the year) and a 14-yard pass to Conway had the 49ers within striking distance at the Cardinals 23-yard line.

From there Rattay launched a beautiful arcing pass in the corner of the end zone, placing it only where WR Brandon Lloyd could reel it in. It took a diving effort from Lloyd, but the acrobatic wide receiver pulled in the catch and the 49ers were within two points.

As pretty as his touchdown catch was, it was Lloyd's next reception that was truly a thing of beauty. Jostling with CB David Macklin, Lloyd slipped in front of the defender and caught Rattay's offering sending the game into overtime and the 49ers faithful into a frenzy.

In overtime the 49ers won the toss and never relinquished the ball. A roughing the passer penalty on Arizona's DT Darnell Dockett helped the 49ers cause and Rattay took advantage as he quickly moved the team into scoring position where K Todd Peterson knocked home the game winner.

Defensively, LB Jamie Winborn recorded his third career interception and LB Jeff Ulbrich added a team-high 14 tackles.

GAME 6
VS. NEW YORK JETS
OCTOBER 17, 2004 @ MEADOWLANDS
LOST 22-14 RECORD 1-5

RB Curtis Martin scored twice in the fourth quarter to rally the New York Jets to a 22-14 victory over the San Francisco 49ers.

The game opened in fine fashion for the 49ers who scored their first, first-quarter touchdown of the season. QB Tim Rattay was hot out of the gate and his 33-yard touchdown pass to WR Brandon Lloyd capped the scoring drive. The 49ers quarterback was 3 of 4 for 76 yards on the drive. He also rushed once for 11 yards to keep the chains moving.

San Francisco extended its first half lead to 14-0 after a seven-play, 88-yard scoring drive in the second quarter. RB Kevan Barlow capped the drive with a two-yard touchdown run, although the key plays on the drive belonged to WR Curtis Conway and WR Arnaz Battle. Conway converted a third-and-four with a five-yard reception and Battle hauled in a career-long 65-yard reception from Rattay.

The New York Jets put their first points on the board with a 43-yard field goal from K Doug Brien with 2:12 remaining in the first half. The field goal made the score 14-3 in favor of the 49ers as the teams headed into halftime.

Rattay completed a sizzling opening half by completing 11 of 16 passes for 193 yards, one touchdown and a rating of 130.5.

The second half opened with the 49ers holding the ball for six minutes, but coming up without a point. The Jets took advantage on their opening possession with a 91-yard scoring drive midway through the third quarter. RB LaMont Jordan capped the drive with a 17-yard touchdown run. The Jets tried a two-point conversion, but Jordan was stopped for no gain and the 49ers lead was five points at 14-9.

New York took its first lead of the game in the fourth quarter with another lengthy drive. Martin capped this one with a one-yard scoring plunge. The Jets again tried a two-point conversion, but were turned away by the 49ers defense.

On its next possession, San Francisco moved the ball downfield and appeared to be within scoring range with 2nd and 8 at the Jets 27-yard line. However, a fumble on a reverse cost the 49ers eight yards and San Francisco was unable to convert on third down and was forced to punt.

The 49ers defense held the New York offense, forcing the Jets to punt and give the ball back to the 49ers offense at the San Francisco 35-yard line with 1:44 remaining on the clock and three timeouts to work with. But on first down, Rattay was pressured by DE John Abraham and he abruptly threw the ball into the arms of linebacker LB Jonathan Vilma.

Taking over at the 20-yard line, the Jets would march into the end zone with Martin scoring the final touchdown on a nine-yard run.

Rattay finished 18 of 28 for 286 yards, one touchdown and one interception. Barlow led the 49ers ground game with 79 yards and Lloyd posted 93 receiving yards.

Regardless of his final statistics, the game ball went to LB Jeff Ulbrich. The 49ers linebacker spent Thursday night in the hospital with a high fever and flu-like symptoms. He played the entire game and finished with 14 tackles.

GAME 7
VS. CHICAGO BEARS
OCTOBER 31, 2004 @ SOLDIER FIELD
LOST 23-13 RECORD 1-6

The 49ers received a solid outing from their defensive unit, but were unable to generate any momentum on offense as they dropped a 23-13 decision to the Chicago Bears at Soldier Field.

Chicago jumped out to an early 7-0 lead after a 49-yard QB Craig Krenzel-to-WR Bernard Berrian touchdown pass at the 13:01 mark of the first quarter. But it was not long before the 49ers defense answered the Bears opening challenge. On Chicago's next offensive possession, S Dwaine Carpenter picked up a fumble and raced 80 yards for a touchdown and the extra point tied the game at 7-7 with 5:26 remaining in the first quarter. The return tied for the third longest in team history.

The game then took on a strange twist that benefited the Halloween night engagement, starting with a 48-yard K Todd Peterson field goal that barely cleared the crossbar, giving the 49ers a 10-7 lead.

Chicago responded with a 52-yard field goal from K Paul Edinger that caromed off the crossbar and through the uprights to tie the score. On the 49ers next possession, Peterson lined up for a 51-yard field goal attempt that, mimicking Edinger, hit the crossbar and bounced through for a successful field goal.

The first half would see one more Edinger field goal, a 45-yard effort that tied the score at 13-13 heading into halftime.

The third quarter was a scoreless affair with neither team generating any notable offense. The Bears took the lead for good on Edinger's third field goal with 14:03 remaining in the game. The 49ers offense, held to just 10 total first downs in the game, was put into come-from-behind mode at that point.

Driving and facing 2nd and 10 from the Bears 36-yard line, QB Ken Dorsey's pass for WR Brandon Lloyd was intercepted and returned 71 yards for a touchdown by rookie CB Nathan Vasher for the final score of the game.

The loss was particularly disappointing for a 49ers defense that turned in one of their better outings of the season. The unit had five sacks, two forced fumbles and one interception and was highlighted by the play of Chicago native DT Bryant Young.

GAME 8
VS. SEATTLE SEAHAWKS
NOVEMBER 7, 2004 @ MONSTER PARK
LOST 42-27 RECORD 1-7

QB Tim Rattay threw for 259 yards and two touchdown passes in his return to the lineup, but his effort was not enough to offset a three-touchdown performance from QB Matt Hasselbeck and a Seattle team that rolled up 453 yards of total offense in a 42-27 victory over the 49ers at Monster Park.

The loss overshadowed a respectable day from the 49ers offense that also saw RB Kevan Barlow rush for 61 yards and a touchdown. In fact, the 49ers held the lead in the game at three different points, the last time coming at the opening of the third quarter when Rattay rolled to his right and found WR Brandon Lloyd in the end zone for a 39-yard touchdown pass and a 24-21 lead.

That lead was short lived—three plays long to be exact—as the Seahawks turned to the arm of Hasselbeck and the legs of RB Shaun Alexander. Hasselbeck found WR Koren

Robinson on a 25-yard scoring pass to cap a three-play, 73-yard scoring drive that erased the 49ers lead for good with 3:44 remaining in the third quarter.

Hasselbeck would strike again early in the fourth quarter, connecting with WR Darrell Jackson on a 39-yard touchdown for a 35-24 lead. Jackson had five receptions for 114 yards and two touchdowns against a depleted 49ers secondary that was absent CB Ahmed Plummer for the second consecutive week.

Alexander finished the day with 160 yards and two touchdowns on the ground while the Seahawks posted 184 total rushing yards. San Francisco's defense also struggled on third down as the Seahawks converted 9 of 14 attempts, including a 3rd and 10 from their own six-yard line that saw Alexander rip off a 13-yard run.

VS. CAROLINA PANTHERS
NOVEMBER 14, 2004 @ MONSTER PARK
LOST 37-27 RECORD 1-8

The Carolina Panthers erupted for 34 second-half points against an undermanned 49ers defense as Panthers QB Jake Delhomme completed 11 of 20 passes for 234 yards and three scores in the second half as Carolina posted a 37-27 victory over the 49ers.

While Delhomme sizzled in the second half, 49ers quarterback QB Tim Rattay saw the opposite end of the spectrum. Rattay completed 15 of 19 passes for 139 yards in the first half, but completed just seven passes and was intercepted three times in the final two quarters. He finished the game completing 22 of 37 for 284 yards and one touchdown.

Rattay was intercepted four times and sacked four times. The sloppy second half overshadowed what was an impressive opening performance from San Francisco and Rattay. The 49ers outgained Carolina 205-83 in the opening half, punted just once and held onto the ball for 23 minutes.

San Francisco took it to the Panthers on the opening drive as they marched 71 yards in 11 plays and capped the drive with a one-yard touchdown run from RB Kevan Barlow. The key play on the drive was an 11-yard, extra-effort reception from RB Terry Jackson to convert on third down while Tim Rattay was 5 of 6 for 58 yards on the drive.

The 49ers kept the pressure on after LB Jamie Winborn's forced fumble was recovered by S Tony Parrish at the 49ers 46-yard line. The 49ers offense took over and marched 44 yards in eight plays and capped the drive with a 28-yard K Todd Peterson field goal to take a 10-0 lead over the Panthers.

Barlow would add his second score of the day as he capped a 13-play, 73-yard scoring drive that took 8:13 off the clock and gave the 49ers a 17-0 lead with 3:00 remaining before halftime. Carolina added a field goal to make it 17-3 before the half.

However, the second half belonged to Delhomme and WR Muhsin Muhammad. Taking advantage of a depleted 49er secondary that saw S Dwaine Carpenter and CB Joselio Hanson start at cornerback, Delhomme and Muhammad connected five times for 105 yards and three scores, including touchdown passes of 40, four and a 26-yard effort that put the final points on the board.

Carter, making his first start since undergoing back surgery, had the 49ers lone sack of the day. Muhammad finished the game with six receptions for 123 yards and the three scores for the Panthers. WR Cedrick Wilson led the 49ers receiving efforts with five receptions for 101 yards. It was his first career 100-yard game.

GAME 10
VS. TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS
NOVEMBER 21, 2004 @ RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM
LOST 35-3 RECORD 1-9

The 49ers struggles continued in Tampa Bay as the Buccaneers handed San Francisco a 35-3 loss at Raymond James Stadium.

The game was decided in the first half as the Buccaneers took a 21-0 lead into halftime behind two touchdown passes from QB Brian Griese and a RB Michael Pittman touchdown run. Griese connected on passes of nine and 42 yards to WR Joe Jurevicius as he completed 14 of 19 passes for 165 yards and a quarterback rating of 95.2.

Two of Griese's five incompletions were intercepted by S Tony Parrish, who recorded his first interceptions of the season and his third career multi-interception game.

Despite Parrish's interceptions the 49ers offense was unable to generate any momentum in the opening half. San Francisco totaled just 26 yards in the opening half and 14 of those came on a RB Maurice Hicks run to end the half.

QB Tim Rattay was just 3 of 11 for 12 yards and a rating of 39.6 in the opening half and the second half proved not much better (save for the final drive of the game when he had completions of 32 and 22 yards to WR Rashaun Woods and RB Terry Jackson) as he was under constant pressure from the Buccaneers defense.

The 49ers quarterback had two turnovers against the Buccaneers, including an interception that was returned 55 yards for a touchdown by CB Torrie Cox. Rattay finished the game 15 of 31 for 147 yards, one interception and a quarterback rating of 48.7 while being sacked five times.

Hicks led the 49ers ground game with 36 yards on seven carries. RB Kevan Barlow had 30 yards on 14 carries.

GAME 11
VS. MIAMI DOLPHINS
NOVEMBER 28, 2004 @ MONSTER PARK
LOST 24-17 RECORD 1-10

Turnovers proved costly for the 49ers as they fumbled five times in the fourth quarter Sunday afternoon. Miami turned three of those fumbles into 17 points and that was the difference as the visitors cruised to a 24-17 victory at Monster Park.

It was a trying day for QB Tim Rattay as the quarterback was under constant pressure from the Dolphins front four. Rattay was sacked eight times and knocked down another 14 times on his way to completing 23 of 38 passes for 181 yards.

The loss overshadowed what was a solid effort from the 49ers defense that put constant pressure on Miami QB A.J. Feeley. Officially, Feeley was sacked just once, but he was under constant pressure and was hit often. In fact, he was knocked out of the game with a dislocated ring finger in the first quarter after a big hit from LB Jamie Winborn, but he did return to throw touchdown passes to WR Chris Chambers and TE Randy McMichael.

San Francisco's defensive unit also accounted for the team's lone touchdown of the day after LB Derek Smith picked up a RB Travis Minor fumble and raced 46 yards for a touchdown to open the fourth quarter. The score put the 49ers up 10-7 and seemed to have momentum on the home team side.

However, RB Maurice Hicks fumbled at the 49ers 14-yard line two possessions later. The Dolphins capitalized on a 15-yard Feeley-to-McMichael touchdown pass to retake the lead.

A second 49ers turnover in a matter of minutes led to a second score for Miami. Taking advantage of Rattay's fumble, the Dolphins extended their lead to 17-10 after a 50-yard K Olindo Mare field goal.

After a roughing the kicker penalty on LB Brandon Moore, the Dolphins defense put the game out of reach with another fumble that was recovered for a touchdown in the end zone. The defensive score put Miami up 24-10 with 3:26 remaining.

San Francisco added a late touchdown after a nine-play, 69-yard drive that ended with a touchdown run from Hicks. Hicks finished the day with 13 carries for 46 yards as he saw the bulk of the action at running back.

GAME 12
VS. ST. LOUIS RAMS
DECEMBER 5, 2004 @ EDWARD JONES DOME
LOST 16-6 RECORD 1-11

The 49ers defense came to play for most of the game against the St. Louis Rams, knocking starting QB Marc Bulger out of the game in the first half and coming up with two turnovers. Unfortunately, the offense failed to take advantage of the opportunities created by the defense and the result was a 16-6 loss.

QB Tim Rattay completed 10 of 21 passes for 121 yards, one interception and a quarterback rating of 45.9. Rattay did have a 52-yard completion to WR Brandon Lloyd for the 49ers biggest play of the day. However, the offense was unable to generate any consistent momentum and finished the game with 151 total net yards.

St. Louis on the other hand posted 350 yards of total offense, including 216 yards passing by QB Chris Chandler and 119 yards rushing by RB Steven Jackson.

The game was much closer than the numbers would indicate and the 49ers had a chance to tie the game early in the fourth quarter after DE John Engelberger forced a Chandler fumble at the Rams 39-yard line at the end of the third quarter.

Rattay and Barlow steadily marched the offense into Rams territory and had them in the red zone at the 19-yard line. But facing third and five at the 19, Rattay looked for Lloyd on a slant route and the pass was intercepted by CB Jerametrius Butler at the eight-yard line. The Rams would then add a third K Jeff Wilkins field goal for the final points of the game with 6:44 remaining in the game.

After the game, Rattay, Lloyd and Dennis Erickson all agreed that there was a "miscommunication" on the play meaning Rattay read a slant route while Lloyd read a post route.

DT Bryant Young had four tackles, including two tackles for a loss, a sack and one pass defensed. S Tony Parrish added an interception and Engelberger added two sacks on the day.

GAME 13
VS. ARIZONA CARDINALS
DECEMBER 12, 2004 @ SUN DEVIL STADIUM
WON 31-28 (OT) RECORD 2-11

San Francisco RB Maurice Hicks earned the game ball after an inspiring performance that saw the first-year player gain 139 yards on 34 attempts as he and QB Ken Dorsey carried the 49ers to their second victory of the season, a 31-28 overtime victory in Arizona.

San Francisco did have to work for the win, despite taking a 28-3 lead in the third quarter. The Cardinals staged a furious rally and almost returned the comeback favor the 49ers had on them earlier in the season at Monster Park. But some key plays from the defense and the legs of Hicks proved the difference of the day.

Hicks, making his first career NFL start, had four carries for 42 yards in overtime, including a huge 17-yard gain that set-up the game-winning field goal from K Todd Peterson. Facing 2nd and 3 from the Cardinals 30-yard line, Hicks took the handoff from Dorsey and cut off the tackle to his right and raced downfield before being knocked out of bounds by S Quentin Harris at the 13-yard line.

Dorsey finished the game completing 18 of 34 passes for 191 yards and three scores for a passer rating of 99.0. Starting for the injured QB Tim Rattay, Dorsey connected twice with WR Cedrick Wilson for scores and threw his first career touchdown to WR Brandon Lloyd for the first score of the day.

Wilson led the receiving efforts with five receptions for 83 yards and two scores, but his biggest reception came on the 49ers game-winning drive. Facing 3rd and 17 from the 44-yard line, Dorsey drilled a pass to Wilson, who caught the ball in traffic for a 19-yard gain to keep the drive alive.

Dorsey was sacked just once in his 34 passing attempts behind an offensive line that played its best game of the year.

GAME 14
VS. WASHINGTON REDSKINS
DECEMBER 18, 2004 @ MONSTER PARK
LOST 26-16 RECORD 2-12

The 49ers hopes of their first winning streak of the season were dashed in the first half after Redskins LB Antonio Pierce returned an interception 78 yards for a touchdown. Pierce's score gave the Redskins a 14-point cushion that would be too much for the 49ers inconsistent offense to overcome as Washington rolled to a 26-16 victory at Monster Park.

QB Ken Dorsey had a day he wanted to forget as the quarterback struggled against the NFL's second-ranked defense. The 49ers offensive line held up well and gave Dorsey time to throw, but the young signal caller was intercepted four times on the day while completing just 20 of 38 passes for 206 yards.

The day started with promise for Dorsey and the San Francisco offense. On the teams opening possession, Dorsey coolly led them downfield and capped a nine-play, 71-yard scoring drive with a beautiful 17-yard strike to WR Brandon Lloyd in the end zone. Dorsey was an impressive 4 of 5 for 61 yards on the initial drive.

But that was it for the 49ers offense in the opening half. After gaining 71 yards on the opening series, the team gained just 53 on their remaining six possessions of the half. Dorsey was intercepted three times, including the Pierce touchdown, and Washington converted those into 13 of their 26 total points.

San Francisco finished the day with 254 yards of total offense. RB Maurice Hicks led the ground game with 11 carries for 37 yards. RB Kevan Barlow had six carries for 18 yards, including a long of 12.

RB Clinton Portis paced the Washington running game with 110 yards on 35 carries. QB Patrick Ramsey completed 18 of 27 passes for 214 yards and one touchdown.

San Francisco's special teams unit had another solid day, receiving a blocked punt from S Keith Lewis that was knocked out of the end zone for a safety.

GAME 15
VS. BUFFALO BILLS
DECEMBER 26, 2004 @ MONSTER PARK
LOST 41-7 RECORD 2-13

QB Cody Pickett made his NFL debut against the Buffalo Bills, replacing an injured Ken Dorsey. His final statistics reflected the sort of day it was for the 49ers as they were defeated by the Bills 41-7 in the final home appearance of the 2004 season.

In just over one quarter of action, Pickett completed 4 of 10 passes for 55 yards and zero touchdowns. He was intercepted twice and fumbled once. Yet, his effort and ability were not without bright spots.

Pickett flashed arm strength, mobility and moxie that the 49ers expected from the former Washington Husky. He led the 49ers on their only scoring drive of the day, a 14-play, 73-yard effort that was capped by a one-yard touchdown run from RB Kevan Barlow. Pickett completed three-of-five passes on the drive, including a 17-yard strike to WR Rashaun Woods and an 18-yard bullet to WR Cedrick Wilson on 4th and 17.

Dorsey completed just 5 of 10 passes for 54 yards and one interception before leaving the game with an injury to the middle finger of his right hand.

Buffalo's quarterbacks fared significantly better than San Francisco's. In fact, all of the quarterbacks on the Bills roster played in the game. QB Drew Bledsoe was pulled early in the third quarter after his 21-completion, one-touchdown effort. He was followed by QB Shane Matthews and rookie QB J.P Losman.

GAME 16
VS. NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS
JANUARY 2, 2005 @ GILLETTE STADIUM
LOST 21-7 RECORD 2-14

San Francisco's 2004 season came to a close on a cold, blustery New England Sunday afternoon. The 49ers defense put forth a resilient effort and RB Kevan Barlow rushed for his second 100-yard game of the season, but in the end, it was not enough as the Patriots posted an 21-7 victory.

The loss dropped the 49ers to 2-14 on the season. New England closed the regular season at 14-2.

The game started promisingly for the 49ers as they jumped to an early 7-0 lead. S Dwaine Carpenter intercepted a QB Tom Brady pass and returned it to the Patriots 22-yard line. Five plays later, QB Ken Dorsey connected on a four-yard scoring pass to TE Steve Bush. It was Bush's first touchdown of the year and just the third of his career.

New England tied the score on a Brady-to-LB Mike Vrabel touchdown pass at the 5:57 mark of the second quarter. Vrabel, a Patriots linebacker who regularly appears in goal line situations, beat S Ronnie Heard on the play.

The score remained tied heading into halftime, thanks to the efforts of the 49ers defense and DE John Engelberger in particular. The defense created three turnovers in the opening half and Engelberger accounted for two of them as the defensive end forced two fumbles and recovered one of them. He also had the lone Brady sack.

The second half again saw a solid effort from the defense, but their efforts were undone by a struggling 49ers offense. Barlow did his part, rushing for 71 of his 103 yards after the break, but RB Maurice Hicks struggled in limited action. Hicks fumbled twice in key situations, one of them leading to a Patriots score. He also yielded a key sack to LB Willie McGinest that stalled a drive.

Dorsey finished the game completing 18 of 29 passes for 189 yards, one touchdown and a passer rating of 92.5. WR Rashaun Woods caught three passes for 76 yards, including a 59-yard effort near the end of the fourth quarter.

BOMBS AWAY

Second-year punter Andy Lee was a boon to San Francisco's punting game in 2004. The South Carolina native and University of Pittsburgh product punted 96 times for a 41.6-yard average. The last time the 49ers had a punter average over 40 yards per punt was 1998, when Reggie Roby averaged 41.9 yards. He led all rookies in the NFC in gross average and boomed an 81-yard punt against Tampa Bay (11-21-04). The 81-yard punt was the fourth-longest punt in team history and is the longest punt of 2004. Lee was the first San Francisco rookie punter since 1957 to lead the league in the longest punt of the year. Rookie Larry Barnes had an 86-yard punt in 1957.

WELCOME BACK

Eric Johnson has been a welcome addition to San Francisco's lineup after missing 2003 with a broken collarbone. He led the team with 82 receptions for 825 yards and two touchdowns in 2004. The last tight end to lead the 49ers in receiving was Ted Kwalick, who caught 47 balls for 729 yards and five touchdowns in 1973. Johnson's 2004 receiving numbers were also the most ever for a 49ers tight end.

HAPPY RETURNS

Arnaz Battle returned a punt 71 yards for a touchdown in a 31-28 victory against the Arizona Cardinals (10-10-04). It was Battle's first career touchdown. Although a wide receiver, Battle is a tough physical player who excels at making tackles. Battle was fourth on the squad with 16 special teams tackles. He was also an explosive threat out of the backfield as evident by his 65-yard reception against the New York Jets (10-17-04). The connection was the longest reception by a San Francisco player in 2004.

BOBB MCKITTRICK AWARD

This award is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best exemplifies the dedication, excellence and committment of offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick, a five-time Super Bowl Champion.

In 1999, the San Francisco 49ers, under the direction of Bill Walsh, established the Bobb McKittrick Award. The award is meant to honor those offensive linemen who have best represented the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by the late coach McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers.

"Bobb gave distinguished service to the organization since our renaissance in 1979. He was a vital factor in five Super Bowl Championships, the evolution of a dynasty and in the production of some of the finest offensive linemen in football. Offensive linemen don't receive the recognition they so richly deserve. This gives us a venue to honor their sacrifices and achievements," Walsh said.

A bronze plaque of McKittrick hangs in the 49ers locker room surrounded by the photographs of the McKittrick Award winners.

BLOCK PARTY

Safety Keith Lewis had a flair for making game-changing plays in college. The University of Oregon product blocked a school-record seven kicks in college. The sixth-round selection picked up where he left off when he blocked a punt against Washington (12-18-04). He also forced a fumble against Tampa (11-21-04) and had a fumble recovery at Arizona (12-12-04). He is the first player in 49er history to block a punt, force a fumble and recover a fumble in the same season. Lewis was able to accomplish this trifecta on only special teams plays.

2004 AWARD WINNING 49ERS

NFC PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

TIM RATTAY—Offensive Player of the Week (Week Five) Rattay led the 49ers to a come-from-behind 31-28 overtime win against the Arizona Cardinals, helping San Francisco overcome a 16-point fourth-quarter deficit en route to its first win of the season. Rattay completed 38-of-57 passes for a CAREER-HIGH 417 yards with two touchdowns. The 38 completions was a TEAM-RECORD and the 57 attempts were a CAREER-HIGH and tied for the second most in team history. Trailing 28-12 with 8:19 remaining, Rattay led the 49ers to a pair of touchdown drives, capping each with a two-point conversion to force overtime.

GARRY NIVER AWARD

JEFF ULBRICH—Given annually to the 49ers player who is most professional with the media.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

JAMIE WINBORN—Winborn was named the 49ers recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award. The NFL award honors one player from each team who displays courage in overcoming injury or hardship. Winborn overcame a serious neck injury that cut his 2003 season short. After offseason surgery to repair the injury, Winborn stepped up considerably this season after the loss of LB Julian Peterson. He finished second on the team with a CAREER-HIGH 4.5 sacks. Even though he missed the final two games, he still finished third on the team 104 tackles (64 solo), three forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and one interception.

LEN ESHMONT AWARD

BRYANT YOUNG—Young was named the recipient of the 48th annual Len Eshmont Award. The team's most prestigious honor, the award is given annually to the 49ers player who best exemplifies inspiration and courage. The award was established in 1957 in memory of Len Eshmont, an original member of the 49ers 1946 team, who died in 1957. Young became the first five-time winner of the award. He won it in 1996, 1998, 1999, 2000 and 2004.

BILL WALSH AWARD

BRYANT YOUNG—Young was named the recipient of the first ever Bill Walsh Award. Established this season in honor of long-time Hall of Fame head coach Bill Walsh, the award is voted on by the coaching staff and awarded to the team MVP, honoring his outstanding individual performance. Young had one of his best seasons to date, leading all defensive linemen with 79 tackles (43 solo), which is the second highest tackle total in his 11-year career. He also recorded two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and three sacks.

BOBB MCKITTRICK AWARD

KYLE KOSIER—Kosier was named the recipient of the 2004 Bobb McKittrick Award. The award was established by the 49ers in 1999 in honor of longtime offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick. The award is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best represents the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers. Kosier started every game in 2004 and proved his versatility by starting nine games at left tackle and seven at right guard. He helped the 49ers offense total 4,585 total yards this season.

MATT HAZELTINE AWARD

JEFF ULBRICH—Ulbrich was named the recipient of the 2004 Matt Hazeltine Award. The Hazeltine Iron Man Award is named after linebacker/center Matt Hazeltine, a 13-year performer who played more seasons at linebacker than any other 49ers player. Known for his durability and dedication, Hazeltine passed away in 1987 from ALS and Bill Walsh established the award in his honor that year. The award is given annually to the most courageous and inspirational defensive player. Ulbrich recorded his second consecutive 100-tackle season and tied for the team lead with a CAREER-HIGH 167 tackles (90 solo). He also recorded one sack, one forced fumble, one interception and three passes defensed.

NO SMALL FORCE

Jamie Winborn stepped up considerably with the loss of linebacker Julian Peterson to a season-ending Achilles injury in 2004. Although he stands at 5-11, 242 pounds, he finished second on the team with a career-high 4.5 sacks, which was tied for third among NFC linebackers. He notched his first career multi-sack game with 1.5 sacks against Chicago (10-31-04). He added another sack and 10 tackles against Seattle (11-7-04).

RUN AT HISTORY

Running back Maurice Hicks had a historic first start during his rookie season in 2004. In his first start against Arizona (12-12-04), he rambled 34 times for 139 yards and caught five receptions for 29 yards. He rushed for one score and tied a 49ers single game mark for most touches in a single game with 39. Hicks became just the third 49er and first free agent to rush for over 100 yards in his first career start.

49ERS PLAYOFF HISTORY

NFL Divisional Playoff
December 22 at Kezar Stadium (San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco made its first playoff appearance as an NFL team a memorable one, but came up a bit short against the Detroit Lions at venerable Kezar Stadium.

QB Y.A. Tittle completed 18-of-31 passes for 248 yards and three touchdowns for the 49ers. Tittle connected with HB R.C. Owens on a 34-yard scoring toss to record the first ever postseason touchdown for San Francisco. He also had touchdown connections with RB Hugh McElhenny and WR Billy Wilson. McElhenny caught six passes for a game-high 96 yards and rushed for 82 yards on 14 carries.

'70 49ers 17, Minnesota 14
December 27 at Metropolitan Stadium (Bloomington, MN)

QB John Brodie scored on a one-yard run with just under two minutes remaining to provide the difference as the 49ers claimed a 17-14 decision over Minnesota at a frigid Metropolitan Stadium.

San Francisco was trailing 7-0 in the first quarter when Brodie connected with WR Dick Witcher on a 24-yard scoring toss. Brodie completed 16-of-32 passes for 201 yards and one touchdown.

'70 Dallas Cowboys 17, 49ers 10
NFC Championship
January 3 at Kezar Stadium (San Francisco, CA)

QB John Brodie passed for 262 yards and one touchdown, but it wasn't enough as the Cowboys advanced to Super Bowl V with a 17-10 win over the 49ers at Kezar Stadium.

RB Duane Thomas rushed for 143 yards and scored on a 13-yard run in the third quarter to put Dallas ahead 10-3. Later in the quarter QB Craig Morton connected with RB Walt Garrison on a five-yard toss to put the Cowboys up 17-3.

San Francisco would add to its final score on its next possession with a 26-yard Brodie-to-WR Dick Witcher touchdown, capping an eight-play, 73-yard drive.

December 26 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB John Brodie completed 10-of-19 passes for 176 yards and two touchdowns as San Francisco advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a 24-20 win over Washington at a wet and windy Candlestick Park.

Brodie hit WR Gene Washington on a 78-yard play for his first touchdown of the game that helped tie the score at 10-10. On the next 49ers possession Brodie connected with WR Bob Windsor on a two-yard toss into the corner of the end zone that led to a 17-10 lead.

The 49ers would insure the victory when DT Bob Hoskins pounced on an errant snap from center and recovered it for a touchdown with just under three minutes remaining in the game. LB Frank Nunley led the defensive effort with 11 tackles and a blocked field goal.

January 2 at Texas Stadium (Irving, TX)

San Francisco and Dallas combined for just 483 yards of total offense in a low-scoring affair at Texas Stadium. The Cowboys received rushing touchdowns from RB Calvin Hill and RB Duane Thomas as they posted a 14-3 win and earned a bid to Super Bowl VI.

San Francisco was paced offensively by RB Vic Washington with 86 yards of total offense. QB John Brodie completed 14-of-30 passes for 184 yards, but was intercepted three times.

DE Cedrick Hardman had a big game with 12 tackles, including two sacks. DE Tommy Hart and LB Frank Nunley had 11 tackles each.

December 23 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Roger Staubach came off the bench to rally the Dallas Cowboys with two touchdown passes in the closing minutes of regulation to post a 30-28 come-from-behind win over the 49ers.

Staubach connected with WR Billy Parks on a 20-yard touchdown with 1:30 remaining in the game. On the ensuing onside kick the Cowboys recovered and three plays later Staubach connected with WR Ron Sellers for the game winner.

The outcome overshadowed several sparkling individual efforts for the 49ers. RB Vic Washington set a club record with his 97-yard touchdown return on the opening kickoff. RB Larry Schreiber also established a then club record by scoring three rushing touchdowns.

LB Ed Beard led the Niners defense with 10 tackles while DE Cedrick Hardman added three sacks.

'81 49ers 38, New York Giants 24
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 3 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco returned to the playoffs for the first time since 1972 and posted its first postseason win since 1971 with a 38-24 triumph over the visiting New York Giants.

Aiding the 49ers cause was CB Ronnie Lott, who intercepted two passes, including one he returned 20 yards for a touchdown, and recorded five tackles.

Offensively, the Niners were paced by QB Joe Montana, who completed 20-of-31 passes for 304 yards and two touchdowns. Montana hit TE Charle Young on an eight-yard toss in the first quarter and connected with WR Freddie Solomon on a 58-yard strike in the second. Solomon finished the day with six receptions for 107 yards. He was joined by WR Dwight Clark who had five receptions for 104 yards.

'81 49ers 28, Dallas Cowboys 27
January 10 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

In the most memorable playoff game to date, the 49ers and Cowboys staged an epic battle. In what was a fitting end for some and a heartbreaking one for others, it was the 49ers who came out on top 28-27.

QB Joe Montana capped a brilliant day with a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Dwight Clark late in the fourth quarter to overcome a six-point deficit. "The Catch," as it would come to be known, capped a 13-play, 89-yard drive that took over four minutes off the clock.

Montana finished the day with 286 yards on 22-of-35 passing and three touchdowns. Clark had one of his finest days, posting eight receptions for 120 yards and two touchdowns.

CB Carlton Williamson led the defensive charge with 12 tackles. LB Jack Reynolds added nine stops and DT Archie Reese added six.

'81 49ers 26, Cincinnati Bengals 21
Super Bowl XVI
January 24 at Silverdome (Pontiac, MI)

QB Joe Montana accounted for two first half touchdowns and K Ray Wersching added two field goals as San Francisco built a 20-0 lead at the half and held on for a 26-21 victory over the Bengals for its first Super Bowl Championship.

Montana scored on a one-yard run in the first quarter and in the second he led the team on a 12-play, 92-yard drive that resulted in an 11-yard scoring toss to FB Earl Cooper. For the game, Montana completed 14-of-22 passes for 157 yards.

Wersching also had an impressive outing. The veteran kicker connected on all four field goal attempts in the game, hitting from 22, 26, 40 and 23 yards.

The 49ers defense kept the potent Bengals attack in check for much of the game. Cincinnati QB Ken Anderson warmed up in the second half with three touchdowns, two of them on pass plays to TE Dan Ross, but two fourth quarter field goals by Wersching put the game out of reach.

LB Jack Reynolds keyed the 49ers defense with seven tackles and one sack. LB Bob Leopold also recorded seven tackles and NT Archie Reese added six stops.

NFC Divisional Playoff
December 31 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

WR Freddie Solomon caught a 14-yard touchdown pass from QB Joe Montana with two minutes remaining to give San Francisco a 24-23 win over the visiting Detroit Lions and earn a berth in the NFC Championship Game.

San Francisco's defense kept the team alive on several occasions, intercepting Detroit QB Gary Danielson five times. LB Riki Ellison had two interceptions while LB Keena Turner, S Dwight Hicks and CB Ronnie Lott had one apiece.

RB Wendell Tyler and RB Roger Craig each scored a touchdown for San Francisco. Tyler rushed for 74 yards on 17 carries and also caught two passes for 15 yards. Craig led the Niners in receiving with seven receptions for 61 yards.

'83 Washington Redskins 24, 49ers 21
January 8 at RFK Stadium (Washington, DC)

Mark Moseley connected on a 25-yard field goal with 40 seconds remaining to hand San Francisco a heartbreaking 24-21 defeat in the NFC Championship Game at RFK Stadium.

The defeat was especially hard to swallow after the 49ers fought back from a 21-0 deficit with 21 fourth-quarter points. QB Joe Montana hit WR Mike Wilson on a five-yard scoring strike 30 seconds into the fourth, snapping the shutout. On the next 49ers possession, Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 76-yard bomb to pull within seven at 21-14.

The Redskins went three-and-out on their next possession, which led to another Montana-to-Wilson touchdown and a tie ballgame. Unfortunately for the 49ers, the Redskins would launch a six-minute drive that led to the Moseley field goal and the end of the season.

Montana finished the game with his typically excellent numbers: 27-of-48 for 347 yards and three touchdowns. Solomon caught eight passes for 106 yards and one touchdown.

DT Pete Kugler led the defensive charge with 10 tackles. He was joined by S Carlton Williamson with eight tackles and LBs Riki Ellison and Keena Turner had six stops each.

'84 49ers 21, New York Giants 10
NFC Divisional Playoff
December 29 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana rushed for 63 yards, passed for 309 yards and the 49ers earned a date in the NFC Championship Game with a 21-10 win over the New York Giants.

San Francisco drew first blood when Montana hooked up with his favorite target, WR Dwight Clark, on a 21-yard scoring toss just three minutes into the first quarter. Clark would finish the day with 112 yards on nine receptions.

On the Giants next possession, it was S Ronnie Lott who intercepted a QB Phil Simms pass and returned it 38 yards to the New York 12-yard line. Two plays later, Montana hit TE Russ Francis on a nine-yard strike to extend the lead to 14-0.

New York would pull within three following LB Harry Carson's interception and touchdown return off a tipped Montana pass seven minutes into the second quarter. Three minutes later, the 49ers answered when Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 29-yard scoring completion to put San Francisco up 21-10.

DE Fred Dean recorded seven tackles and two sacks for the inspired 49ers defense. LB Jack Reynolds added five tackles.

January 6 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco advanced to Super Bowl XIX with a 23-0 win over the visiting Chicago Bears. The story of the day was the 49ers defense that recorded nine sacks and held the Bears to 186 yards of total offense.

Leading the charge for the defense were DE Gary Johnson and DT Michael Carter. Neither Johnson nor Carter were starters in the game, yet they led the squad with two sacks and six tackles each. LB Riki Ellison recorded a team-high eight tackles.

Offensively, San Francisco was led by QB Joe Montana and RB Wendell Tyler. Montana threw for 233 yards and one touchdown, a 10-yard toss to WR Freddie Solomon in the fourth quarter. Tyler had 68 yards on 10 carries and scored on a nine-yard jaunt early in the third quarter.

'84 49ers 38, Miami Dolphins 16
Super Bowl XIX
January 20 at Stanford Stadium (Palo Alto, CA)

QB Joe Montana passed for 331 yards and accounted for four touchdowns to lead San Francisco to a 38-16 win over the Miami Dolphins. For his efforts, Montana was named Super Bowl MVP for the second time in his career. The game was played at nearby Stanford Stadium in Palo Alto in front of 84,059 fans.

Montana's first touchdown of the day came on a 33-yard strike to RB Carl Monroe late in the first quarter. He followed that with an eight-yard scoring toss to RB Roger Craig in the second quarter. On the next 49ers possession, Montana added his third score of the day, this time taking it in himself on a six-yard run.

His fourth and final score came on a 16-yard pass to Craig midway through the third quarter. Craig also had an impressive day totaling 135 yards of total offense and added two scores.

San Francisco rolled up an impressive 537 yards of total offense in the game, including 211 rushing yards.

S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright each intercepted a QB Dan Marino pass. LB Keena Turner led the team with six tackles.

'87 Minnesota Vikings 36, 49ers 24
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 9 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

Minnesota WR Anthony Carter and K Chuck Nelson each established NFL postseason records as the Vikings posted a 36-24 win over hometown San Francisco at Candlestick Park.

Carter caught 10 passes from QB Wade Wilson for an NFL postseason record 227 yards. Carter broke the old record of 198 yards that was set by E Tom Fears of the Los Angeles Rams in 1950 against the Chicago Bears.

Nelson set his record by kicking five field goals, breaking the old mark of four that was done eight times.

San Francisco was led offensively by QB Steve Young, who spelled QB Joe Montana early in the second half. Young completed 12-of-17 passes for 158 yards and one touchdown. He also ran for a team-high 72 yards on six carries and had a five-yard touchdown run.

S Jeff Fuller established a new 49ers postseason record when he returned an interception 48 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter. LB Mike Walter posted nine tackles and S Ronnie Lott added eight.

'88 49ers 34, Minnesota Vikings 9
January 1 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice entered the NFL record books as the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a convincing 34-9 win over the visiting Minnesota Vikings at Candlestick.

Rice set a record, that he shares with five other players, with three touchdown receptions. He scored on receptions of two, four and 11 yards, all thrown by QB Joe Montana. Rice closed the day with five receptions for 61 yards.

Craig entered the record book courtesy of his 80-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. The run was the longest touchdown run and the longest run from scrimmage in team postseason history. Craig broke the old record established by RB Marcus Allen with his 74-yard touchdown run against the Washington Redskins in 1983. Craig finished the day with 135 yards on 21 carries and two touchdowns.

The 49ers defense also posted a strong day, recording six sacks, two interceptions and one fumble recovery. S Ronnie Lott had a big day with four tackles, two interceptions and three passes defensed. DE Larry Roberts recorded two and a half sacks.

January 8 at Soldier Field (Chicago, IL)

Game time temperatures were in the teens and the wind chill was 26 below zero, but the San Francisco 49ers were hot, as they rolled to a 28-3 win over the Chicago Bears at Soldier Field.

QB Joe Montana hit WR Jerry Rice on a 61-yard scoring toss in the first quarter and a 27-yard scoring toss in the second as the 49ers took a 14-3 lead into the half. In the third quarter, it was again the mastery of Montana, who connected with TE John Frank on a five-yard touchdown pass to extend the lead to 21-3.

FB Tom Rathman capped a solid day with a four-yard burst into the end zone with 8:07 remaining in the fourth quarter. Rathman finished with 36 yards rushing and caught five passes for 51 yards.

The San Francisco defensive charge was led by LB Mike Walter, who posted a game-high 11 tackles and forced a fumble. S Jeff Fuller recorded nine tackles and intercepted a pass.

Offensively, Rice finished with 11 receptions for 133 yards and two touchdowns while Montana completed 17-of-27 passes for 288 yards.

Super Bowl XXIII
January 22 at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

In what proved to be the most exciting Super Bowl game of the decade, it was the play of a collected veteran that delivered San Francisco its third NFL Championship. QB Joe Montana connected on 23-of-36 passes for 357 yards, but no completion would be more important than his last.

The game opened at a stand still with neither team having any ability to move the ball offensively. San Francisco opened the scoring on a 41-yard field goal by K Mike Cofer late in the first quarter. The Bengals responded with K Jim Breech's 34-yard field goal and the teams headed to the half locked in a 3-3 tie.

The third quarter began with the teams trading field goals before the Bengals broke the touchdown draught. Following a 49ers field goal, Cincinnati KR Stanford Jennings took the Cofer kickoff and returned it 93 yards for a touchdown.

It didn't take long for San Francisco to respond. Montana hit WR Jerry Rice for a 31-yard completion and followed that with a swing pass that RB Roger Craig turned into a 40-yard gain. Two plays and 16 seconds later, Montana found Rice in the corner of the end zone for a 10-yard touchdown.

An 11-play, 46-yard drive by the Bengals resulted in a 46-yard field goal by Breech, giving Cincinnati a 16-13 lead and leaving the 49ers just 3:20 on the clock. San Francisco received the kickoff and returned it to the 20, but a penalty moved the ball back to the eight-yard line. What happened next is legendary.

Montana connected on five consecutive passes to move the ball to the Bengals 35. A holding penalty moved the ball back 10 yards, but Montana responded with a 27-yard completion to Rice and another first down. A quick hit to Craig followed by a timeout left the Niners with second and two from the Bengals 10-yard line. Following the timeout, Montana hit WR John Taylor in the middle of the end zone for a touchdown and San Francisco had its third Super Bowl title of the decade.

January 6 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana threw four touchdown passes and RB Roger Craig rushed for 118 yards as the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a convincing 41-13 win over the visiting Minnesota Vikings at Candlestick Park.

The Vikings opened the scoring on a K Rich Karlis field goal nine minutes into the first quarter, but from that point on it was all San Francisco. The 49ers erupted for 28 consecutive points before halftime to put the game away early.

Just 20 seconds after the Vikings initial score, Montana connected with WR Jerry Rice for the first of his four touchdown passes of the afternoon. The play started simply enough before, in true Rice fashion, he turned a seven-yard gain into a 72-yard touchdown. Following an interception by S Chet Brooks, Montana hit TE Brent Jones for an eight-yard touchdown pass and the rout was on.

Montana would add touchdown passes to WR John Taylor and another to Rice before handing the game over to reserve QB Steve Young. On the day, Montana completed 17-of-24 passes for 241 yards.

The 49ers defense would also contribute a score, courtesy of S Ronnie Lott, who intercepted a QB Tommy Kramer pass and returned it 58 yards for a touchdown.

NFC Championship
January 14 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

The 49ers defense intercepted QB Jim Everett three times and held the Los Angeles Rams to 156 yards of total offense as San Francisco earned its fourth trip to the Super Bowl of the decade with a 30-3 win at Candlestick Park in the NFC Championship Game.

San Francisco QB Joe Montana was superb in his direction of the 49ers offense, completing 26-of-30 passes for 262 yards and two touchdowns. His first touchdown pass of the game came with 11:27 remaining in the second quarter when he hit TE Brent Jones on a 20-yard strike to give the 49ers a 7-3 lead.

CB Tim McKyer intercepted an Everett pass giving the 49ers possession at the Los Angeles 27-yard line. A five-play drive culminated in a one-yard touchdown run by RB Roger Craig.

It wouldn't take long for San Francisco to strike again. Gaining possession with 3:10 remaining in the second, Montana calmly directed a 14-play, 97-yard drive that ended with an 18-yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor.

K Mike Cofer accounted for the final nine points on three field goals in the second half.

Offensively, Montana was joined by Craig, who rushed for 94 yards on 24 carries. WR Jerry Rice caught six passes for 55 yards and FB Tom Rathman added 63 yards rushing and 48 yards receiving.

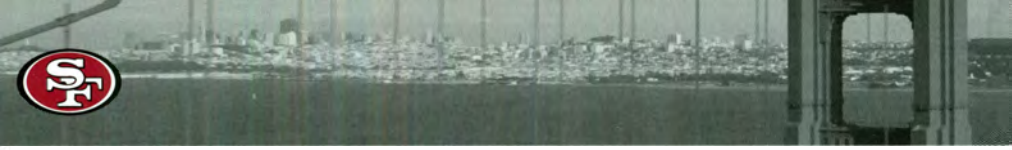
'89 49ers 55, Denver Broncos 10
Super Bowl XXIV
January 28 at Louisiana Superdome (New Orleans, LA)

WR Jerry Rice scored three touchdowns, FB Tom Rathman scored twice and QB Joe Montana earned his third Super Bowl MVP award as the San Francisco 49ers cruised to their fourth NFL Championship of the decade with a resounding 55-10 win over the Denver Broncos. The game was played before a crowd of 72,919 at the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans, LA.

Rice scored on touchdown catches of 20, 38 and 28 yards en route to a seven-reception, 148-yard outing. Rathman scored his two touchdowns on runs of one and three yards.



The real story of the game was the play of Montana. He completed a sensational 22-of-29 passes for 297 yards and five touchdowns. He was masterful in his direction of the 49ers offense, leading the team on scoring drives of 66, 69 and 71 yards.

The 49ers defense proved to be as devastating as the offense. San Francisco harassed Denver QB John Elway all game, intercepting him twice and sacking him on six occasions. DE Daniel Stubbs led the way with two sacks and was joined by four others who had one sack each. DE Kevin Fagan had six tackles and LB Matt Millen added five.

'90 49ers 28, Washington Redskins 10
January 12 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana completed 22-of-31 passes for 274 yards and two touchdowns as San Francisco advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a 28-10 win over the visiting Washington Redskins.

The Redskins opened the scoring on a 31-yard touchdown reception from QB Mark Rypien to WR Art Monk. The 49ers answered with a one-yard touchdown run by FB Tom Rathman that capped an eight-play, 74-yard drive to tie the score at 7-7.

Washington added a 44-yard field goal by K Chip Lohmiller just before the end of the first quarter to take a 10-7 lead. That would be all of the scoring for the Redskins as the 49ers would reel off 21 consecutive points over the next three quarters.

Montana hit WR Jerry Rice on a 10-yard strike to complete a 10-play drive, giving San Francisco its first lead of the game four minutes into the second quarter. Five minutes later, the 49ers would extend their lead to 21-10 thanks to an eight-yard touchdown pass from Montana to WR Mike Sherrard.

It was the 49ers defense that would cap the scoring for the day. Following a scoreless third quarter, DT Michael Carter intercepted a Rypien pass that had been tipped by DE Charles Haley and returned it 61 yards for a touchdown.

CB Don Griffin and DE Kevin Fagan had seven tackles each to lead the 49ers defense.

'90 New York Giants 15, 49ers 13
NFC Championship
January 20 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

Kickers and defense were the story of the day at Candlestick as the Giants used five field goals from K Matt Bahr and the Giants defense held San Francisco to 39 yards on the ground to defeat the 49ers 15-13.

In the first two quarters, it was Bahr and 49ers K Mike Cofer who provided all the scoring. Bahr connected on a pair of field goals from 28 and 42 yards out. Cofer added field goals of 47 and 35 yards, and the teams entered the half in a 6-6 tie.

San Francisco opened the scoring in the third quarter on a 61-yard touchdown pass to WR John Taylor from QB Joe Montana to take a 13-6 lead. From that point on, it was all New York and Matt Bahr.

Bahr kicked field goals of 46 and 38 yards to pull the Giants within one at 13-12 with 5:47 remaining. San Francisco took over at its own 20-yard line, but five plays later DT Erik Howard forced a 49ers fumble and LB Lawrence Taylor recovered at the Giants 43-yard line with 2:36 remaining. A pair of QB Jeff Hostetler completions to TE Mark Bavaro and WR Stephen Baker had the Giants in field goal range at the 49ers 29-yard line with 1:10 remaining in the contest. Three plays later Bahr added his fifth field goal of the day, this one from 42 yards away, as time expired.

Montana completed 18-of-26 passes for 190 yards and one touchdown. Taylor caught two passes for 75 yards, including the 61-yard touchdown. WR Jerry Rice added five catches for 54 yards.

Defensively, San Francisco was led by LB Bill Romanowski's seven tackles. DT Jim Burt, DT Pierce Holt and DE Charles Haley added one sack each.

'92 49ers 20, Washington Redskins 13
January 9 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw for 227 yards, including two touchdown passes, and rushed for an additional 73 yards to lead San Francisco to a hard fought 20-13 win over the visiting Redskins at Candlestick Park.

Young tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to WR John Taylor to open the scoring at the 11:48 mark of the first quarter. The teams traded field goals, and then Young hit TE Brent Jones on a 16-yard scoring strike and K Mike Cofer added the extra point to give San Francisco a 17-3 lead at halftime.

The Redskins answered with 10 consecutive points on a K Chip Lohmiller field goal and a QB Mark Rypien one-yard touchdown plunge to cut the 49ers lead to 17-13. The locals responded with a 14-play, 59-yard drive that resulted in a 33-yard Cofer field goal with 2:22 remaining.

The San Francisco defense did the rest, sacking Rypien four times on its final drive before forcing the Redskins to turn the ball over on downs.

DT Pierce Holt had four tackles, including three sacks, to pace a determined Niners defense. CB Don Griffin posted a team-high six stops in the victory.

'92 Dallas Cowboys 30, 49ers 20
January 17 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Troy Aikman completed 24-of-34 passes for 322 yards and two touchdowns as the Cowboys claimed a 30-20 win over the 49ers. The game was played before 64,920 fans at a rainy Candlestick Park.

Dallas opened the scoring with a 20-yard field goal by K Lin Elliott. The 49ers answered with a one-yard run by QB Steve Young to take a 7-3 lead after the first quarter. Cowboy RB Emmitt Smith scored the first of his two touchdowns on a four-yard run at the 5:05 mark of the second quarter to put Dallas up 10-7. San Francisco tied the score three minutes later on a 28-yard field goal by K Mike Cofer.

FB Daryl Johnston scored the first points of the second half on a three-yard run at the 10:45 mark of the third quarter to put the Cowboys ahead 17-10. Cofer added a field goal for the 49ers to make the score 17-13 heading into the fourth quarter.

It was a battle between Aikman and Young in the fourth. Aikman hit Smith on a 16-yard scoring strike at the 12:25 mark, extending the Dallas lead to 24-13. Young answered back with a nine play, 93-yard drive resulting in a five-yard scoring toss to WR Jerry Rice to trim the Cowboys lead to 24-20. It didn't take long for Dallas to respond. On a first and 10 from their own 21, Aikman hit WR Alvin Harper on a crossing pattern that Harper turned into a 70-yard completion. Three plays later Aikman hit WR Kelvin Martin for a six-yard touchdown to secure the win.

Rice had an outstanding day receiving, finishing with eight catches for 123 yards and one touchdown. Young completed 25-of-35 passes for 313 yards and one touchdown.

CB Eric Davis had six tackles to lead the 49ers defense. S Dana Hall, CB Don Griffin and LB Bill Romanowski added five tackles each. DT Ted Washington and DE Kevin Fagan had two sacks each for San Francisco.

January 15 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

It was a wattered down 49ers attack at Candlestick Park as RB Ricky Watters established an NFL single-game playoff record with five rushing touchdowns in the 44-3 win over the visting New York Giants.

Watters scored on runs of one, one, two, six and two yards as he compiled 118 rushing yards on 24 carries. He also caught a team-high five passes for 46 yards from QB Steve Young, who finished the day completing 17-of-22 passes for 226 yards in the victory.

The 49ers defense stepped up their play in the win as well. New York was held to 194 total yards, with only 41 yards rushing. DT Dana Stubblefield had two sacks and LB Bill Romanowski added a team-high five tackles.

The game was marked by several milestone events:

- Attendance of 67,143 set a 49ers and Candlestick Park record (since broken).
- 44 points are most scored by 49ers in an NFC Playoff Game.
- Watters sets NFL single-game record for postseason rushing touchdowns (5), postseason touchdowns (5) and points scored (30).

'93 Dallas Cowboys 38, 49ers 21
January 23 at Texas Stadium (Irving, TX)

The Cowboys broke a 7-7 tie by scoring 21 unanswered points in the second quarter and that proved to be the difference in their 38-21 win over the visiting 49ers.

The game was played before 64,902 at Texas Stadium.

The Cowboys opened the scoring on a five-yard touchdown run by RB Emmit Smith at 8:14 of the first quarter. San Francisco responded with a seven-yard touchdown reception by FB Tom Rathman from QB Steve Young early in the second quarter to tie the score. That would be as close as the 49ers would get, as Dallas answered with a 21-point outburst in the final 10 minutes of the second quarter to take a 28-7 halftime lead.

San Francisco scored its second touchdown of the game at the 5:47 mark of the third quarter. RB Ricky Watters capped a six-play, 43-yard drive with a four-yard scamper into the end zone. Dallas sealed the game by scoring 10 consecutive points on a 42-yard touchdown reception by WR Alvin Harper from reserve QB Bernie Kosar and adding a 50-yard field goal from K Eddie Murray. The 49ers would add another touchdown on a one-yard plunge by Young, capping a 17-play, 94-yard drive.

San Francisco was paced offensively by Young, who completed 27-of-45 passes for 287 yards and one touchdown. He also ran for a team-high 38 yards. Watters added 37 yards on 12 carries and one touchdown.

LB Michael Walter led the 49ers defense with eight tackles. He was joined by S Merton Hanks and DT Dennis Brown who had seven stops each.

'94 49ers 44, Chicago Bears 15
January 7 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

FB William Floyd rushed for three touchdowns and the 49ers defense held Chicago to just 247 yards in a 44-15 rout of the Bears. Floyd's three scores established him as the first rookie to hit paydirt three times in an NFL playoff game.

The Bears actually took an early 3-0 lead on a 29-yard field goal by K Kevin Butler. The Niners bounced back, however, lighting up the scoreboard for 37 unanswered points to put the game away.

San Francisco's first points were the result of a 13-play, 68-yard drive that ended with a two-yard run by Floyd. CB Eric Davis then intercepted QB Steve Walsh on the Bears next possession and moments later, QB Steve Young connected with TE Brent Jones for an eight-yard scoring play.

The Niners continued to roll in the second quarter, increasing the lead to 30-3 at the half on touchdown runs by Floyd and Young, sandwiched around a K Doug Brien field goal. Floyd's third touchdown of the game midway through the third quarter increased the lead to 37-3 and completed the afternoon's work for many of the San Francisco starters.

LB Gary Plummer led a spirited defensive effort, tying the 49ers single-game postseason record with 13 tackles. The 49ers defense also sacked Chicago quarterbacks four times, led by DE Tim Harris' two.

'94 49ers 38, Dallas Cowboys 28
January 15 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

CB Eric Davis returned an interception 44 yards for a touchdown and forced a fumble that San Francisco converted into another touchdown. Those plays set the stage for a defensive effort that produced five takeaways in San Francisco's 38-28 NFC Championship Game win over the Dallas Cowboys. The game was played before a Candlestick Park-record 69,143 (since broken).

On the third play of the game, Davis, playing a disguised zone coverage, stepped in front of a QB Troy Aikman pass and sprinted to the end zone. Three plays later, he stripped the ball from WR Michael Irvin and S Tim McDonald recovered. Five plays later, QB Steve Young hit FB Ricky Watters in the flat on a play that produced a 29-yard touchdown and a 14-0 lead.

The ensuing kickoff saw 49ers RB Adam Walker jar the ball loose from Dallas returner Kevin Williams and K Doug Brien recovered the fumble. It took seven plays before FB William Floyd plunged in from the one to make it 21-0 with 7:33 remaining in the first quarter.

Dallas began its comeback on the next series. Facing third and 23 from the San Francisco 44, Aikman hit Irvin for a touchdown that cut the score to 21-7. Following a Brien field goal of 34 yards, RB Emmitt Smith capped a 63-yard drive with a four-yard run that narrowed the gap to 24-14. The crucial point in the game came seconds before the first half expired. With eight seconds remaining, Young found WR Jerry Rice for a 28-yard score, giving the 49ers a 31-14 lead heading into the locker room.

The teams traded touchdowns in the second half with the 49ers holding off a strong Dallas charge in the fourth quarter. Young completed 13-of-29 passes for 155 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed for 47 yards and another score. Watters led the ground game, compiling 72 yards, while TE Brent Jones and Floyd each had three receptions.

Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. paced the squad with 10 tackles, while Davis and McDonald added seven. Davis also had two interceptions and a forced fumble. CB Deion Sanders had an interception, along with five passes defensed, while DT Rhett Hall and DE Tim Harris each had two sacks.

'94 — 49ers 49, San Diego Chargers 26
Super Bowl XXIX
January 29 at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

QB Steve Young set a Super Bowl record with six touchdown passes and WR Jerry Rice hauled in three scoring passes for the second time in his career in the world championship game. The 49ers stars led an offensive explosion that carried the team to a 49-26 win over San Diego.

San Francisco wasted little time getting on the scoreboard as it took just three plays following the game's opening kickoff to crack the Chargers end zone. Following a FB William Floyd four-yard run and an 11-yard pass from Young to WR John Taylor, Young connected with Rice streaking down the middle of the field for a 44-yard scoring strike.

Following a San Diego punt, San Francisco was back in the end zone again after only three plays as Young, once again, challenged the middle of the Chargers defense, this time with a pass to RB Ricky Watters, which netted a 51-yard score. The Chargers made things close for awhile, however, putting together a 13-play, 78-yard drive that concluded with a RB Natrone Means one-yard touchdown plunge to make it 14-7 after one quarter of play.

The 49ers began to break the game open in the second quarter. They followed the San Diego touchdown with a 70-yard drive that culminated with a five-yard scoring pass from Young to Floyd. Two possessions later, following a partially blocked punt by RB Adam Walker, the Niners drove 49 yards for another score on an eight-yard toss from Young to Watters. K John Carney's 31-yard field goal with less than two minutes remaining in the half closed the margin at intermission to 28-10.

The Niners put the game away in the third quarter, running the lead to 42-10 on a pair of long drives that ended with Watters' third score of the evening, a nine-yard blast up the middle, and a 15-yard pass from Young to Rice. Rice caught his third touchdown of the night on a seven-yard toss from Young in the fourth quarter, enabling Young to break QB Joe Montana's record of five Super Bowl touchdown passes. Young was named the game's Most Valuable Player, while Rice turned in the second best receiving performance in Super Bowl history with 10 catches for 149 yards, while tying his own record with three scoring receptions.

'95 Green Bay Packers 27, 49ers 17
January 6 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

Aided by a swarming defense that caused four turnovers, the Green Bay Packers defeated the 49ers 27-17 at 3Com Park.

A record crowd of 69,311 saw the Packers advance to the NFC Championship Game, while the 49ers one-year reign as world champions ended with an overall record of 11-6.

Green Bay took its opening drive and marched to the San Francisco 26 before settling for a field goal attempt. However, K Chris Jacke's 44-yard attempt was blocked by S Tim McDonald and the 49ers took over at their 34. On the first play from scrimmage, QB Steve Young hit FB Adam Walker in the flat, but LB Wayne Simmons jarred the ball loose and CB Craig Newsome returned the fumble 31 yards for the touchdown. Green Bay also scored on its next two possessions, a three-yard pass from QB Brett Favre to TE Keith Jackson and a 13-yard toss from Favre to TE Mark Chmura. San Francisco scored its first points of the game late in the half when K Jeff Wilkins nailed a 21-yard field goal with two minutes remaining.

The 49ers took their first possession of the third quarter and marched 80 yards for a touchdown, when Young plunged in from the one, cutting the deficit to 21-10. On the 14-play drive, Young was 9-of-10 and ran the ball twice. Again, the Packers responded to the challenge, using a pair of Jacke field goals (27 yards in the third quarter, 26 yards in the fourth quarter), and boosted Green Bay's lead to 27-10. San Francisco's final score of the season came on a two-yard plunge by RB Derek Loville with 50 seconds remaining in the game.

Young completed 32 passes in an NFL postseason record 65 attempts, for 328 yards and two interceptions. He also led the 49ers in rushing, gaining 77 yards in nine attempts, including a 40-yard sprint after he was flushed from the pocket. WR Jerry Rice led the receivers with 11 catches for 117 yards, while TE Brent Jones gained 112 yards on eight receptions.

Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield recorded a team-high 10 tackles and a sack for a loss of five yards, while LB Ken Norton Jr. added nine tackles.

'96 49ers 14, Philadelphia Eagles 0
NFC Wild Card
December 29 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

On a wet and windy Sunday at 3Com Park, San Francisco opened its 1996 postseason by defeating the Philadelphia Eagles 14-0 in the NFC Wild Card Game.

Led by their marquee players QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice on offense, and a defense that recorded the team's first postseason shutout since the 1984 NFC Championship Game, the 49ers advanced to the NFC Divisional Playoff round.

Following a scoreless first quarter, Young led the offense on a 10-play, 74-yard drive that concluded with the Pro Bowl quarterback scoring on a gutty nine-yard run off a quarterback draw. On that play Young broke four tackles while fighting his way to paydirt.

Twice in the second quarter the Eagles mounted long drives only to be denied just short of the end-zone by Niners interceptions. Philadelphia's first trip ended with CB Marquez Pope intercepting a QB Ty Detmer pass on San Francisco's seven-yard line. Late in the quarter the Eagles marched 59 yards on 10 plays moving to the 49ers five-yard line. Facing third and four, Detmer's attempt to WR Chris T. Jones was picked off by DE Roy Barker, who had dropped off into zone-blitz coverage.

The only scoring in the second half occurred on the Niners second possession of the third quarter. On that drive, Rice made a spectacular one-handed catch that resulted in a 36-yard gain. He scored on a three-yard pass from Young on the next play from scrimmage.

Young finished as the game's leading rusher with 65 yards, while also completing 14-of-21 tosses for 161 yards. Rice had four catches for 50 yards and his 19th career postseason touchdown (17th receiving). RB Terry Kirby added 43 yards rushing.

The Niners defense, which held Eagles RB Ricky Watters to 57 rushing yards, was led by LB Ken Norton Jr.'s team postseason-record 12 solo tackles. DT Bryant Young registered two sacks and LB Lee Woodall added a sack among his six total stops.

'96 Green Bay Packers 35, 49ers 14
January 4 at Lambeau Field (Green Bay, WI)

Missed opportunities, including a total of five turnovers, spelled defeat for the San Francisco 49ers in their NFC Divisional Playoff Game with the Green Bay Packers. Played before a record Lambeau Field crowd of 60,787, the 49ers fell 35-14 in a game that featured 34-degree weather (with a wind chill of nine-degrees) and driving rain.

It didn't take long for the Packers to take a lead. After forcing San Francisco to punt on its first series, WR Desmond Howard took P Tommy Thompson's punt, split the coverage down the middle of the field and raced for a 71-yard touchdown. Then, with seven minutes remaining in the opening stanza, Howard struck again. He returned a punt 46 yards to the San Francisco seven, and two plays later, QB Brett Favre threw a four-yard scoring pass to WR Andre Rison to make it 14-0.

San Francisco then mounted a comeback in the second quarter. Trailing 21-0, the tide began to turn when 49ers special teams standout Curtis Buckley recovered a muffed punt at the Green Bay 26. Moments later, QB Elvis Grbac, replacing the injured QB Steve Young (ribs), hit RB Terry Kirby with an eight-yard pass, cutting the deficit to 21-7 at the half.

On the opening kickoff of the third quarter, San Francisco CB Steve Israel recovered a loose ball on the Packers four, setting the stage for Grbac's scamper into the end zone. The 49ers fate was sealed, however, on the ensuing Packers drive. Marching 72 yards in 12 plays (10 of which were runs), Green Bay scored when FB Edgar Bennett fumbled before crossing the goal line; but before the 49ers defenders could react, WR Antonio Freeman fell on the loose ball, giving the hosts a 28-14 advantage. Bennett scored on an 11-yard run, and two more fumbles in the fourth quarter snuffed out any hope the 49ers had in getting back into the game.

Young played the first nine plays at quarterback before giving way to Grbac late in the first quarter. Grbac completed 19-of-36 passes for 125 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions and led the team in rushing with 32 yards. Backfield mates Kirby and RB William Floyd had six receptions each, while WR Jerry Rice had a team-high 36 yards receiving.

Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. posted eight tackles and LB Gary Plummer added seven. All-Pro DT Bryant Young left the game late in the first quarter because of a neck injury. He was taken to the hospital for tests, which were negative.

'97 49ers 38, Minnesota Vikings 22
January 3 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Terry Kirby rushed for a career-high 120 yards and scored two touchdowns, leading the San Francisco 49ers to a 38-22 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the NFC Divisional Playoffs at 3Com Park.

In addition to Kirby's heroics, QB Steve Young completed 21-of-30 passes for 224 yards and a touchdown, WR J.J. Stokes had 101 yards receiving and LB Ken Norton Jr. returned an interception 23 yards for a touchdown.

San Francisco's first score came compliments of a Minnesota special teams miscue. P Mitch Berger's punt sailed off the side of his foot and into the crowd after going only 12 yards. The 49ers took over on the Vikings 26, and four plays later, FB William Floyd scored from the one and the 49ers led 7-0. Less than a minute later, the visitors tied the game on a 66-yard scoring pass from QB Randall Cunningham to WR Cris Carter. In the second quarter, the 49ers again took advantage of a poor kick by Berger — this time a punt of 29 yards — to take a 14-7 lead. Moving 61 yards in only four plays, and aided by three Minnesota penalties, Kirby scored the first of his two touchdowns on a one-yard plunge. The game-breaker occurred two plays later when the San Francisco defense flushed Cunningham out of the pocket and forced him to throw a pass over an onrushing DE Roy Barker and into the hands of Norton, who ran untouched into the end zone.

In the third quarter, K Gary Anderson connected on a 34-yard field goal to build the lead to 24-7, but Cunningham and Carter hooked up again for a score, closing the gap to 24-14. On the ensuing series, the 49ers marched 75 yards in seven plays, highlighted by two Kirby runs of 22 and 14 yards. Young then hit WR Terrell Owens with one of the prettiest touchdowns of the year, as the second-year receiver shook off a defender then dove into the end zone for the score. Kirby finished the scoring in the fourth quarter with another one-yard run.

CB Tyronne Drakeford had six tackles and a pair of passes defensed to pace the defense. Barker also recorded San Francisco's only sack of the game.

NFC Championship
January 11 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Dorsey Levens rushed for 114 yards and WR Antonio Freeman caught four passes for 104 yards and a touchdown to lead visiting Green Bay to a 23-10 win in the NFC Championship Game. The game was played before 68,987 under windy and rainy conditions at 3Com Park.

The Packers opened the scoring late in the first quarter. After San Francisco punted on its first series, QB Brett Favre led Green Bay on a 10-play, 76-yard drive that resulted in a K Ryan Longwell 19-yard field goal. Favre completed three-of-four passes for 37 yards in the series.

Green Bay continued its scoring in the second quarter. S Eugene Robinson intercepted a QB Steve Young pass and returned it 58 yards to the San Francisco 28. Two plays later, Favre threw a 27-yard scoring pass to Freeman to make the score 10-0.

San Francisco then broke the drought with a scoring drive beginning with 4:23 remaining in the second quarter. Following a missed field goal by Longwell, the 49ers took possession at their own 38. A pair of Young completions for 32 yards had the Niners in Packers territory, but two holding penalties brought the ball back to the original line of scrimmage. On a key third down with 26 yards to go, Young completed a 48-yard pass to WR Terrell Owens to the Packers 10-yard line. The drive resulted in a 28-yard field goal by K Gary Anderson.

Green Bay answered on its next possession. Freeman returned the kickoff 18 yards to the Packers 27. Two plays later, Favre hit Freeman for a 40-yard completion to the San Francisco 25. Longwell connected on a 43-yard field goal to make the halftime score 13-3.

After a scoreless third quarter, Green Bay extended its lead to 16-3 on a 25-yard field goal by Longwell. The Packers added seven more after a five-yard touchdown run by Levens to make the score 23-3.

San Francisco closed out the game by scoring on the ensuing kickoff. Chuck Levy returned Longwell's kick 95 yards for a touchdown. Levy's return was the second longest postseason return for San Francisco, trailing the 97-yard touchdown return by Vic Washington vs. Dallas in 1972.

Young completed 23-of-38 passes for 250 yards and one interception. RB Terry Kirby ran for a team-high 21 yards on six carries. WR J.J. Stokes caught six passes for 87 yards, including a long of 43.

Defensively, San Francisco was led by S Merton Hanks with eight tackles. LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Lee Woodall, LB Gary Plummer and S Tim McDonald had seven tackles each.

'98 49ers 30, Green Bay Packers 27
NFC Wild Card
January 3 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw three touchdown passes, including a 25-yard strike to WR Terrell Owens with three seconds remaining, as San Francisco edged Green Bay, 30-27.

The 49ers forced three Green Bay turnovers and racked up 178 yards rushing, including 128 yards on 22 carries by RB Garrison Hearst, but still needed last-second heroics to defeat their rival and nemesis.

On a crystal clear day in the Bay Area, it was the Packers who opened the scoring on a 23-yard field goal from K Ryan Longwell midway through the first quarter. San Francisco answered with help from a big play on defense. S Merton Hanks forced a fumble by RB Dorsey Levens and the ball was recovered by DE Chris Doleman at the Green Bay 19-yard line. Three plays later Young connected with TE Greg Clark from one yard out for the touchdown and a 7-3 lead.

Just four seconds into the second quarter, the Packers regained the lead on a two-yard scoring toss from QB Brett Favre to WR Antonio Freeman. The score capped a nine-play, 62-yard drive. San Francisco tied the score on the first of three K Wade Richey field goals, this one from 34 yards out with 6:53 remaining in the half. The Packers surged back ahead with 36 seconds remaining when Levens bowled into the end zone from two yards out. The extra point by Longwell was good and Green Bay took a 17-10 halftime lead.

The third quarter opened with another big play from the 49ers defense. With Green Bay driving at its own 41-yard line, DE Charles Haley pressured Favre into an errant pass that was intercepted by LB Lee Woodall and returned 17 yards to the Packers 33-yard line. Five plays later, the score was tied for a third time when Young hit Clark from eight yards out for the score.

The 49ers reclaimed the lead midway through the quarter on a team postseason record and career-long 48-yard field goal from Richey. The kick capped an 11-play, 48-yard drive that took 5:33 off the clock.

In a game that saw five lead changes and three ties, the fourth quarter became particularly dramatic. Longwell answered Richey's 48-yard kick with a 37-yard effort of his own to tie the game at 20-20 at the beginning of the fourth. On the ensuing possession, San Francisco marched 51 yards in 10 plays and capped the drive with a 40-yard field goal by Richey to reclaim the lead at 23-20. With 4:19 remaining in the game, Green Bay took over at its own 11-yard line. From there, Favre would lead his team on a nine-play, 89-yard scoring drive. The drive was capped when Favre hit Freeman from 15 yards out for the touchdown and a 27-23 lead with 1:56 remaining in the game.

The Packers touchdown set up one of the most memorable sequences in 49ers history. San Francisco took possession at its own 24-yard line with 1:50 remaining and three timeouts to its credit. From there Young would lead the team on a drive for the ages. Young opened the drive with completions of 17 and nine yards to WR J.J. Stokes. His third straight completion was for three yards to FB Marc Edwards, who broke three tackles to pick up a first down. After using the first timeout, Young threw incomplete to Stokes and then had a six-yard completion to WR Jerry Rice. The 49ers second timeout was followed by a nine-yard completion to RB Terry Kirby who ran out of bounds at the Green Bay 32-yard line. A seven-yard completion to RB Garrison Hearst was followed by the 49ers final timeout with 14 seconds remaining on the clock. After the timeout, Young passed incomplete to Stokes with eight seconds to play. On the next play Young dropped back, stumbled and threw a 25-yard touchdown strike to Owens who was sandwiched in the end zone by S Pat Terrell and S Darren Sharper.

CB Marquez Pope and Woodall paced the defensive effort with eight tackles each. Woodall also recorded an interception and had two passes defensed. DT Brentson Buckner added six tackles, while LB Ken Norton Jr. and DT Junior Bryant recorded five stops each. CB Darnell Walker added an interception.

'98 Atlanta Falcons 20, 49ers 18
January 9 at Georgia Dome (Atlanta, GA)

With San Francisco's NFL-leading run game a mere shell of itself, the Atlanta Falcons forced three turnovers and held off the 49ers, 20-18, in the NFC Divisional Playoff at the Georgia Dome.

San Francisco's hope of controlling the game on the ground came to a screeching halt on the first play of the game when RB Garrison Hearst fractured the tibia in his left leg on an inside run that had gained seven yards. With Hearst out and RB Terry Kirby hobbled with a bruised leg, the 49ers managed just 46 yards on the ground.

Atlanta's rushing attack flourished in the first half thanks to the power running of RB Jamal Anderson, who scored on a two-yard run in the first quarter to give the Falcons a 7-0 lead.

Atlanta increased its lead to 14-0 when Anderson finished off a 34-yard run with a spread eagle dive into the end zone with 3:12 left in the second quarter. The touchdown run capped a seven-play, 82-yard drive.

San Francisco snatched the momentum from the Falcons by putting together a pair of scoring drives just before the half. The 49ers answered Atlanta's second touchdown march with a nine-play, 80-yard drive that concluded with the familiar end zone combination of QB Steve

Young to WR Jerry Rice from 17 yards out. It was Rice's 20th career postseason touchdown. With just under one minute to play in the first half, DE Charles Haley chased QB Chris Chandler and deflected his pass into the waiting arms of DT Junior Bryant, who returned it four yards to the Atlanta 36-yard line. K Wade Richey made it a 14-10 game at the half with a 36-yard field goal as time expired.

The 49ers carried that momentum into the third quarter, nearly tripling Atlanta's offensive output in the second half (187 yards to 68). But turnovers did not allow them to complete the comeback. The Falcons thwarted two drives with a pair of interceptions, including one by S Eugene Robinson that was returned 77 yards to set up a K Morten Andersen 29-yard field goal. Leading 17-10, Andersen added another 32-yard field goal to give the Falcons a 10-point edge with 10:33 remaining.

San Francisco responded to Atlanta's three pointer with a 13-play, 87-yard drive that Young finished himself with an eight-yard touchdown run. A two-point pass from QB Ty Detmer to TE Greg Clark made it 20-18 with 2:57 left.

After Atlanta used up 2:19 of the clock, the 49ers got the ball back at their own four-yard line but were only able to move to the 26 before Young's hail mary attempt was intercepted as time expired.

After rushing for 83 yards on 13 carries in the first half, Anderson was limited to 30 yards on 16 carries in the second half by San Francisco's defense. LB Winfred Tubbs made a game-high 10 tackles, while DE Chris Doleman made six stops and one sack.

'01 Green Bay Packers 25, 49ers 15
January 13 at Lambeau Field (Green Bay, WI)

In their first postseason appearance since 1998, the 49ers dropped a hard-fought 25-15 decision to the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Wild Card Game at Lambeau Field.

With a game-time temperature of 28 degrees, the 49ers won the opening coin toss and elected to receive. The two teams traded punts until Green Bay marched 40 yards in seven plays to score the first points of the game when QB Brett Favre hooked up with WR Antonio Freeman on a five-yard touchdown pass. DT Dana Stubblefield blocked the extra point to keep the score 6-0. After another 49ers punt, the Packers began their third possession of the game from their own 19-yard line. On the second play from scrimmage, Favre was intercepted by CB Ahmed Plummer, who returned it to the Green Bay 22. San Francisco picked up two first downs as they moved the ball down to the Green Bay 16-yard line, where the drive stalled. San Francisco K Jose Cortez had his 34-yard field goal attempt blocked and the score remained 6-0 early in the second quarter. After the Packers were forced to punt, San Francisco took possession at its own 14 with 7:06 remaining in the half. QB Jeff Garcia went 6-of-9 for 61 yards and RB Garrison Hearst carried the ball three times for 13 yards, including a two-yard touchdown plunge with 15 seconds remaining in the half, to cap off a 15-play, 86-yard drive. After a Cortez extra point, the 49ers went in with a 7-6 halftime lead.

On their first possession of the second half, the Packers took over on their own 20-yard line. They moved the ball down to the San Francisco eight-yard line where K Ryan Longwell nailed a 26-yard field goal for the 9-7 lead. After the 49ers couldn't get anything going on offense, they punted back to Green Bay. It took only four plays for the Packers to take advantage with a 19-yard touchdown pass from Favre to TE Bubba Franks. The two-point conversion failed and the score remained 15-7.

The 49ers picked up one first down on their next drive before punting for the fifth time of the game. The Packers were forced into a three-and-out and San Francisco took over at its own 39-yard line. The 49ers marched 61 yards in six plays, culminating with Garcia hitting WR Tai Streets on a 14-yard touchdown strike and again on the two-point conversion to tie the score at 15. The Packers answered on their next possession with a 10-play, 45-yard drive as Longwell connected on a 45-yard field goal to push the score to 18-15. With 5:03 remaining in the game, the 49ers had moved the ball down to the Green Bay 41, when Garcia's pass intended for WR Terrell Owens was tipped by CB Mike McKenzie into the hands of CB Tyrone Williams at the Green Bay seven-yard line. Favre led the Packers on an eight-play, 93-yard drive ending with an RB Ahman Green nine-yard touchdown run and the 25-15 lead. RB Paul Smith took the ensuing kickoff on the 13-yard line and ran it back 16 yards before being hit by WR Cory Bradford and fumbling. The Packers recovered the fumble and ran out the clock for the 25-15 victory.

NFC Wild Card
January 5 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

Buried in a 24-point playoff hole, the San Francisco 49ers exploded to record the second largest comeback in postseason history with a dramatic 39-38 victory over the New York Giants in the NFC Wild Card Game.

The 49ers trailed 38-14 with four minutes left in the third quarter, but scored 25 straight points on two touchdown passes and a scoring run by QB Jeff Garcia, as well as two, two-point conversion catches by WR Terrell Owens.

The game ended just as exciting. After Garcia drove his team 68 yards in just over two minutes for the winning score, QB Kerry Collins got New York to the San Francisco 28 with six seconds left. LS Trey Junkin, signed earlier in the week, made a low snap that P Matt Allen couldn't handle.

Allen then threw a desperate pass that fell incomplete. After New York was penalized for illegal men downfield, San Francisco leaped, sprinted and collapsed onto the field in a raucous celebration before an exhausted home crowd.

The 49ers rally was the biggest in NFC playoff history. Only Buffalo's 32-point comeback in a 41-38 victory over Houston in January 1993 was by a larger margin in the postseason.

Garcia finished the day 27-of-44 for 331 yards and three touchdowns. He rushed for 60 yards, including a 14-yard score on the first play of the fourth quarter. Two of Garcia's touchdown throws went to Owens, who had nine catches for 177 yards.

The Giants won four straight to make the postseason and dominated the first 40 minutes. Collins was 29-of-43 for 342 yards and four touchdowns, and expertly guided New York to a lead that seemed insurmountable. WR Amani Toomer caught eight passes for 136 yards and three touchdowns and RB Tiki Barber added 115 yards rushing and 62 yards receiving.

San Francisco rallied with purpose and poise. Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass late in the third quarter to start the rally and made big catches on every drive—right up to the final minutes, when Garcia found WR Tai Streets for the winning score.

After Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass and a two-point conversion with 2:03 left in the third, Garcia rushed for a 14-yard score and threw another conversion pass to Owens five seconds into the fourth quarter. K Jeff Chandler added a 25-yard field goal with 7:49 left.

Collins responded and drove New York 38 yards, but Bryant – kicking out of a poor hold thanks to a poor snap by Junkin—missed a 42-yard field goal with 3:01 left.

Garcia took over, converting two straight third downs for the NFL leaders in that category. TE Eric Johnson caught a 25-yard pass to the New York 25 and Garcia scrambled 12 yards to set up his winning pass to Streets.

'02 Tampa Bay Buccaneers 31, 49ers 6
January 12 at Raymond James Stadium (Tampa, FL)

San Francisco's Super Bowl hopes ended with a 31-6 loss against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game on the road at Raymond James Stadium.

The 49ers trailed 28-6 heading into halftime and although the defense held Tampa Bay to only three points in the second half, San Francisco was held scoreless en route to the Buccaneers victory.

Tampa Bay started the scoring with a two-yard touchdown run by FB Mike Alstott on a 12-play, 74-yard drive.

San Francisco answered with a 12-play, 63-yard drive capped by a 24-yard field goal by K Jeff Chandler. The highlight of the drive was a 30-yard pitch and catch by WR Tai Streets from QB Jeff Garcia.

Tampa Bay exploded for 21 points in the second quarter, highlighted by two touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson. Johnson connected on a 20-yard pass to WR Joe Jurevicius and a 12-yard pass to TE Rickey Dudley. In between the two scores, Chandler kicked his second field goal of the game for San Francisco, this time from 40 yards out.

Alstott added another two-yard touchdown run to end the first half and K Martin Gramatica added a 19-yard field goal to close the scoring for both teams.

LB Derek Smith led San Francisco with a game-high 14 tackles. LB Julian Peterson and LB Jeff Ulbrich added 11 tackles apiece. CB Rashad Holman led a banged up secondary with one interception. The unit was minus starting CB Jason Webster, who was inactive with an ankle injury. CB Ahmed Plummer left the game when he separated his right shoulder and did not return. FS Zack Bronson left the game in the third quarter when he aggravated his broken foot and SS Tony Parrish played the contest with a dislocated elbow.

LB Shelton Quarles led Tampa Bay with nine tackles and Defensive Player-of-the-Year Derrick Brooks added seven tackles and one interception.

Linebacker Jamie Winborn was named the 49ers recipient of the 2004 Ed Block Courage Award, given to one player on each team who displays courage in overcoming injury or hardship. Winborn rebounded from a serious neck injury that sidelined him in 2003. He underwent offseason surgery and returned to finish second on the team with a career-high 4.5 sacks in 2004.

THE NAME GAME

The original groundbreaking of Monster Park was in 1958, and in 1959, the stadium was dubbed "Candlestick Park" in a balloting among fans. More than 15,000 entries were submitted. It is fitting, as the stadium sits atop Candlestick Point. The stadium was renamed 3Com Park in 1995 and in 2004, converted to Monster Park.

49ERS HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

Following are the team's historical highlights beginning with its first year in the NFL:

1949 - December 10, the NFL and AAFC announced that the two leagues will merge. The NFL agrees to adopt Baltimore, Cleveland and San Francisco as new franchises.

1950 - The 49ers struggled in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

1951 - In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race until the season's final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by LB Hardy Brown and his famed shoulder tackle, the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the League. QB Y.A. Tittle and E Billy Wilson began their great 49er careers.

1952 - After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in mid-season. HB Hugh "The King" McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become the NFL PLAYER OF THE YEAR and the most feared runner in football.

1953 - The 49ers had their best NFL showing posting a 9-3 record, normally good enough for a championship. Detroit, however, was 10-2. Two of San Francisco's losses came with QB Y.A. Tittle sidelined because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. FB Joe "The Jet" Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. E Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954 - The 49ers jumped out to a blazing start, posting a 4-0-1 record through the season's first five games. However the early momentum was slowed by injuries to three key members of the legendary "Million Dollar Backfield." QB Y.A. Tittle, HB Hugh McElhenny and FB Joe Perry all missed action with different injuries, but Perry returned to become the first player to record 1,000 yards rushing in consecutive seasons.

1956 - In head coach Frankie Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were in last place at midseason with a 1-6 record. They went 4-0-1 in their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957 - This undoubtedly was one of the most emotional and dramatic seasons in 49ers history. Every game was a cliffhanger and the Alley Oop pass from QB Y.A. Tittle to rookie HB R.C. Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trailing 17-7, the 49ers fought back for a great victory, 21-17. The magnificent E Billy Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8-4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31-27, after holding a 27-7 lead in the third quarter.

1958 - An up-and-down season finished on a high note with victories over Green Bay and Baltimore. The 6-6 record, however, was blackened by the 33-3 and 56-7 lacings at the hands of the Los Angeles Rams. Head coach Frankie Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959 - With Howard W. "Red" Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and QB John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21-20 upset of Cleveland. HB J.D. Smith, a converted defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960 - Howard W. "Red" Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his shotgun attack and the club captured four of its last five games, including a 30-22 upset of Baltimore.

1961 - The success of Howard W. Hickey's shotgun amazed the football world, especially in a 49-0 victory over Detroit. QB Billy Kilmer, a passing-running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the shotgun stopped, QB John Brodie took over again in the T formation and had the finest season in 49ers QB annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second-place tie, plus a trip to the Runner-up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth-place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 will remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49ers history.

1962 - For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished a frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at Kezar Stadium, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963 - A multitude of injuries to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2-12 season. One of the victories, however, was a 20-14 upset of ultimate world champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

1964 - Club chief executive Victor P. Morabito died of a heart attack in May. Injuries to key personnel prevented the 49ers from gaining enough offensive momentum to forge a winning season despite having one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Outstanding rookie performances by E Dave Parks, QB George Mira and LB Dave Wilcox also took some of the sting from the 4-10 record.

1965 - Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. QB John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL, E Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie FB Ken Willard and veteran HB John David Crow, acquired in an offseason trade, led a strong ground game. The 7-6-1 record included a season-opening 52-24 victory over the Chicago Bears, marking the most points scored by the 49ers in NFL play.

1966 - After a somewhat slow start, the 49ers got in gear just before the midway point and became one of only two teams to beat the eventual world champion Green Bay Packers. After that, they finished with a respectable 6-6-2 record and were in the battle for second place in the Western Division until the final league game. G John Thomas and E Dave Parks were All-Pro, and they joined G Howard Mudd, C Bruce Bosley, FB Ken Willard and LB Dave Wilcox in the Pro Bowl.

1967 - An auspicious start (5-1) disintegrated into disappointment for the 49ers as injuries took a heavy toll and a six-game losing streak took them out of the running. QB George Mira came off the bench to lead the squad to two season-ending victories and salvage a 7-7 record. There were bright spots, however, as QB John Brodie and the 49ers were the only team to beat the power-laden Rams in a league game. G Bruce Bosley played in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season.

1968 - Under new coach Dick Nolan, the 49ers posted a 7-6-1 record. The season turned on key wins over the New York Giants, 26-10, and Green Bay, 27-20. Brilliant performances by QB John Brodie, WR Clifton McNeil and RB Ken Willard led a prolific offense, while DT Charlie Krueger, LB Dave Wilcox and DB Kermit Alexander sparked a revitalized defense. McNeil and G Howard Mudd were chosen All-NFL and were joined by Wilcox, Willard and Alexander in the Pro Bowl.

1969 - Beset by injuries that nearly decimated the defensive unit, the 49ers struggled through the early part of the season. They went winless in their first five games before beating Baltimore, the first time they had beaten the Colts in 13 previous games. The 49ers finished 4-8-2 and five players—HB Jimmy Johnson, LB Dave Wilcox, G Elmer Collett, RB Ken Willard and rookie WR Gene Washington—were selected to the Pro Bowl. Johnson was also All-Pro and winner of the Len Eshmont Award.

1970 - This was the greatest year since the club became a member of the NFL in 1950. The team recorded a 10-3 record and captured the Western Division (NFC) Championship. In a season of superlatives, QB John Brodie was the NFL'S PLAYER OF THE YEAR, CB Bruce Taylor was NFC ROOKIE OF THE YEAR and Coach Dick Nolan was a near-unanimous choice as NFC COACH OF THE YEAR. Brodie, WR Gene Washington, LB Dave Wilcox and HB Jimmy Johnson were All-Pro and joined T Len Rohde in the Pro Bowl.

1971 - The 49ers forged a 9-5-0 record and won their second consecutive NFC Western Division title, clinching the crown on the final day by beating Detroit, 31-27, the identical score by which the Lions had knocked the 49ers out of championship play in 1957. The season also was the club's first in its plush new home, Candlestick Park. C Forrest Blue, LB Dave Wilcox and CB Jimmy Johnson were All-Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington, RB Vic Washington, DE Cedrick Hardman and CB Bruce Taylor.

1972 - Early-season inconsistency, compounded by an injury to QB John Brodie in the fifth game of the season, cast appall on the 49ers prospects for a third-straight NFC Western Division title, but QB Steve Spurrier stepped in for Brodie and turned things around with a brilliant, poised performance. In the final quarter of the final game against Minnesota, the recovered Brodie relieved Spurrier and threw two TD passes in a 20-17 win over the Vikings. The victory clinched divisional title number three, but Spurrier's nine-game contribution was the key. C Forrest Blue, DB Jimmy Johnson, TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington and LB Dave Wilcox were All-Pro selections.

1973 - In what was both a disappointing and significant year, the 49ers were 5-9 after tackling the NFL's toughest schedule, a rash of key injuries and an unsettled quarterback situation. It also marked the end of the brilliant careers of QB John Brodie and DT Charlie Krueger, both of whom retired at year's end. C Forrest Blue and LB Dave Wilcox were voted All-Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, G Woody Peoples and P Tom Wittum.

1974 - The 49ers used five different quarterbacks after an injury to starter QB Steve Spurrier, a week before the season opened, sidelined him for most of the year. After winning the first two games, the club lost a team-record seven straight and then closed with a rush, winning four of its last five to finish the season 6-8. RB Wilbur Jackson was named The Sporting News ROOKIE OF THE YEAR and was named to the NFL All-Rookie team along with QB Tom Owen and DB Mike Holmes. C Forrest Blue and P Tom Wittum were All-NFC and selected for the Pro Bowl along with HB Jimmy Johnson. A knee injury forced perennial All-Pro LB Dave Wilcox to retire after a brilliant 11-year career with the 49ers.

1975 - A strong defensive performance throughout the season couldn't offset an erratic offense troubled by an unsettled quarterback situation and a rebuilding offensive line. The high point of the 5-9 season was a 24-23 win over Los Angeles to end a 10-game losing streak to the Rams. At season's end, DE Cedrick Hardman was the club's first ever two-time Len Eshmont Award winner.

1976 - A turnaround year for the 49ers as the team, under coach Monte Clark, posted an 8-6 record, their first winning season since 1972. With new QB Jim Plunkett at the controls, the 49ers got off to their best start ever (6-1), before hitting a mid-season four-game losing streak knocking the club out of playoff contention. The season saw the emergence of a powerful defensive unit that led the league in quarterback sacks with 61. RB Delvin Williams set a 49ers single-season rushing record with 1,203 yards. DE Tommy Hart was named All-Pro and played in the Pro Bowl along with Williams, DE Cleveland Elam and LB Dave Washington. C Randy Cross was an All-Rookie team selection. Hart became a two-time winner of the Len Eshmont Award and CB Jimmy Johnson retired after a brilliant 16-year career with the 49ers.

1977 - In the 32nd year of their existence, the 49ers began a new era. On March 31, 1977, the club became the property of Edward J. DeBartolo Jr. and came under the guidance of Joe Thomas as general manager. The changeover was made more dramatic because the San Francisco 49ers were one of the few NFL franchises which had never previously changed ownership or location. On the field, under Coach Ken Meyer, the 49ers ran hot and cold. The club lost its first five games, then won five of the next six before dropping the final three contests to finish 5-9. SS Mel Phillips was named winner of the coveted Len Eshmont Award. DE Cleveland Elam was selected All-Pro and played for the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

1978 - The 49ers suffered through their longest season as the club fell to 2-14 and three coaches were hired and fired in less than 12 months. First Head Coach Pete McCulley departed after nine games with a 1-8 record, and his replacement, Fred O'Connor, was let go at the end of the year as the team won just one of its final seven contests. Bill Walsh was hired as the new coach and general manager. RB Paul Hofer, who replaced RB O.J. Simpson when the newly-acquired star went to the sidelines for the year with a shoulder injury, was named recipient of the Len Eshmont award.

1979 - The 49ers suffered through their second consecutive 2-14 season, but there were several indications of improvement. San Francisco went from virtually the worst-ranked offensive team in the league in '78 to one of the most productive in '79, ranking first in passing offense in the NFC and sixth in total offense in the NFL. RB Paul Hofer again was the Len Eshmont Award recipient and individual leader, racking up 615 yards rushing and an additional 662 yards receiving on 58 catches in only seven starts. QB Steve DeBerg broke Fran Tarkenton's NFL record for completions by connecting on 347 passes. K Ray Wersching set a club record with an 83.3 field goal percentage and also led the league with that mark. RB O.J. Simpson retired from the 49ers and the NFL, finishing as the second leading rusher of all time with 11,236 yards.

1980 - In their second season of the Bill Walsh era, the 49ers showed gradual improvement in their rebuilding program. A three-game winning streak to open the season, combined with a three-game victory string from Week 12 through Week 14, enabled the Niners to post a 6-10 season, tripling the number of victories from each of the previous two 2-14 campaigns. Week 14 was a day when the 49ers made NFL history. That December 7 at Candlestick Park, the 49ers overcame a 35-7 halftime deficit against the New Orleans Saints to win in overtime, 38-35. The 28-point comeback was the biggest comeback in NFL history. E Jim Stuckey and P Jim Miller were named to All-Rookie teams, while another rookie, FB Earl Cooper, led the NFC in receptions with 83, the most catches ever by an NFL rookie. WR Dwight Clark caught 82 passes to break the team wide receiver mark, and QB Joe Montana set the club passing percentage record at 64.5 with 176 completions in 273 attempts.

1981 - It was a year of firsts and bests for the 49ers in 1981. In his third season as head coach and general manager, Bill Walsh guided San Francisco to a 16-3 record (best record in the league that year), the NFC Western Division title (first since '72), the NFC Championship crown (first ever for the 49ers) and the World Championship/Super Bowl XVI win (first ever for the 49ers). Walsh earned every possible NFC COACH OF THE YEAR award and all seven NFL COACH OF THE YEAR honors, while six 49ers were named to the Pro Bowl—WR Dwight Clark, C Randy Cross, QB Joe Montana, DE Fred Dean, S Ronnie Lott and S Dwight Hicks. Three San Francisco players were selected to All-Pro teams as recognized by the NFL—Cross, Lott and Dean. Montana, who led the NFC in passing in '81, was named MVP of Super Bowl XVI (for leading his team to a 26-21 win over the Cincinnati Bengals of the AFC). Dean was picked UPI NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR, NFL OUTSTANDING DEFENSIVE LINEMAN OF THE YEAR (NFL Players Association) and NFC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (Kansas City Committee of the 101). San Francisco opened and closed the season in Pontiac, MI in drastically different styles. The 49ers lost two of their first three games of 1981, including the season opener on the road against Detroit, then ran off seven wins—before a loss to Cleveland 15-12—and ran off eight more wins (including playoffs, the NFC Championship and Super Bowl XVI). The 49ers won 15 of their last 16 games, beat five opponents twice—including all three postseason foes—and became the first team since Chicago in 1945-47 to go from the worst NFL record (2-14 in 1979) to the league's best (13-3 in '81) in just three seasons. All this happened with three rookies (S Carlton Williamson, CB Eric Wright and Lott) starting in the defensive secondary. Those three rookies, along with Montana, Clark, Cross, WR Freddie Solomon and Hicks, combined with "old veterans" Dean and LB Jack "Hacksaw" Reynolds, formed a nucleus of world championship vintage.

1982 - As defending world champions, the San Francisco 49ers did not enjoy the 1982 season, but then not many NFL fans, coaches and players throughout the league did either (except maybe in Washington, where the Redskins were Super Bowl XVII champs). The Niners fell to 3-6 and missed out on the playoffs. In the strike-shortened season, San Francisco went winless at home (0-5) but did manage a 3-1 road record (the Niners were 0-2 prior to the 57-day players' strike and 3-4 following it). WR Dwight Clark had an outstanding season, leading the NFL with 60 receptions and being named consensus All-Pro and NFL PLAYER OF THE YEAR by Sports Illustrated. LB Keena Turner (second-team All-Pro), S Ronnie Lott (Pro Bowl), C Randy Cross (Pro Bowl), S Dwight Hicks (Pro Bowl), T Keith Fahnhorst and QB Joe Montana (NFL record for five straight 300-yard passing games) were bright spots in an otherwise disappointing season.

1983 - For the second time in three seasons, San Francisco played in the NFC Championship Game. The '83 49ers were 10-6 (third best regular season victory total in club history) and NFC Western Division Champions (fifth time since 1970, second time since 1981). In the playoffs, San Francisco squeezed past Detroit, 24-23, but lost to Washington, 24-21, in the NFC Championship contest. Individual standouts included QB Joe Montana (the league's number one all-time QB entering the 1984 season), S Ronnie Lott (making his third Pro Bowl appearance in as many years), DE Fred Dean (leading the NFC in sacks with 17.5), DE Dwaine Board (second in sacks with 13), CB Eric Wright (team leader in interceptions with seven, two for scores), WR Dwight Clark (team leader with 70 receptions and eight TDs), WR Freddie Solomon (club record 21.4 yards per catch), K Ray Wersching (team-record 126 points, including a perfect 51-of-51 PATs), offensive linemen C Randy Cross, T Keith Fahnhorst and G John Ayers, RB Roger Craig (752 yards rushing, 427 receiving), RB Wendell Tyler (856 rushing yards, 285 receiving) and NFL All-Rookie team pick LB Riki Ellison (two interceptions in the playoffs).

1984 - The 49ers experienced the most successful regular season in NFL history by winning a league record 15 games, including all eight road contests—setting yet another NFL standard. The Niners broke 14 team records in '84, while becoming the first NFC team to sweep all of its conference games, and the first NFC West unit to win all contests within the division. Led by RB Roger Craig and QB Joe Montana, San Francisco capped the year by routing the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XIX, 38-16. The win was the 18th victory of the '84 campaign, establishing an NFL standard for wins in a single season (including playoffs). San Francisco scored a then team-record 475 points. The 49ers defense was the stingiest in the NFL in '84, allowing a league-low 227 points scored. Honors were numerous, including Pro Bowl recognition for 10 of Bill Walsh's charges—Montana, RB Wendell Tyler, T Keith Fahnhorst, C Randy Cross and C Fred Quillan on offense and S Dwight Hicks, S Ronnie Lott, S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright (the entire Niners secondary), and LB Keena Turner on defense.

1985 - At 10-6, San Francisco qualified for postseason play for the fourth time since 1981. Offensively, RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice emerged as potent weapons in the attack. Craig became the first NFL player to surpass 1,000 yards rushing and receiving in the same season. Rice was named NFC ROOKIE OF THE YEAR and set the team record for first-year players with 927 receiving yards. The defense experienced the influx of four new starters in '85 (NT Michael Carter, LB Todd Shell, LB Michael Walter and DE John Harty). Carter won a berth on the Pro Bowl team, as did DBs Eric Wright and Carlton Williamson.

1986 - The 49ers captured their fourth NFC Western Division title since 1981.

Offensively, the team was led by All-Pro wide receiver WR Jerry Rice, who paced the NFL with 1,570 receiving yards and 15 touchdowns. Those marks established club standards in addition to Rice's team-record 16 total scores.

The defense managed 49 takeaways, tying the Kansas City Chiefs for NFL leadership. San Francisco's 39 interceptions and 578 return yards set team records, while five scores on interceptions returns tied another club mark. S Ronnie Lott tied HB Dave Baker's 1960 team record with 10 interceptions.

The output by young players was vital due to major injuries suffered by many starting veterans. San Francisco made 20 roster moves during the season, shuffling players in and out of action. QB Joe Montana missed Weeks 2-9 due to back surgery, while backup signal-caller Jeff Kemp did not play Weeks 8-11 due to a hip injury.

1987 - The San Francisco 49ers marched to an NFL regular season best 13-2 record. It marked a league-leading third time in the decade of the '80s that the team either tied or posted the best won-loss percentage during the regular season. San Francisco led the NFL with 5,987 total yards and was best among league defenders allowing 4,095 total yards. It was the first time in Niners history that the team led the league in fewest total yards allowed.

WR Jerry Rice set NFL records with 22 receiving touchdowns and scoring receptions in 13 consecutive games. The durable wide out received postseason Most Valuable Player awards from nearly every news agency and sports publication.

QB Joe Montana won the first NFL passing title of his nine-year career and set a team record with 31 touchdown passes. S Ronnie Lott, Montana and Rice were joined by NT Michael Carter and RB Roger Craig on the NFC squad in the 1988 Pro Bowl.

1988 - The 49ers climaxed their 1988 season in thrilling fashion with a dramatic touchdown drive in the waning seconds of Super Bowl XXIII. QB Joe Montana's 10-yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor with 34 seconds remaining in the contest gave the Niners their third Super Bowl win of the decade and the rights to the title "Team of the 1980s."

The world championship game against the Cincinnati Bengals was a microcosm of the entire '88 campaign. San Francisco opened the year strong with a 5-2 record, but by Week 12 were 6-5, two games out of first place with only five contests to play.

That week's victory over Washington launched a four-game winning streak that resulted in the Niners moving up from third to first place in the NFC West standings and earning a third consecutive NFC

Western Division title. As the season ended RB Roger Craig broke the team's single season rushing record (finishing with 1,502 yards) and K Mike Cofer established new Niners single-season standards for field goals attempted (38) and made (27).

WR Jerry Rice went on a playoff tear that included: an NFL postseason record-tying three touchdown receptions against Minnesota, the Montana-to-Rice battery hooked-up on first half touchdowns of 61 and 27 yards at Chicago, and concluded with a Super Bowl XXIII MVP performance of 11 receptions for a Super Bowl record 215 yards and a touchdown.

Defenders S Ronnie Lott, DE Charles Haley, NT Michael Carter, along with Rice, Taylor and Craig, were selected to the Pro Bowl.

1989 - George Seifert was named head coach of the San Francisco 49ers just four days after the team had won its third World Championship under retiring head man Bill Walsh. Seifert's quest for the title was tested early and often as the 49ers endured nail-biting wins at Indianapolis (30-24) and Tampa Bay (20-16) to open the season. QB Joe Montana threw for 428 yards and five touchdowns, including a team-record four TD tosses in the fourth quarter resulting in a 10-point victory (38-28) in Philadelphia.

Under first-year offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren, the Niners accumulated more yardage than any other NFL team. WRs Jerry Rice and John Taylor, RB Roger Craig, G Guy McIntyre and QB Joe Montana were 1990 Pro Bowl participants. Rice's 1,483 receiving yards paced the league. Craig exceeded 1,000 yards rushing for the second consecutive season and running mate FB Tom Rathman led NFC running backs with 73 receptions.

Montana had the best season of his career. A consensus PLAYER OF THE YEAR, Montana's 112.4 quarterback rating set a then NFL single-season record. Montana was selected by his teammates as the '89 recipient of the Len Eshmont Award.

Fueled by Rice's 72-yard first quarter catch-and-run for a score, the 49ers exploded for 27 first half points and cruised to a 41-13 victory against Minnesota in their opening '89 playoff contest.

The 49ers faced Los Angeles in the NFC Championship Game. The Niners started slowly, however. Two long, second-quarter scoring drives and a touchdown set up by an interception gave San Francisco a 21-3 lead at intermission. Cofer's three field goals cushioned San Francisco's lead as the team advanced to Super Bowl XXIV with a satisfying 30-3 win.

The 49ers displayed optimal performance at the highest level of competition while securing their second consecutive World Championship. The resounding 55-10 defeat of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXIV was a convergence of talent and technique, planning and purpose. San Francisco tied or set nearly 40 Super Bowl records and Montana was honored with the game's MVP award for an unprecedented third time.

1990 - The Niners finished the season with an NFL-best 14-2 mark and came within four seconds (in a 15-13 loss to the NY Giants) of earning their third consecutive trip to the Super Bowl.

In addition to recording the NFL's best won-loss mark for the second straight season, the 49ers captured the NFC Western Division title for the fifth consecutive year and the eighth time since 1981 ('81, 1983-84, 1986-90). San Francisco claimed its 11th Division crown since the NFL/AFL merger of 1970, more than any NFC Western Division opponent (the Rams were second with eight), and second most in NFL history (behind Miami's 13 AFC East titles).

San Francisco opened the 1990 season with a team-record 10 consecutive victories. The 49ers also posted an 8-0 mark on the road, giving them the longest road winning streak in league history (19 games, including postseason) heading into '91.

QB Joe Montana and WR Jerry Rice again formed one of the most prolific aerial combinations in pro football. Montana, who was named 1990 SPORTSMAN OF THE YEAR by Sports Illustrated, finished his 12th NFL season by throwing for a then team-record 3,944 yards. He also tossed 26 touchdown passes (second in the NFC) and finished as the third highest rated quarterback in the conference.

On the receiving end of many of those Montana passes was Rice, who became only the fourth player in league history to reach the century mark in receptions for a single season. Rice hauled in 100 passes for 1,502 yards and 13 TDs, and earned his fifth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. In one of the most memorable performances of the season (if not team history), Rice tied an NFL record with five TD receptions in a 45-35 victory at Atlanta, October 14.

The defensive side of the ball was led by LB-DE Charles Haley's 58 tackles and an NFC-high 16 sacks. For his efforts, the fourth-year player from James Madison University was named as a starter in the 1991 Pro Bowl. LB Bill Romanowski led the team in tackles with 79, while CB Darryl Pollard registered 74, including a team-high 72 solo stops.

A number of team career records fell by the wayside in '90. Montana slipped past QB John Brodie to take over the career passing lead (34,998 yards), while RB Roger Craig became the all-time team record holder in career receptions with 508, moving ahead of WR Dwight Clark's total of 506.

The 49ers placed five players on the 1991 NFC Pro Bowl squad, four as starters. Representing the 49ers were Haley, Rice, S Ronnie Lott and G Guy McIntyre, while Montana, selected as a starter, was unable to participate because of a finger injury suffered in the NFC Championship Game.

After losing six of their first 10 games by a total of 26 points, the Niners won their remaining six contests (by a total of 95 points) but missed the playoffs for the first time since 1982.

The 49ers finished the 1991 campaign in impressive fashion during that final six-game span, with a margin of victory that averaged almost 16 points. During that final six-game span, the Niners defeated three playoff teams (New Orleans, Kansas City and Chicago) while averaging 31.5 points per game in the process.

WR Jerry Rice continued to register his place in club and league history taking over the club's career receiving record with 525 catches.

Rice finished third in the NFC with 80 receptions and 1,206 yards, surpassing 1,000 receiving yards for a club-record sixth consecutive season, and he led the NFL with 14 TD receptions.

QB Steve Young won the NFL passing title, despite missing six games due to a knee injury. Young, who passed for 2,517 yards and 17 TDs, finished with a 101.8 rating, besting Washington's Mark Rypien (97.9) for the title.

When Young was injured at Atlanta November 3, QB Steve Bono (1,617 yards, 11 TDs) came off the bench to rally the team to five consecutive victories.

On the defensive side of the ball, S Dave Waymer finished as the leader in total tackles (86), solo tackles (77), interceptions (4), interception return yards (78) and passes defensed (16) and tied CB Kevin Lewis for the lead in forced fumbles (3).

LB-DE Charles Haley and DE Larry Roberts each posted seven sacks, while CB Don Griffin's 99-yard fumble return against the Bears set a team record and was the third longest return in league history.

San Francisco placed three players on the 1992 NFC Pro Bowl squad, two as starters, as Rice, Guy McIntyre and Haley were all selected (Rice and McIntyre as starters). It was the sixth time in Rice's seven-year career that he was selected to play in the islands. McIntyre and Haley were each selected for the third time.

1992 - The San Francisco 49ers continued their winning tradition as they once again posted the NFL's best regular season record (14-2), while winning their sixth NFC Western Division title in seven years, and advancing to the NFC Championship Game for the second time in three seasons.

In the NFC Divisional Playoffs, the 49ers defeated defending Super Bowl Champion Washington (20-13). However, San Francisco fell to Dallas, 30-20, in the NFC Championship Game at Candlestick Park the following week.

WR Jerry Rice continued to etch his name in football history, becoming the NFL's all-time touchdown reception leader with 103. He tied Steve Largent's mark of 100 in Week 13 against the Philadelphia Eagles (11-29), then broke the record the following week vs. the Miami Dolphins (12-6).

QB Steve Young, who harvested a total of 34 awards, including the NFL'S MOST VALUABLE PLAYER Award, won the NFL passing title for the second straight year, finishing an amazing 16.3 points ahead of his closest competitor. Young, who passed for 3,465 yards and 25 TDs, finished with a 107.0 rating. Following his 101.8 rating in 1991, it marked the first time in league history that anyone had posted back-to-back seasons with ratings higher than 100 each year.

RB Ricky Watters gained 1,013 yards to establish a team rushing record for first-year backs. K Mike Cofer's 107 points led the 49ers in scoring for the fifth consecutive year.

On the defensive side of the ball, linebacking led the charge as LB Bill Romanowski finished as the leader in total tackles (80) and assists (15). LB Mike Walter (67 solo stops) and LB Tim Harris (17 sacks for 116 yards) also led defensive categories. CB Don Griffin paced the defensive backfield with five interceptions and 19 passes defensed.

Fans at Candlestick saw the Niners rewrite part of the team's record book in '92 as they set team marks for total offense (598 yards) vs. the Buffalo Bills (Sept. 13) and points (56) in their win over the Atlanta Falcons (56-17, 10-18).

San Francisco placed seven players on the 1993 NFC Pro Bowl squad, including four starters and five first-time participants. Rice, G Guy McIntyre, DT Pierce Holt and Young were all named as starters. TE Brent Jones, Watters and T Steve Wallace were also selected. It was the seventh time in Rice's eight-year career that he was selected to play on the islands and McIntyre was named for the fourth time, while the others made their first visits.

1993 - The 1993 season was another in a long line of successes for the San Francisco 49ers. Among the team's accomplishments were: a 10-6 record, marking an NFL-record 11th consecutive season with 10 or more victories, the team's 10th NFC West title in 13 seasons and a third appearance in four years in the NFC title game.

In addition, San Francisco led the National Football League in scoring and total offense and established or tied five of the team's nine major offensive records.

The marks set included most net offensive yards (6,435), most TDs (61), most first downs (372) and highest average gain per play (6.3). The Niners also tied the team mark for net passing yards in a season with 4,302, equaling the record set in 1989.

Individually, QB Steve Young became the first player in NFL history to lead the NFL in passing three consecutive seasons, when he posted a 101.5 rating in 1993. In addition, it was his third consecutive season with a rating over 100, also a league first. Young completed 68 percent of his passes (second highest in team history) for a then club-record 4,023 yards. His 29 scoring passes in '93 ranked third on the team's single-season charts.

RB Ricky Watters led the ground game for the second consecutive season, narrowly missing the 1,000-yard mark with 950 yards. Watters posted 10 rushing TDs during the season and set an NFL single-game playoff record with a five-touchdown outburst vs. the New York Giants.

WR Jerry Rice posted one of his best seasons, recording 98 receptions for 1,503 yards and 15 touchdowns on his way to being named NFL OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR by Associated Press. He also received the team's Len Eshmont Award.

Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield was named the NFL DEFENSIVE ROOKIE OF THE YEAR, capping a season in which he registered 10.5 sacks. LB Bill Romanowski (105) and S Tim McDonald (91) topped the team in tackles.

Young, Rice and McDonald were selected to the Pro Bowl, joining T Harris Barton, G Guy McIntyre, TE Brent Jones and C Jesse Sapolu with that honor.

1994 - The 1994 San Francisco 49ers completed one of the most impressive seasons in NFL history by capturing their NFL-record fifth Super Bowl Championship at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami. San Francisco defeated the San Diego Chargers 49-26 in Super Bowl XXIX to put the finishing touches on a 16-3 season and win an unprecedented fifth Vince Lombardi Trophy.

The offseason started on a high note. Despite facing an NFL-imposed salary cap in 1994, the 49ers still managed to sign such veteran free agents as LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Gary Plummer, DE Tim Harris, DE Charles Mann, DE Richard Dent, LB Rickey Jackson, C Bart Oates, WR Ed McCaffrey and CB Toi Cook. Then, after some draft day maneuvering, San Francisco came away with two first-round picks in DT Bryant Young and FB William Floyd.

Injuries, however, played a key factor early in the campaign. By the end of the second game in Kansas City, the 49ers had lost most of their starting offensive line, as well as the services of Dent, their top pass-rusher, to various injuries.

Despite signing CB Deion Sanders prior to Week 3, the problems continued. Still playing with a decimated line, San Francisco suffered its worst loss in almost 14 years when it dropped a 40-8 decision to the Philadelphia Eagles in Week 5 at Candlestick Park.

The season turned around the following Sunday at Detroit when the 49ers, trailing 14-0 at one point, rallied to defeat the Lions 27-21. That win started a winning streak that extended 10 games and saw the 49ers finish 13-3 and win the Super Bowl.

Among the other highlights from the 1994 season, the 49ers offense was one of the most potent ever. During the 16-game regular season, the 49ers scored a team-record 505 points, a total that ranks as the fourth-highest total in NFL history. The 31.6 points per game average also established a team record. In addition, San Francisco scored 66 touchdowns, shattering the previous team mark of 61.

QB Steve Young recorded one of the finest seasons in NFL history. He set a league record with a QB rating of 112.8 and became the first player in NFL history to lead the league in passing four consecutive seasons. He also set team records for completion percentage (70.2) and touchdown passes (35). In Super Bowl XXIX, he passed for a record six touchdowns, while being named the game's MVP.

Rookie Floyd emerged as one of the league's brightest young stars, rushing for 305 yards and six TDs. The 49ers went 10-1 after he was named to the starting lineup in Week 6 at Detroit. Young finished third on the team in rushing with 293 yards and led the team with seven rushing touchdowns.

WR Jerry Rice set a team record with 112 receptions for 1,499 yards and 13 touchdowns. However, his shining moment came in Week 1 vs. the Los Angeles Raiders when he eclipsed Jim Brown's all-time touchdown mark with 127.

Norton Jr. led the 49ers with 92 total tackles and 79 solo stops. S Merton Hanks placed second with 79 tackles (66-13) while leading the team with seven interceptions. DT Dana Stubblefield's 8.5 sacks and 53.5 sack yards led the squad for the second consecutive season. And finally, Sanders, who joined the team in Week 3, shattered the team record with an NFL-high 303 interception return yards on six thefts. Among his three returns for touchdowns (tying a team mark) were efforts of 93, 90 and 74 yards. He was named the NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR as well as a starter in the Pro Bowl. Other Pro Bowl selections included Young, Rice, TE Brent Jones, Oates, G Jesse Sapolu, Hanks, Stubblefield, S Tim McDonald and RB Ricky Watters. CB Eric Davis had a team-leading 22 passes defensed during the regular season and four interceptions in the playoffs.

1995 - San Francisco once again captured the NFC West Championship, despite battling through a season in which injuries wreaked havoc time and again. Among the key contributors who were sidelined during the campaign were starting FB William Floyd, whose season ended with a severe knee injury in the October New Orleans game, and QB Steve Young, who missed five games with a shoulder injury.

Those injuries, in addition to several others in the offensive line throughout the season, would have crippled most teams; however, the 1995 49ers established a reputation as one of the grittiest in team history. The defensive unit created a new aggressive identity, finishing the season ranked number one in the NFL. Not only did it lead the league in scoring defense, it set team records for fewest rushing yards allowed (1,061) and fewest rushing yards per game (66.3).

San Francisco's defense also excelled in takeaways, forcing a total of 34, including a team-record seven (five interceptions, two fumbles) that resulted in touchdowns. Among the standout performers were Pro Bowl selections CB Eric Davis, FS Merton Hanks and SS Tim McDonald, marking the second consecutive season the 49ers secondary included three Pro Bowl picks. LB Ken Norton Jr. racked up 127 tackles and set a team single-game record by returning two interceptions for touchdowns at St. Louis. LB Lee Woodall and DT Dana Stubblefield rounded out the Niners Pro Bowl defensive players.

Offensively, WR Jerry Rice posted the finest of his legendary 11 seasons with the 49ers. He became the NFL's career leader with 942 receptions and 15,123 yards, while also establishing the league's single-season standard with 1,848 yards. He was named as a starter in the Pro Bowl for the 10th consecutive season.

Young, who returned to quarterback the team for the final four regular season games, was also selected to the Pro Bowl, as was TE Brent Jones, who made the squad as an alternate.

One of the highlights of the season was the emergence of QB Elvis Grbac. Playing in place of the injured Young, he directed the Niners to three of their biggest wins of the season at St. Louis, at eventual world champion Dallas and at Miami.

Floyd was the recipient of the team's Len Eshmont Award.

1996 - One streak continued and another ended for San Francisco in 1996. With a 12-4 record, the 49ers reached double digits in the win column for the 14th consecutive season, the longest streak in the NFL. However, the upstart Carolina Panthers unseated the Niners as NFC West Champions, ending their four-year reign. San Francisco remained one of the league's most dangerous teams with an aggressive defense and a productive offense.

Despite losing QB Steve Young for four full games and parts of four others with various injuries, the 49ers offense ranked second in the NFC with 398 points and sixth in the NFL in total offense. WR Jerry Rice became the first player in NFL history to record four 100-catch seasons after making a league-high 108 receptions for 1,254 yards. The 12-year veteran earned his NFL record-tying 11th Pro Bowl invitation and was a first-team All-Pro selection. Young won his fifth NFL passing title with a QB rating of 97.2 and was named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth consecutive season.

Defensively, the 49ers had the league's most imposing pass rushing trio in DE Roy Barker, DT Bryant Young and DE Chris Doleman. Barker finished fourth in the NFC with 12.5 sacks, while Doleman's 11 sacks moved him into seventh on the NFL's career list with 115.5. Young was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl team and earned first-team All-Pro honors after posting 11.5 sacks and 85 tackles. He also claimed the 49ers Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational and courageous player. The third-year veteran was joined on the Pro Bowl team by FS Merton Hanks, who was invited for the third consecutive season.

As usual, Rice's assault on the record books continued. He became the first player in NFL history to register 1,000 career receptions and 16,000 receiving yards. Rice also surpassed K Ray Wersching as the team's all-time leading scorer with 982 points.

1997 - Although they appeared vulnerable after first week injuries to QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice, the San Francisco 49ers rallied under the direction of rookie head coach Steve Mariucci, reclaimed the NFC West title and advanced to the NFC Championship Game. The 49ers finished with a 13-3 mark, including an 11-game winning streak, despite losing Rice for all but two games. They did it behind a new-found running attack and the league's top-ranked defense.

Mariucci became one of 13 head coaches since the NFL-AFL merger in 1970 to lead his team to a division title in his rookie season, and he was the fourth to do it directly out of the college ranks. The former University of California skipper established an NFL record for consecutive wins by a rookie head coach with an 11-game streak (games 2-12). The 49ers claimed their 13th NFC West title in 17 years and posted 10-or-more wins for the 15th consecutive season.

Young suffered a concussion against Tampa Bay on opening day, but remained healthy throughout the season and claimed his NFL record-tying (Sammy Baugh) sixth league passing title with a rating of 104.7. The 13-year veteran showed consistency while getting adjusted to a new coach, new running back and two young receivers. The 49ers made a commitment to a power rushing attack by signing G Kevin Gogan during the offseason. The additional size up front allowed the 49ers to finish fourth in the NFC in rushing yards. RB Garrison Hearst (1,019 yards) became the first 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards since 1992. With Rice out, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes became the primary receiving targets. Owens led the team with 63 receptions for 936 yards and eight touchdowns, while Stokes posted 58 receptions for 733 yards and four touchdowns. Rice returned for one game against Denver (12-15) and helped the 49ers clinch home field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 34-17 win. Rice became the first non-kicker in league history to reach 1,000 points with a 14-yard touchdown catch in the second quarter of the Broncos contest.

The 49ers defense led the league in total yards allowed (250.8), finished second in takeaways (41) and was tied for third in sacks (54). They helped carry the burden as the offense adjusted to new personnel. For the second consecutive season, the 49ers had three players reach double figures in sacks. DT Dana Stubblefield (15.0), DE Chris Doleman (12.0) and LB Kevin Greene (10.5) led the sack attack. Stubblefield finished second in the league in sacks and was named NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR by Associated Press and earned the Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational player. Of the seven 49ers named to the Pro Bowl, five were from the defense. Stubblefield was joined by Doleman, FS Merton Hanks, LB Lee Woodall and LB Ken Norton Jr. Gogan and Young were San Francisco's offensive selections.

1998 - Led by one of the most productive offenses in team and league history, San Francisco posted its 16th consecutive winning season and remained one of the NFL's elite teams. Behind the strong arm of QB Steve Young, the powerful legs of RB Garrison Hearst and the triple-threat receiving corps of WR Jerry Rice, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes, the 49ers rolled to a 12-4 regular season mark and an appearance in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game.

Young opened the season in sizzling fashion. The 14-year veteran established an NFL record by throwing for over 300 yards in six consecutive games, breaking the previous record of five held by former 49ers QB Joe Montana. Young finished the season completing 322-of-517 (62.3) passes for 4,170 yards and 36 touchdowns. His final passing rating of 101.1 marked the seventh consecutive season he has surpassed the 100-point barrier and earned him his seventh consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl.

The 49ers offensive line, led by Pro Bowl G Kevin Gogan, paved the way for Hearst's record-setting season. Hearst, and his team-record and career-high 1,570 yards rushing, were a major reason the 49ers led the NFL in rushing. His 198-yard performance against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football also set a then team-record and was a personal-best. His four plays of 70 yards or more led the league and helped earn him his first career Pro Bowl selection.

The 49ers receiving corps was in the capable hands of Rice, Owens and Stokes. Rice, returning from a serious knee injury in 1997, earned his 12th career Pro Bowl nomination and finished with a team-high 82 receptions for 1,157 yards and nine touchdowns. The athletic Owens asserted himself among the league's best receivers and brightest young stars by catching 67 passes for 1,097 yards and 14 touchdowns. Stokes caught a career-best 63 passes for 770 yards and eight touchdowns.

The 49ers defense was paced by the inspiring play of DT Bryant Young. Young was having an exceptional season with 54 tackles and 9.5 sacks before suffering a season-ending leg injury against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football. Young was still named Eshmont Award winner although missing the final four regular season games. LB Winfred Tubbs, in his first season with the 49ers, earned his first career Pro Bowl nomination after finishing with 112 tackles. CB Darnell Walker, FS Merton Hanks, S Zack Bronson and S Tim McDonald led the team with four interceptions each.

1999 - San Francisco had a streak of 16 consecutive winning seasons snapped, after finishing the 1999 season with a 4-12 record. A season-ending injury to QB Steve Young in Week 3 sent the 49ers into a tailspin from which they did not recover.

Replacing Young proved to be quite a task for QBs Jeff Garcia and Steve Stenstrom. Garcia received the first try at the job and responded admirably, posting a 24-22 victory, with a QB rating of 106.0, over the Tennessee Titans in his first NFL start. Garcia would start the next four games, but was replaced by Stenstrom in Week 10 at New Orleans. With Stenstrom struggling in starts against the Saints, Rams and Packers, the 49ers coaching staff returned Garcia to the starting lineup for a December 5 game at Cincinnati. And what a return it was. Garcia threw for a career-high 437 yards against the Bengals, including throwing two touchdown passes to WR Jerry Rice. The game proved to be an impetus for Garcia, who over the final five games of the season completed 121-of-182 passes for 1,441 yards, eight touchdowns and three interceptions for a quarterback rating of 98.3. During that stint, Garcia completed 66.5 percent of his passes and was sacked just three times for 25 yards.

San Francisco also was faced with the task of replacing 1998 Pro Bowl RB Garrison Hearst and his team-record 1,570 yards rushing. A key off-season acquisition of RB Charlie Garner proved more than an adequate replacement. Garner rushed for a career-high 1,229 yards, caught a career-high 56 passes for 535 yards and finished third in the NFL with 1,764 total yards. The San Francisco running attack also was given a boost by second-year FB Fred Beasley's 276 yards rushing and 282 yards receiving, both marks were career-high's. Overall the 49ers led the NFL with 2,095 yards on the ground, becoming the first team to lead the league for consecutive seasons since Buffalo did it in 1991-92. The 49ers also led the league with a per rush average of 5.0.

The San Francisco receiving corps was once again paced by Rice. He finished the year with 67 receptions for 830 yards and five touchdowns. Certainly not the kind of numbers that Rice is accustomed to, but over the final five games of the season, Rice caught 24 passes for 420 yards (17.5) and three touchdowns. In that span he posted two 100-yard games, including a six-reception, 143-yard effort at Atlanta (1-3) in the season finale. WR Terrell Owens added 60 receptions for 754 yards and four touchdowns while J.J. Stokes totaled 34 grabs for 429 yards and two touchdowns, including a five-reception, 130-yard performance at Atlanta (1-3) in the season finale.

The 49ers defense struggled for much of the season, but was highlighted by several individual performances. DT Bryant Young was named the Associated Press COMEBACK PLAYER OF THE YEAR and earned a Pro Bowl selection. After overcoming a devastating leg fracture that ended his 1998 season and left his future clouded in doubt, Young answered all questions by earning a Pro Bowl nomination with his 11.0 sacks on the season. S Lance Schulters, in his first season as a starter, responded by finishing second in the NFC with six interceptions, including a game-winning 64-yard return against New Orleans (9-19) in the second week of the season. Schulters was named as the starting free safety for the NFC squad in the 2000 Pro Bowl.

2000 - San Francisco opened its sixth decade in the NFL under new leadership. The transfer of ownership from Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. to his sister Denise DeBartolo York was approved by the NFL May 23, 2000. DeBartolo, Jr. ended his tenure after guiding the 49ers to five Super Bowl Championships and 16 postseason appearances.

A young San Francisco team, which at one point started five rookies on defense, showed marked improvement throughout the season, winning four of the last six games, to finish 6-10. The offense again was one of the best in the league, which led to three starters being named to their first Pro Bowl - QB Jeff Garcia, RB Charlie Garner and WR Terrell Owens.

Garcia, who was in his first season as the full-time starter, set the pace for the offense all season long. He set career-highs in every category, completing 355-of-561 passes for a team-record 4,278 yards, with 31 touchdowns and only 10 interceptions. He finished the year ranked fifth in the NFL with a 97.6 quarterback rating. Garcia started all 16 games and had six 300-yard passing games, including a 402-yard effort against Chicago in December, which was his third straight 300-yard passing performance and his sixth of the season. His productivity not only led to his first Pro Bowl appearance, but Football Digest also named him the NFL'S MOST IMPROVED PLAYER.

WR Terrell Owens was one of the many benefactors of Garcia's success. Owens posted his second career 1,000-yard season, catching a career-high 97 passes for 1,451 yards, which ranked him fourth in the NFL. Owens, who only played in 14 games during the season, also had five 100-yard games and scored a team-high 13 touchdowns. Owens had his best performance of his career against Chicago in December, breaking a 50-year old NFL record with 20 receptions for 283 yards and one touchdown. Owens broke Tom Fears' NFL record of 18 receptions in a game, which he set back in 1950 with the Rams.

The 49ers backfield was again in the capable hands of Garner and FB Fred Beasley. Garner earned his first Pro Bowl appearance and became the fourth 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons. Garner, behind the stellar play of the 49ers offensive line, ran for 1,142 yards on 258 carries and seven touchdowns. Also a receiving threat, Garner set career-highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns. In addition, he established a team record with 201 yards rushing vs. Dallas. Beasley also had a solid year, rushing for 147 yards on 50 carries and three touchdowns, while catching 31 passes for 233 yards and three touchdowns.

The 49ers defense was young, but got better over the last half of the season. The defense was again paced by the efforts of DT Bryant Young, who posted 51 tackles and led the team in sacks with 9.5. LB Ken Norton Jr. was one of only three players to start all 16 games, extending his consecutive games streak to 160. The 49ers defense started five rookies in the final game at Denver and had seven different rookies start throughout the 2000 campaign. Rookies CB Ahmed Plummer, DE John Engelberger and CB Jason Webster all started at least 10 games. Six rookies—Plummer, Webster, Engelberger, LB Julian Peterson, DT Cedric Killings and S Ronnie Heard—participated in more than 20-percent of the total 1,096 plays.

2001 - The San Francisco 49ers made their return to the playoffs after a two-year absence, as the young and improving team posted a 12-4 record. The year marked the return of RB Garrison Hearst, who came back from a devastating ankle injury that kept him out of football for two seasons. Hearst rushed for 1,206 yards, was named Associated Press COMEBACK PLAYER OF THE YEAR and also earned his second career Pro Bowl nomination. In total, the 49ers had six players travel to the islands for the annual all-star game. In addition to Hearst on offense, QB Jeff Garcia and WR Terrell Owens made their second straight appearances, C Jeremy Newberry played in his first Pro Bowl, G Ray Brown made the first Pro Bowl appearance in his 16-year career, and on defense DT Bryant Young made his third Pro Bowl appearance, anchoring the 49ers defense that improved from ranking 29th in 2000 to 13th in 2001.

The offense was again in the capable hands of Garcia. The Gilroy native proved that 2000 wasn't a fluke. He completed 316 of 504 passes for 3,538 yards. The third-year veteran also threw 32 touchdowns, becoming the first 49ers quarterback to throw for 30 or more touchdowns in consecutive seasons. Owens was one of Garcia's favorite targets, especially when it came to the endzone. Owens caught 93 balls for 1,412 yards and a career-high and NFL leading 16 touchdowns. While Hearst was the big story, the offensive line, which returned all five starters from the 2000 season, proved to be vital to the team's success. For the fifth consecutive season, San Francisco produced a 1,000-yard rusher, which set a new team record.

The defense was still young, but improved as the season progressed. The defensive line added two new starters to the mix, although one of them was not so new. DT Dana Stubblefield returned to the 49ers after spending three seasons with Washington and rookie DE Andre Carter made an impression, especially in the last four weeks of the season when he was named NFC ROOKIE OF THE MONTH. Carter led the team in sacks with 6.5, adding 4.5 of those in the last five games. The unit as a whole improved over the last half of the season, posting a team-record three shutouts in the last month of the campaign. Another big addition was LB Derek Smith, who came over from the Redskins as well. Smith brought with him four consecutive seasons of 100 tackles or more. Smith kept that streak alive as he led the defense with 126 total tackles. Also helping the defense with its improvement was S Zack Bronson and CB Ahmed Plummer. Both players recorded career-highs with seven interceptions each. Bronson also returned two for touchdowns, including a career-high and team record 97-yard return at Chicago.

2002 - The San Francisco 49ers entered 2002 with hopes of advancing past the first round of the NFC playoffs. The team accomplished the mission finishing the season with 10 wins and advancing to the NFC Divisional Playoffs in grand fashion with the second largest playoff comeback in NFL history. The 49ers finished the season with a 5-1 division record and won their first division title since 1997.

The team's success came from its ability to minimize turnovers, along with a strong running game. The 49ers gained 2,244 yards on the ground for the second consecutive season and RB Garrison Hearst established a career-high with eight rushing touchdowns. Helping Hearst were Pro Bowlers G Ron Stone and C Jeremy Newberry, who anchored an offensive line that was third in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed. San Francisco had the least amount of turnovers in the NFC with 17.

In his third season as director of the 49ers offense, QB Jeff Garcia earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl berth. He completed 62 percent of his passes and tied a team record by directing five fourth-quarter comebacks.

WR Terrell Owens continued his dominance with a career-high 100 receptions and led the NFL with 13 receiving touchdowns. Owens surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the third consecutive season and earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl bid.

Defensively, LB Julian Peterson had a breakout season with a career-high 104 tackles. He shut down several of the league's top tight ends and made history by playing four positions in a single game against Dallas (12-8). His effort earned him his first career Pro Bowl appearance.

DT Bryant Young added an interior presence with his fourth career Pro Bowl nomination and S Tony Parrish proved to be an invaluable pickup with a career-high seven interceptions. He won the Len Eshmont and the Ed Block Courage Award, both firsts for a player in his inaugural season.

2003 - Head Coach Steve Mariucci is released from the final year of his contract on January 15, 2003. The 49ers conducted an extensive search for Mariucci's successor and in the end hired Dennis Erickson. Erickson was introduced as the 14th head coach in 49ers team history on February 12, 2003.

The Erickson era started with a 7-9 record for the 49ers in 2003. The team struggled on the road, winning only one game, but was impressive at home, scoring more than 45 points in two separate home games.

The team was represented in the Pro Bowl, the 23rd consecutive year the 49ers had at least one team representative in the islands. In 2003, WR Terrell Owens made his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, LB Julian Peterson made his second consecutive trip and FB Fred Beasley made his first career appearance in Hawaii.

On offense, QB Jeff Garcia missed three games due to injury, but threw for 2,704 yards and 18 touchdowns. In his place, QB Tim Rattay responded admirably, throwing for 856 yards and seven touchdowns while posting a 2-1 record in those three games. RB Kevan Barlow recorded his first career 1,000-yard rushing season after becoming the main tailback after RB Garrison Hearst went down with a knee injury and missed the final four games. Owens recorded his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard season, amassing 1,102 yards despite missing the final game of the year.

The 49ers defense finished the year ranked 13th overall in the NFL and ninth against the run. The unit was led by Pro Bowler Peterson, who led the team in sacks with seven, and S Tony Parrish, who tied for the league lead with nine interceptions. The group as a whole recorded 42 sacks on the year, the highest total since 1998, which was good for second in the NFC and tied for fourth in the NFL. In addition, the 49ers defensive unit allowed only 268 yards per game, the lowest total since 1997. San Francisco also caused turnovers as evidence by its 13 fumble recoveries, its highest total since 1997.

2004 - The San Francisco 49ers continued to build depth with a young squad of versatile and talented athletes in 2004. Despite a 2-14 overall record, the group was able to gain significant experience while individuals on both sides of the ball notched career milestones over the 16-game span. The 49ers also swept NFC West rival Arizona in two thrilling overtime battles in the confines of both Monster Park and on the road in Sun Devil Stadium.

The team was also represented in the Pro Bowl for the 24th consecutive year as LS/TE Brian Jennings made his first trip to the Pro Bowl. Jennings was chosen to serve as a "need" player in Hawaii by the NFC coaching staff.

On offense, TE Eric Johnson returned to the lineup after missing 2003 with a broken collarbone and paced the team with 82 receptions for 825 yards and two touchdowns. His performance was the best-ever by a 49ers' tight end. WR Brandon Lloyd led the scoring attack with six touchdown receptions while RB Kevan Barlow steadied the ground game with 244 carries for 822 yards and seven touchdowns. Under center, QB Tim Rattay battled shoulder, forearm and foot injuries to play in nine games, including a career-best 417-yard performance in the 49ers first of two bouts against Arizona. Rattay rallied the offense from a 16-point fourth-quarter deficit to win 31-28 in overtime. In the process, he completed a team-record 38 passes en route to his first 400-yard game.

DT Bryant Young's 11 years of NFL experience served as the veteran voice behind the defensive unit. Young led the line with 79 tackles and three sacks and enjoyed a career game against Chicago after notching 10 tackles and two sacks, his 17th career multi-sack game. For his efforts, Young was presented the team's Len Eshmont and Bill Walsh Awards. It was an unprecedented fifth Len Eshmont award win for Young. DE John Engelberger responded with a career year, with a career-high 64 tackles. He led team with 6.0 sacks. Also a steady rock on defense was SS Tony Parrish, who started all 16 games to give him 112 consecutive career starts, the third-longest active streak at his position. LB Derek Smith also chipped in at the linebacker post, reaching the 100-tackle plateau for the eighth straight year. Smith and fellow LB Jeff Ulbrich led the team with 167 tackles. After a season-ending Achilles injury to LB Julian Peterson, LB Jamie Winborn stepped up with 104 tackles, 4.5 sacks and three forced fumbles.

The 49ers also saw much promise from a handful of young participants. Second-year T Kwame Harris played in 14 contests and did not allow a sack in the last five games after returning to the starting lineup on the left side. Also gaining experience on the line was rookie G Justin Smiley who played in all 16 games with nine starts. On the opposite side of the ball, rookie RCB Shawntae Spencer finished third in the league with 12 starts as a rookie. He also led the defensive unit with 12 passes defensed. Second-year DT Anthony Adams continued to flourish in his role, registering a career-high nine stops against Washington.

The special teams unit remained staunch, led by the efforts of rookie P Andy Lee. Lee finished the season with a 41.6-yard average, the highest since P Reggie Roby during the 1998 campaign. He led all rookies in the NFC in gross average and boomed an 81-yard punt against Tampa Bay (11-21-04) which was the longest of 2004 and the fourth-longest in team history. Another rookie, S Keith Lewis, also made his presence felt as he became the first player in 49er history to block a punt, force a fumble and recover a fumble in the same season. Lewis was able to accomplish this trifecta on only special teams plays.

49ERS IN THE HALL OF FAME

Leo Nomellini

1969-DT Leo Nomellini (1950-63). Was the first ever draft choice after the 49ers joined the NFL. Played every 49ers game for 14 seasons. Altogether he played in 174 consecutive regular season games, including 10 trips to the Pro Bowl, and played in 266 contests. "The Lion" became one of the few to be named to an All-NFL team on both offense and defense. Retired at age 39. Played college ball at the University of Minnesota. Born June 19, 1924 in Lucca, Italy.

Joe Perry

1969-FB Joe Perry (1948-60, 63). First player in NFL history to gain 1,000 yards two consecutive seasons. His 9,723 rushing yards placed him second only to Jim Brown when he retired. Finished career with 12,505 combined yards. Nicknamed "The Jet" because of his quick starts. Also played for the Baltimore Colts (1961-62). Attended Compton Junior College. Born January 22, 1927 in Stevens, AR.

Hugh McElhenny

1970-HB Hugh McElhenny (1952-60). One of only three players to gain over 11,000 yards carrying the ball. Scored 60 career touchdowns, 38 rushing, including a 42-yard touchdown run on his first pro play in preseason. In 1952 McElhenny had the longest punt return (94) and longest play from scrimmage (89). Scored two touchdowns in first Pro Bowl after his rookie year. Also played for Minnesota Vikings (1961-62), New York Giants (1963) and Detroit Lions (1964). Played college football at University of Washington. Born December 31, 1928 in Los Angeles, CA.

Y. A. Tittle

1971-QB Y.A. Tittle (1951-60). Had 17 years of NFL experience, finishing his career with 33,070 passing yards and 281 touchdowns (39 rushing). Won NFL Most Valuable Player Award in 1961 and '63. Threw 33 touchdown passes and a career-high 3,224 yards in 1962. In '63 he threw 36 touchdowns, completing 60.2 percent of his passes. Also played for the Baltimore Colts (1948-50) and the New York Giants (1961-64). Played college ball at Lousiana State University. Born October 24, 1926 in Marshall, TX.

Bob St. Clair

1987-FB John Henry Johnson (1954-56). Was a member of what's been noted as the finest backfield in NFL history. The foursome known as "The Million Dollar Backfield" and "The Fabulous Foursome" included three other Hall of Famers—QB Y.A. Tittle and RBs Joe Perry and Hugh McElhenny. Gained 6,803 yards rushing, including 48 touchdowns. Also played for the Detroit Lions (1957-59), Pittsburgh Steelers (1960-65) and Houston Oilers (1966). Attended St. Mary's College and Arizona State University. Born November 24, 1929 in Waterproof, LA.

1990-T Bob St. Clair (1953-63). Exceptional offensive lineman. Also played goal line defense and blocked 10 field goals in 1956. Once lost five teeth when blocking a punt. Earned All-NFL honors three times and made five Pro Bowl appearances. Attended University of San Francisco and Tulsa. Born February 18, 1931 in San Francisco, CA.

Bill Walsh

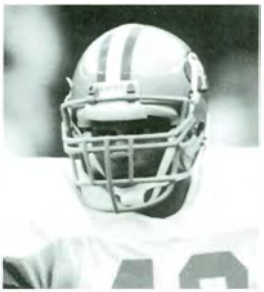
Jimmy Johnson

1994-CB Jimmy Johnson (1961-76). Starter on both offense and defense at UCLA. Began 49ers career as a defensive back, moved to offense, then stayed at DB in his third season. Intercepted 47 passes for 615 yards, including five his rookie year. As a receiver in 1962 he caught 34 passes for 627 yards and four touchdowns. Recognized as one of the best man-to-man defenders in NFL history. Played in five Pro Bowls and twice won the prestigious Len Eshmont Award selected by his teammates for inspirational play. Born March 31, 1938 in Dallas, TX.

Joe Montana

2000-QB Joe Montana (1979-94). Solidified his place in professional sports annals with numerous NFL records and a legendary reputation as a leader. Finished his career with 40,551 yards passing and 273 touchdowns. Ranks second all-time with a 92.3 career passer rating and 62.3 completion percentage. Led the league in passing in 1987 and 1989. Won back-to-back NFL MVP awards in 1989 and 1990. Named the Sports Illustrated Sportsman-of-the-Year in 1990. Named Super Bowl MVP an unprecedented three times. Directed his team to the playoffs 12 times and boasts a 95.3 passer rating in 23 postseason games. Holds NFL postseason records in completions (460), attempts (734), yards gained (5,772), touchdowns (45) and 300-yard passing games (6). Born June 11, 1956 in New Eagle, PA.



Ronnie Lott

2000-DB Ronnie Lott (1981-94). Known as one of the most ferocious and feared players in NFL history. Played in 10 Pro Bowls and won four Super Bowl Championships. Earned All-Pro honors at three different positions: cornerback, free safety and strong safety. Registered 1,161 career tackles, including five seasons with at least 100 tackles. Ranks fifth in NFL history with 63 interceptions. Led the league in interceptions in 1986 and 1991 and returned five interceptions for touchdowns. Holds the NFL record for postseason interceptions with nine. Named to the 75th Anniversary All-Time team, 1980's All-Decade team and Super Bowl Silver Anniversary team as a cornerback. Born May 8, 1959 in Albuquerque, NM.

Dave Wilcox

2000-LB Dave Wilcox (1964-74). Nicknamed "The Intimidator" by coaches and teammates for his tough, hard-nosed playing style. Considered to be one of the finest outside linebackers to ever play the game. Earned seven Pro Bowl nominations and was a seven-time All-Pro selection. Was selected by his teammates as the Len Eshmont Award winner as the team's most inspirational and courageous player in 1967. Had his best season as a professional in 1973, recording 104 tackles, 13 for loss, two interceptions, four forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Recovered 12 career fumbles for 48 yards and one touchdown. Born September 29, 1942 in Eugene, OR.

SAN FRANCISCO'S WINNING TRADITION

For two decades (1980-99), the San Francisco 49ers established themselves as the NFL's most dominant franchise. The 49ers won more Super Bowls, posted more winning seasons, claimed more divisional titles and made more playoff appearances than any team in the league over that 20-year stretch.

Since the DeBartolo Corporation purchased the team in 1977, the 49ers made one of the most dramatic turnarounds in sports history, rebounding from back-to-back 2-14 seasons in 1978-79 to Super Bowl Champions in 1981. The 49ers unparalleled success continued into the '90s, winning their fifth Super Bowl in 1994, becoming the first team in NFL history to win five Super Bowl titles.

OVERTIME GAMES

October 31, 1976 - St. Louis 23, San Francisco 20

In the fourth quarter, St. Louis held a 14-13 lead after San Francisco missed an extra point on its previous scoring drive. San Francisco then took the lead 20-14 in the fourth when Delvin Williams scored his third touchdown of the day. With eight minutes left in the game, Cardinals quarterback Jim Hart connected with Mel Gray on a 77-yard touchdown pass for the 20-20 tie. The extra point was blocked and the two teams went into overtime. St. Louis won the overtime coin toss but was forced to punt. Tony Leonard fumbled the kick at the 43-yard line, which was recovered by the Cardinals. St. Louis then marched down field to set up Jim Bakken for the 21-yard field goal to lift the Cardinals to a 23-20 victory.

December 5, 1976 - San Diego 13, San Francisco 7

In a battle of Northern and Southern California, the San Francisco 49ers and San Diego Chargers played to a scoreless tie in the first half. The defensive struggle continued into the second half and the score remained 0-0 at the end of the third quarter. On San Diego's first possession of the fourth quarter, Dan Fouts guided them on a 16-play, 80-yard scoring drive, capped by a Bo Matthews two-yard touchdown run. San Francisco answered on its next possession with a 64-yard scoring drive. Paul Hofer caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Scott Bull to make the score 7-6. The extra point was blocked, but the Chargers Tom Graham was flagged for offsides. After the penalty was marked off, Steve Mike-Mayer connected to tie the game at seven with just over a minute left in regulation. San Diego won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. The Chargers began their first possession on their own seven-yard line where Fouts promptly guided them on a nine-play, 93-yard drive, which was capped by a Mercury Morris 13-yard touchdown run for the 13-7 win.

November 13, 1977 - San Francisco 10, New Orleans 7

The 49ers got their first ever overtime victory at New Orleans. The Saints got on the board early in the first quarter on an eight-yard run by Tony Galbreath. The Saints appeared to grab a commanding lead at the end of the first half when Richard Mauti returned a Tom Wittum punt 65 yards for a touchdown 10 seconds before halftime. But a New Orleans clipping penalty nullified the score. The 49ers tied it up in the third quarter with a five-yard romp by Delvin Williams. Neither team would score again in regulation and the game went to overtime knotted at seven. The Saints won the overtime coin toss, but were unable to move the ball, giving it back to the 49ers. San Francisco started from its own 41-yard line and moved the ball down to the Saints 16, where Ray Wersching connected on a 33-yard game-winning field goal.

September 14, 1980 - San Francisco 24, St. Louis 21

San Francisco struck first on a 19-yard touchdown pass from Steve DeBerg to Paul Hofer in the second quarter. Cardinals quarterback Jim Hart quickly answered back with a 13-yard touchdown strike to Theotis Brown. The Cardinals pushed the lead to 14-7 with a Doug Marsh five-yard touchdown reception. After the 49ers tied the game at 14, St. Louis drove 75 yards in eight plays to take a 21-14 lead. With 1:51 left in regulation, the 49ers drove 80 yards and scored on a 26-yard touchdown run by Hofer, his second of the day. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and took the ball 52 yards to the 16-yard line, where Ray Wersching kicked a 33-yard field goal for the 24-21 win.

December 7, 1980 - San Francisco 38, New Orleans 35

New Orleans jumped out to a 35-7 halftime lead behind touchdown passes of 33, 21 and 41 yards from Archie Manning. Less than five minutes into the third quarter, the 49ers went on an 88-yard, nine-play drive that culminated with a one-yard touchdown run by Joe Montana. Minutes later, Montana hooked up with Dwight Clark for a 71-yard touchdown pass to bring the 49ers within 14 points. After the San Francisco defense shut out New Orleans for the second straight quarter, they tied the game with 1:50 left in the fourth quarter with Lenvil Elliott's seven-yard touchdown jaunt, forcing overtime. New Orleans won the coin toss, but failed to pick up a first down on its first possession. San Francisco took the ball on its own 27 and marched 55 yards in 13 plays for the game-winning 36-yard field goal by Ray Wersching.

October 12, 1986 - Minnesota 27, San Francisco 24

With Joe Montana out, Jeff Kemp stepped in to lead San Francisco against a powerful Minnesota Vikings team. Minnesota struck first with a six-yard touchdown pass from Tommy Kramer to Anthony Carter. The 49ers answered back when Kemp hit Dwight Clark with a 45-yard strike to tie the game. With 1:14 left in the first quarter, the Vikings Issiac Holt recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for a 14-7 lead. San Francisco took a 17-14 lead into halftime after a 39-yard Ray Wersching field goal and a 34-yard touchdown pass from Kemp to Jerry Rice. After the Vikings stalled on their first drive of the third quarter, Kemp led the 49ers on a six-play, 53-yard drive that ended with a 17-yard touchdown reception by Rice. Minnesota answered back with a 26-yard field goal by Chuck Nelson in the third quarter to cut the 49ers lead to 24-17. With 6:37 remaining in the fourth quarter, Kramer hit Anthony Carter with a 35-yard touchdown pass to tie the game. In overtime, Minnesota won the toss and elected to receive. They promptly went on a 58-yard drive and Nelson hit a 28-yard field goal for the 27-24 win.

October 19, 1986 - Atlanta 10, San Francisco 10

San Francisco visited Atlanta for a battle with the division rival Falcons and took an early 7-0 lead on a Roger Craig one-yard romp. The Falcons responded with a punishing 17-play, 44-yard drive that resulted in a 47-yard field goal by Mick Luckhurst. San Francisco maintained its lead in the second quarter with a 53-yard, 13-play drive, which led to a 24-yard Ray Wersching field goal and a 10-3 lead. The defenses dominated the second half, holding the offenses scoreless for all of the third quarter and most of the fourth. With just over a minute remaining in regulation, the Falcons took advantage of great field position and scored on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Dave Archer to Sylvester Stamps to tie the game at 10. The Falcons won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. After generating only one first down, the Falcons were forced to give up possession. The 49ers mirrored the Falcons on their first possession of overtime and punted with 6:42 remaining. Both teams had possession two more times in overtime, but could not produce a score as the game ended in a 10-10 tie.

October 9, 1988 - Denver 16, San Francisco 13

Two of the best teams in the NFL faced off in an inter conference battle as the Denver Broncos visited Candlestick Park. The 49ers started the scoring with a 37-yard Mike Cofer field goal with 4:52 remaining in the first quarter. The Broncos answered early in the second with a 27-yard field goal by Rich Karlis to knot the game at three. With San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Joe Montana opened up the offense and led the 49ers 95 yards and capped it off with a six-yard quarterback sneak for a 10-3 lead at halftime. The only scoring in the third quarter came on Karlis' 27-yard field goal with five minutes remaining, cutting the 49ers lead to 10-6. Cofer quickly answered with a 27-yard field goal with one minute on the clock in the third quarter for the 13-6 lead. After an injury, John Elway returned to hit Vance Johnson with an eight-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 13 with 6:23 remaining. Neither team could score in the final minutes of regulation and headed into overtime. On San Francisco's first possession, Andre Townsend sacked Montana, injuring his ribs. Steve Young took over, and on his first play threw an interception to Mark Haynes ending the threat. After a five-and-out drive by the Broncos, the 49ers took over on their own five-yard line. A second Young interception, deep in Broncos territory, helped set the stage for Karlis to connect on a 22-yard game-winning field goal.

December 9, 1990 - San Francisco 20, Cincinnati 17

A capacity crowd filled Riverfront Stadium as the San Francisco 49ers invaded Cincinnati for a late-season battle. On the Bengals first possession, Boomer Esiason drove his team 70 yards for the game's opening score, a two-yard touchdown pass to Craig Taylor. San Francisco answered back on its next possession when Tom Rathman capped off a 73-yard drive with a one-yard plunge into the end zone for the 7-7 tie. Cincinnati came out strong in the second half. The Bengals scored on a Jim Breech field goal to open the third and break the tie. San Francisco enjoyed its first lead of the game after Harry Sydney scored on a three-yard run. With just over two minutes elapsed in the fourth quarter, Ickey Woods dove in from one yard out to regain the lead for Cincinnati, 17-14. The 49ers next drive stalled and they would not regain possession until only 4:11 remained in regulation. On the first play, Joe Montana hit Jerry Rice for a 29-yard strike and guided the team down to the Cincinnati six-yard line. Mike Cofer hit a 23-yard field goal with just over a minute remaining to send the game into overtime. San Francisco won its first coin toss in five overtime games and wasted no time driving 75 yards in 11 plays to set up Cofer's 23-yard game-winning field goal and the 20-17 victory.

January 3, 1994 - Philadelphia 37, San Francisco 34

Turnovers and an ill-timed penalty marred the 49ers first overtime game in four years. The Philadelphia Eagles struck early and often, first on a 34-yard Roger Ruzek field goal five minutes into the game. On San Francisco's first possession, Steve Young was hit and fumbled the ball, which was recovered by Byron Evans who returned it 30 yards for a touchdown and a 10-0 lead. On their second possession, Young led the 49ers on a seven-play, 46-yard drive capped by a Mike Cofer 30-yard field goal to cut the deficit to seven. With Bubby Brister at the helm, the Eagles drove 76 yards in the opening minutes of the second quarter and connected with Calvin Williams for a 13-yard touchdown to push the lead to 17-3. The Eagles quickly got the ball back on a punt after a three-and-out series by the 49ers. Brister guided Philadelphia to an eight-play, 64-yard touchdown scoring drive to take a commanding 21-point lead. The 49ers end zone drought ended with just less than two minutes remaining in the half when Young hit Jerry Rice for a three-yard touchdown that brought the score to 24-10 at halftime. San Francisco started the second half strong, beginning with a 60-yard kickoff return by Dexter Carter to give the 49ers the ball on Philadelphia's 38-yard line. Capping off a punishing 38-yard, nine-play drive, Ricky Watters ran 11 yards for the score. After a Philadelphia punt, John Taylor caught a 38-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 24. Philadelphia took advantage of a Young injury by intercepting a Steve Bono pass. The Eagles worked quickly, moving 69 yards in just two plays to take a 31-24 lead. San Francisco gave Philadelphia good field position again with a fumble on its own 40, allowing the Eagles to increase their lead to 10 with a Ruzek 32-yard field goal with 1:16 remaining in the third quarter. Set up by a Don Griffin interception, Bono drove the 49ers 42 yards in just over four minutes and scored on a one-yard keeper that closed the gap to 34-31. After a Philadelphia punt, the Niners drove down and tied the game on a Cofer 29-yard field goal with 15 seconds left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive, but failed to score on two overtime possessions. On Philadelphia's second possession of overtime, they drove to San Francisco's 20-yard line. With four seconds showing on the clock, the Eagles set up for a 38-yard field goal. Ruzek missed the field goal wide right, but Merton Hanks was flagged for roughing the kicker. After a 10-yard penalty, Ruzek hit a 28-yarder with no time left on the clock for the 37-34 win.

October 14, 1996 - Green Bay 23, San Francisco 20

With Steve Young out with a groin injury, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco against Brett Favre and the Green Bay Packers. After an unsuccessful first possession, the Packers scored on a 30-yard field goal by Chris Jacke with just over five minutes remaining in the first quarter for the 3-0 lead. They took a 6-0 lead on another Jacke 25-yard field goal. On San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Grbac led a six-play, 36-yard drive that resulted in a Jeff Wilkins 48-yard field goal. After a three-and-out series by the Packers, Jerry Rice caught a seven-yard touchdown from Grbac for a 10-6 lead. Aided by a Dana Stubblefield interception, Rice and Grbac put the 49ers up 17-6 at the half with a 13-yard touchdown pass. Green Bay trimmed the lead to 17-14 when Favre hit Don Beebe for a 59-yard touchdown and followed it with a two-point conversion toss to Edger Bennett. Chris Jacke hit a 35-yard field goal to tie the game at 17 with 3:24 left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss but was forced to punt after going three-and-out. Green Bay received the ball on its own 44 and drove 21 yards to set up Jacke for a 53-yard field goal for the 23-20 victory.

November 10, 1996 - Dallas 20, San Francisco 17

The two most dominating teams in the NFL met in a mid-season battle for NFC supremacy as the Dallas Cowboys traveled to 3Com Park. The 49ers jumped out to a quick lead after a Jeff Wilkins 28-yard field goal. They extended their lead to 10-0 on a 29-yard touchdown strike from Steve Young to Iheanyi Uwaezuoke. Quiet for most of the first half, the Cowboys finally got on the board with a 72-yard scoring drive that ended on a Troy Aikman three-yard touchdown run, which cut the deficit to 10-7 at halftime. Defenses dominated in the third quarter with neither team allowing a score. Dallas ended the scoring drought with a Chris Boniol 26-yard field goal four seconds into the fourth quarter to tie the game at 10. With Young out in the second half after sustaining a concussion, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco on a nine-play, 68-yard scoring drive on its next possession. Terry Kirby capped it off with a 27-yard touchdown run. After Fred Strickland intercepted a Grbac pass at the 49ers 15-yard line, Troy Aikman hit Eric Bjornson for a six-yard touchdown pass, knotting the game at 17 and forcing overtime. The Cowboys won the overtime coin toss and wasted no time marching down the field. After 12 plays, Chris Boniol hit the game-winning 29-yard field goal for the 20-17 victory.

November 24 1996 - San Francisco 19, Washington 16

In the 49ers second overtime game in November, and third of the season, the Washington Redskins hosted San Francisco for the first time in two years. In what would prove to be a game dominated by special teams, San Francisco struck first with a 20-yard field goal from Jeff Wilkins. Washington's Scott Blanton hit field goals from 19 and 48 yards out and Wilkins added another to knot the score at six going into halftime. The only score in the third quarter came on a Blanton field goal from 41 yards out to give Washington a 9-6 lead. San Francisco got on the board first in the fourth quarter with a Wilkins 44-yard field goal three minutes into the period. On the ensuing possession, Gus Ferotte drove the Redskins 78 yards, which culminated with a Jamie Asher 20-yard touchdown reception. The 49ers tied the game with 1:57 remaining in regulation on a one-yard run by William Floyd, forcing overtime. San Francisco won the coin toss and promptly went on a 48-yard scoring drive that was capped by a 38-yard field goal by Wilkins for the 19-16 win.

September 6 1998 - San Francisco 36, New York Jets 30

In the opening weekend of the 1998 season, fans were treated to one of the most exciting games and one of the most exciting plays in NFL history. After a fast-paced first half, the 49ers found themselves trailing 17-14 at halftime after Glen Foley hit Wayne Chrebet from six-yards out for the score with 32 seconds remaining in the second quarter. On its first possession in the second half, San Francisco evened the score at 17 with a 22-yard field goal by Wade Richey. On the following possession, Foley found Keyshawn Johnson for a 21-yard touchdown and a 24-17 lead. With just over three minutes remaining in the third quarter, Jerry Rice caught a 14-yard touchdown from Steve Young to bring the 49ers within one. The extra point was blocked and the score remained 24-23 heading into the fourth quarter. New York extended its lead to 27-23 after a John Hall 32-yard field goal. San Francisco took possession with 3:38 left in regulation and went on a 76-yard, five-play drive that was capped by a 38-yard touchdown pass from Young to J.J. Stokes, giving the 49ers the lead 30-27 with just over one minute remaining in regulation. New York then drove the ball to the 49ers 13-yard line, where John Hall tied the game at 30 with just three seconds on the clock. Both New York and San Francisco went three-and-out on their first possessions of overtime. The Jets moved to midfield on their second possession before being forced to punt, pinning the 49ers on their own four-yard line. With 11:09 remaining in overtime, on San Francisco's first play of its second possession, Young gave the ball to Garrison Hearst, who ran right and broke six tackles on his way to a 96-yard, game-winning touchdown run and the 36-30 victory.

December 6, 1998 - San Francisco 31, Carolina 28

San Francisco extended its winning streak to four games with an exciting, high-scoring match-up with the Carolina Panthers. After an explosive first half, the 49ers took a 21-7 lead going into halftime. San Francisco started the second half with a five-play drive, which covered 90 yards, including a Garrison Hearst 71-yard touchdown run. The drive gave the 49ers a commanding 28-7 lead. With just 52 seconds left in the third quarter, Steve Beuerlein connected with Anthony Johnson on a 38-yard touchdown pass to cut the deficit to 28-14. On their first possession of the fourth quarter, the Panthers drove 76 yards in five plays and scored on a Beuerlein-to-Raghib Ismail 40-yard touchdown pass. Minutes later, Carolina tied the game at 28 with a 10-yard run by Tshimanga Biakabutuka. Carolina won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. The Panthers ran two unsuccessful plays, and Beuerlein fumbled on the third, giving San Francisco possession on Carolina's 30-yard line. The 49ers picked up 25 yards driving to the Panthers five, where Wade Richey hit a 23-yard field goal for the 31-28 victory.

December 26, 1999 - Washington 26, San Francisco 20

The Washington Redskins visited 3Com Park and battled the San Francisco 49ers to their second overtime game in the last three meetings. San Francisco struck first with an 80-yard drive in 13 plays, capped off with a Charlie Garner four-yard touchdown run and a 7-0 lead. Early in the second quarter, Washington answered back with an 80-yard drive of its own, ending with a Brad Johnson-to-Michael Westbrook 65-yard touchdown strike. With a pair of Wade Richey field goals, San Francisco went into halftime with a 13-7 lead. Washington cut the deficit to three after Brett Conway nailed a 47-yard field goal in the third quarter. The 49ers extended their lead to 20-10 with a 78-yard scoring drive that ended on a five-yard touchdown pass from Jeff Garcia to J.J. Stokes. At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Conway connected on a 34-yard field goal to bring the Redskins within seven. Washington then struck again with 3:30 left in the game when Brad Johnson plunged in from one-yard out to tie the game at 20. San Francisco threatened with just over one minute remaining, driving to the Redskins 22-yard line before fumbling, which Washington recovered to force overtime. Washington won the overtime coin toss and promptly moved the ball to the San Francisco 33-yard line in three plays. On first down, Brad Johnson hit Larry Centers for a 33-yard touchdown pass and the 26-20 win.

October 8, 2000 - Oakland 34, San Francisco 28

In a game for the ages, the 49ers fell in overtime to the visitors from across the Bay, the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders jumped out to the early 6-0 lead on two Sebastian Janikowski field goals. The 49ers answered back, scoring 14 unanswered points to close out the first half. The Raiders dominated the third quarter, holding onto the ball for more than 11 minutes and scoring two touchdowns. After another score by the Raiders to start the fourth, the 49ers started their comeback. After a Jeff Garcia-to-Terrell Owens scoring toss and another score on a nine-yard touchdown run by Charlie Garner, San Francisco tied the game at 28. On their next possession, the Raiders drove down to San Francisco's 23-yard line, but on fourth-and-10, Janikowski missed a 41-yard field goal wide left. The 49ers, with a chance to win the game, took possession and moved the ball down to the Oakland 29-yard line. On fourth-and-one, the Raiders defense stiffened and stopped a leaping Charlie Garner for no gain. The Raiders took over on downs, but couldn't get their offense going and were forced to punt back to the 49ers, who ran out the clock and forced the game into overtime. The Raiders won the toss and marched down to the 49ers 25-yard line. Janikowski came on to attempt the game-winning field goal, but missed wide right, his second missed field goal of the day. The 49ers took over and put a drive of their own together, all the way to the Raiders 11-yard line. On first down, Wade Richey attempted the game-winning field goal, but was blocked and possession went back to the Raiders. Following two pass completions and a pass interference call on the 49ers, the Raiders finally put the game away with a 31-yard scoring toss from Rich Gannon to Tim Brown for the win.

September 9, 2001 - San Francisco 16, Atlanta 13

The 49ers began the 2001 regular season in an exciting fashion, defeating the visiting Atlanta Falcons 16-13 in overtime. The 49ers trailed by seven points at halftime and began the fourth quarter with a 10-point deficit. A J.J. Stokes touchdown reception narrowed the gap before Jose Cortez's field goal attempt tied the game at 13 with 11 seconds remaining in regulation. The 49ers won the coin toss in overtime and elected to receive. On the drive the 49ers faced a third-and-five when Jeff Garcia rifled a pass to Tai Streets, who raced 53 yards to the Falcons 23-yard line. Three plays later, Cortez nailed a 24-yard field goal to lift the 49ers to victory.

October 14, 2001 - San Francisco 37, Atlanta 31

The 49ers had their second overtime game of the 2001 season against the Falcons, sweeping Atlanta in the season series by winning 37-31. The 49ers rallied back from deficits of 20-7 at the half and 31-17 in the fourth quarter. The Falcons went up 14-0 early in the game. The 49ers put their first points of the game on the board in the second quarter when Jeff Garcia capped an 11-play, 80-yard drive with a seven-yard touchdown run. The Falcons answered back with two field goals and went up 20-7 at halftime. San Francisco came back in the second half due to the hands of Terrell Owens. Owens, who did not catch a pass in the first half, roared back to catch nine passes for 183 yards and a career-high three touchdowns. The 49ers scored 10 unanswered points in the third quarter, but Atlanta answered back in the fourth quarter. After a 49ers touchdown, at the hands of Kevan Barlow, and a touchdown by the Falcons, the 49ers were down 31-24 with just 2:22 remaining in the game. Garcia calmly led the team on a 10-play, 72-yard drive when he hooked up with Owens from 17 yards out for his second touchdown of the day. The extra point was good and the game was tied at 31 with just 21 seconds remaining. The 49ers won the toss in overtime and drove to the Falcons 14-yard line. On the sixth play of the drive, a mishandled snap between Garcia and Dave Fiore, who was filling in at center for an injured Jeremy Newberry, was recovered by the Falcons and their offense took over. The 49ers defense rose to the challenge, forcing Atlanta into a three-and-out possession. After the punt, San Francisco began its second overtime drive from its own 33-yard line. After picking up one first down, Garcia faced third-and-five when he connected with Owens, who raced 52 yards up the sideline for his third touchdown and the 37-31 overtime victory.

October 28, 2001 - Chicago 37, San Francisco 31

The 49ers had their second consecutive overtime game and their third of the 2001 season as they dropped a 37-31 decision to the Chicago Bears. San Francisco went up early in the first quarter after Bryant Young forced a fumble, which Julian Peterson scooped up and returned 26 yards for the touchdown. The 49ers struck again when Jeff Garcia hooked up with Justin Swift for a one-yard touchdown and the 14-0 lead. The Bears answered back with a safety and a touchdown, making the score 14-9 at the half. In the third quarter, the 49ers struck first when Garrison Hearst scored his first touchdown since 12-14-98 on a 60-yard bomb from Garcia. The Bears offense then took over and drove down to the 49ers 10-yard line where Zack Bronson intercepted a Shane Mathews pass and returned it a team-record 97 yards for the touchdown. After a Chicago touchdown and a 49ers field goal, the score was 31-16 early in the fourth quarter. The Bears then racked up 15 unanswered points on two touchdown drives to tie the game at 31 and send it into overtime. The 49ers won the coin toss and the offense took over. On the first play from scrimmage, Garcia was intercepted by Mike Brown, who raced 33 yards for the touchdown and the 37-31 victory for Chicago.

November 18, 2001 - San Francisco 25, Carolina 22

In their fourth ovetime game of the season, setting a new team record, the 49ers pulled out an exciting 25-22 victory over the Carolina Panthers. The game was a see-saw battle with each team going back and forth until the fourth quarter. The Panthers went ahead late in the fourth quarter after a Jeff Garcia interception. Wesley Walls scored on a 24-yard pass, but the two-point conversion failed, leaving the Panthers with a slim 19-14 lead. On the next 49ers drive, Garcia was intercepted again, this time deep in 49ers territory. The San Francisco defense held Carolina to only a field goal and the 49ers were down 22-14 with just 1:52 remaining in the game. Garcia started the offense on its own 34-yard line and began the two-minute drill. The 49ers moved down the field to the Panthers seven-yard line, where Garcia threw a fade route to Terrell Owens, who snatched it out of the air with one second remaining on the clock to cut the score to 22-20. Garcia then found Eric Johnson in the end zone for the two-point conversion to send the game into overtime. San Francisco won the coin toss and started its drive at its own 26-yard line. Garcia completed three-of-four passes for 27 yards, including a crucial fourth down conversion, while Garrison Hearst rushed twice for 34 yards to bring the 49ers down to Carolina's nine-yard line. Jose Cortez came on for the game-winning field goal from 26 yards out, splitting the uprights to give the 49ers the 25-22 overtime victory.

The 49ers visited the Oakland Raiders and turned in an exciting performance. Tied at 13 entering the fourth quarter, the game see-sawed back and forth before heading into overtime. San Francisco scored first in the fourth quarter when Jeff Garcia connected with Tai Streets for a three-yard touchdown to take the lead at 20-13. Oakland answered after the ensuing kickoff went out of bounds and the Raiders got the ball at their own 40-yard line. Oakland converted a crucial fourth-and-three play to maintain possession and ended the drive with a 10-yard touchdown run by Charlie Garner with just over six minutes remaining. The 49ers then ate up the clock with an impressive 13-play drive into scoring position, where Jose Cortez missed a 27-yard field goal at the end of regulation to send the game into overtime. The 49ers won the toss and launched another impressive drive, this one 17 plays in length. It was there that Cortez lined up for the game-winning 23-yard field goal that sailed through the uprights. September 14, 2003 – St. Louis 27, San Francisco 24

In an early-season division battle, the St. Louis Rams prevailed over the 49ers in overtime in a back and forth battle. The Rams went ahead late in the fourth quarter, 24-17, with 3:20 remaining. Undaunted, Jeff Garcia calmly led his team down the field for the game-tying 13-yard touchdown pass to Terrell Owens with 19 seconds remaining in regulation. The 49ers recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and had the ball at midfield. After an incomplete pass, Garcia connected with Cedrick Wilson on a 29-yard pass on second down with nine seconds remaining. Instead of falling to the ground and taking a timeout, Wilson kept running and was tackled as time ran out and the game headed into overtime. The Rams won the toss and received the kick-off, which they returned to their 48-yard line. After a one-yard run by Marshall Faulk, the 49ers were penalized 15 yards for a face mask penalty. Marc Bulger then completed two straight passes which brought St. Louis to the 49ers 10-yard line. Jeff Wilkins then came on and hit the winning 28-yard field goal.

October 26, 2003 – Arizona 16, San Francisco 13

In another division battle, the 49ers had their second overtime game of the season, this time at Arizona. The field goal kicking was the story of this game as the 49ers missed both field goal attempts and made only 1-of-2 PATs and the Cardinals made only 3-of-6 field goal attempts. The Cardinals had the lead 13-6 in the fourth quarter when the 49ers tied the game on one of the most improbable touchdowns in team history. Jeff Garcia fumbled at the one-yard line and the ball was recovered by offensive lineman Kwame Harris, who scored his first career touchdown. The game was tied at 13 with 2:25 left to play. The Cardinals had another shot to get into scoring position, but were forced to punt and gave the 49ers one more shot for the victory with almost six minutes remaining in regulation. San Francisco then launched a drive that put the offense at the Arizona 16-yard line. But Owen Pochman missed the potential game-winning field goal, his second missed field goal of the day, this time from 35 yards out. This breathed new life into Arizona, who drove down to the San Francisco 32-yard line. With five seconds remaining in regulation, Tim Duncan attempted the game-winning 50-yard field goal, which was short, and the game headed to overtime. In overtime, the Cardinals won the toss and drove down to the 49ers 22-yard line in eight plays. Duncan set up for another chance at a game-winning field goal, this one from 39 yards out. The 49ers recorded their first overtime win of the season and also their first road win of 2003 with a 31-28 victory over Philadelphia. The two teams traded points back and forth heading into the final quarter. The 49ers kicked a 25-yard field goal on the first play of the fourth quarter to cut Philadelphia's lead to 21-20. On San Francisco's next possession, Kevan Barlow ran for 26 of his career-high 154 total yards and scored from one-yard out to give the 49ers a 26-21 lead. The two-point conversion attempt was successful and the 49ers had a seven-point lead with five minutes remaining in the game. The Eagles answered with a 10-play drive, adding seven points to tie the game on a Todd Pinkston touchdown grab with a little over a minute remaining in regulation. Philadelphia won the overtime coin toss and started its drive at its own 21-yard line. On the first play in the extra period, Tony Parrish, who notched an interception on the game's first drive, intercepted another pass and ran it back to the Eagles four-yard line. Todd Peterson then came out and nailed the 22-yard game-winning field goal.

October 10, 2004 – San Francisco 31, Arizona 28

QB Tim Rattay joined an elite group of quarterbacks who have led the 49ers to come from behind victories in a 31-28 overtime victory against the visiting Arizona Cardinals at Monster Park. Rattay coolly directed two late fourth-quarter scoring drives that sent the game into overtime after trailing by 16 points with 8:19 remaining. In overtime, Rattay again led the team downfield and buoyed by a roughing the passer penalty, put them into scoring position where K Todd Peterson banged home the game-winning 32-yard field goal. Rattay finished the game with a CAREER-HIGH 417 yards passing and a quarterback rating of 99.8. He was an impressive 14 of 20 for 115 yards and two touchdowns in the fourth quarter. He also broke QB Joe Montana's team record by completing 38 passes. Montana held the previous mark of 37. Rattay's favorite target on the day was TE Eric Johnson who hauled in a career-high 13 receptions for 162 yards and one touchdown. Johnson caught a six-yard touchdown from Rattay with 4:35 remaining in the game that pulled the 49ers within 10 points. Rattay ran in the two-point conversion and suddenly the 49ers were within eight points. Now they needed a stop and the defense was up to the task, forcing a Cardinals punt. Taking over at the 49ers 28-yard line, Rattay started off with a nine-yard pass to WR Curtis Conway, then scampered 15 more yards before hitting Conway on a 14-yard pass to get the 49ers to the Cardinals 23. From there Rattay found WR Brandon Lloyd in the corner of the end zone and the 49ers were within two points. Lloyd then slipped in front of the defender and caught Rattay's two-point offering sending the game into overtime. The 49ers won the overtime coin toss and never relinquished the ball. A roughing the passer penalty on Arizona's DT Darnell Dockett helped the 49ers cause and Rattay took advantage as he quickly moved the team into scoring position where Peterson knocked home the game-winner.

December 12, 2004 – San Francisco 31, Arizona 28

First-year RB Maurice Hicks earned the game ball after an inspiring 139-yard performance on 34 attempts. He and QB Ken Dorsey carried the 49ers to their second victory of the season, a 31-28 overtime victory in Arizona. San Francisco did have to work for the win, despite taking a 28-3 lead in the third quarter. The Cardinals staged a furious rally and almost answered the 49ers overtime win earlier in the season at Monster Park. But some key plays from the defense and the legs of Hicks proved the difference of the day. Hicks, making his first career NFL start, had four carries for 42 yards in overtime including a significant 17-yard gain that set-up K Todd Peterson's game-winning field goal. Facing 2nd and 3 from the Cardinals 30-yard line, Hicks took the hand-off from Dorsey, cut off the tackle to his right and raced downfield before he was knocked out of bounds at the 13. Dorsey finished the game completing 18 of 34 passes for 191 yards and three scores for a passer rating of 99.0. Starting for the injured QB Tim Rattay, Dorsey threw his first career touchdown to WR Brandon Lloyd for the first score of the day. He then connected twice with WR Cedrick Wilson for scores as Wilson led the receiving efforts with five receptions for 83 yards and two scores, including a 19-yard catch to keep the 49ers game-winning drive alive. Dorsey was sacked just once in his 34 passing attempts behind an offensive line that played its best game of the year.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2005

The 49ers extending their consecutive home sellout streak. The 49ers enter 2005 having sold-out 209 games, including playoffs.

The 49ers having a player selected to the Pro Bowl for the 24th consecutive year.

Andre Carter moving into the top 10 on the 49ers all-time sacks list. Entering 2004, Carter has 27.5 sacks and needs four sacks to pass Jeff Stover (30.5) for 10th place.

Terry Jackson playing in his 100th career NFL game.

Julian Peterson recording his 400th career tackle. Peterson is just 22 tackles shy of the 400 mark.

Tony Parrish continuing his streak of consecutive games started. Parrish enters 2005 having started 112 consecutive games. This streak is the third-longest active streak at his position.

Tony Parrish moving into the top 10 on the 49ers all-time interceptions list. Entering 2005, Parrish has 20 interceptions as a 49er and needs only one to overtake Dick Moegle (20) to move into sole possession of 10th place.

Tony Parrish leading the 49ers defense in interceptions for the fourth straight year. Parrish joined Dick Moegle (1955-57), and Dave Baker (1959-61) as the only 49ers to lead the team in interceptions for three consecutive years.

Derek Smith reaching the 100-tackle plateau for the ninth straight year. Smith has reached the 100-tackle mark every year in his career.

Bryant Young starting his 150th game as a 49er. Young enters the 2005 campaign three games shy of 150 career games, all of which have been starts for the 49ers.

Bryant Young making his 600th tackle. He needs just 25 in 2005 to reach 600.

2005 SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS RADIO NETWORK

The 49ers kick off the 2005 slate in partnership with flagship stations including KNBR 680/1050 and KSAN 107.7 The Bone. KNBR 680 and 1050 are the undisputed sports leaders in Northern California. With its dominant 50,000-watt clear channel signal, KNBR 680 reaches all of Northern California during the day and eleven western states at night. 107.7 is the Bay Area's Rock station, playing great classic rock starting from the late 60's into the 2000's and also playing today's best new rock music.

In addition to full game day coverage that includes a comprehensive live three hour pre-game show each week and full post game coverage following each game broadcast, KNBR 680, KNBR 1050 and KSAN 107.7 The Bone will air week long unprecedented coverage of the 49ers from training camp through the NFL playoffs to provide the most extensive up-to-the-minute coverage in the area.

Joe Starkey has been the voice of the San Francisco 49ers since 1989. In his role as the play-by-play announcer, Starkey has provided some of the most colorful calls in the team's history. He has also been the play-by-play announcer for University of California at Berkeley Golden Bears Football since 1975.

Starkey's first announcing job in sports was in 1972 for Charley Finley's Oakland-based National Hockey League Seals. Since that time, Joe has been a broadcaster for the NFL's Minnesota Vikings and Denver Broncos, the USFL's Oakland Invaders, and the NHL's San Jose Sharks and Pittsburgh Penguins. He has also called Golden State Warriors and Cal Bears basketball, and is an eight-time winner of the Associated Press Award for Best California Play-by-Play Broadcaster. His international experience includes Winter and Summer Olympics, Wimbledon tennis and professional soccer.

Back for his eighth season, Gary Plummer will join Joe Starkey to provide analysis and color to the KNBR broadcasts. Plummer is a San Francisco 49ers alumnus who played for the franchise from 1994-1997 as a star linebacker. Plummer is a native of the San Francisco Bay Area and played college football at California. He began his broadcasting career in 1997 in Los Angeles where he was a commentator for Monday Night Live on the ABC affiliate. Plummer has a professional football career that spans 15 years.

In his first season as a part of the broadcast team for the 49ers Radio Network, John Shrader is Senior Sports Reporter for KNBR and has been with the station for the past 15 years. Shrader will serve as a sideline reporter for all 49ers game broadcasts on KNBR and 107.7 The Bone and will also co-host the 49ers Post Game Show with KNBR's Sportsphone 680 host, Larry Krueger.

Although he covers all sports, his chief assignment for the past several years has been coverage of the San Francisco 49ers with his base at 49ers headquarters in Santa Clara. He is a graduate of the University of Nebraska and prior to joining KNBR, had worked as a reporter for Pacific Sports Network, Sports Director at KICU and KNTV. Shrader is also the voice of the San Jose Earthquakes MLS soccer team and has done play-by-play of the East-West Shrine Game on KNBR.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

A-C Joint - Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process (of the scapula) and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abduct - Movement of any extremity away from the body.

Abrasion - Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess - An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Achilles Tendon - The tendon at the back of the heel.

Abductor - Any muscle which moves a part toward the median axis of the body.

Adhesion - Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic - Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired; required for sustained periods of hard work and vigorous exercise.

Anabolic Steroids - Testosterone, or a steroid hormone resembling testosterone, that stimulates growth in the body as a whole.

Anaerobic - Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) - Ligament of knee attaching to anterior tibial plateau and posterior medial aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from coming forward.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome - Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg (comprising of muscles, nerves and arteries to the foot) jeopardizes the viability of the muscles and nerves within the compartment.

Arteriogram - Film demonstrating arteries after injection of opaque medium (dye).

Arthrogram - X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected in affected area (to show torn cartilage or rotator cuff tears).

Arthroscope - An instrument used for visualization of the interior of a joint cavity; sometimes referred to as "scope."

Arthroscopy - Examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of surgical viewing apparatus (arthroscope) inserted into the joint.

Aspiration - The withdrawal of fluids from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus (syringe).

Asymptomatic - Without symptoms.

Atrophy - To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avascular Necrosis - Death of a part due to lack of circulation (can occur in the elbow from throwing).

Avulsion - A tearing away forcibly of a part of structure.

Axilla - The armpit.

Baker's Cyst - Indicates that there is trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive joint-fluid production; inflammation of the gastrocnemius bursa. Usually produces localized swelling behind the knee.

Bennett's Fracture - Fracture dislocation of the base of the first metacarpal (or the thumb).

Biceps - Muscle on the front of the upper arm responsible for blending the elbow.

Bone scan - "Radionuclide Imaging," which is useful to demonstrate stress fracture not evident on routine x-rays.

Brachial Plexus - Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae running down the arm.

Bruise - A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of the blood into the underlying tissues.

Burner - Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck. Usually results in burning or tingling sensation into the shoulder or arm when the neck is forced beyond the normal range of motion.

Calcaneus - The heel bone.

Calf - Also know as gastrocnemius; muscle responsible for plantarflexing, or pointing the toes down the foot.

Capsule - An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage - Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

Cellulitis - Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Charley Horse - A bruise to the quadriceps resulting from a direct blow to the front of the thigh, characterized by intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Chondral Fracture - Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.

Chondromalacia - A roughening of the cartilage surface. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap.

Clavicle - The collar bone.

Collagen - A substance existing in commonly injured tissues of the body, including skin, cartilage, ligaments and bone.

Concussion - Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. Can be graded mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion - An injury to the muscles and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cyst - Abnormal sac containing liquid or semisolid matter.

Degenerative Joint Disease - Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Dehydration - Loss of body water.

Deltoids - Muscles at top of arm, just below shoulder.

Disc - A flat, round-like, plate structure usually referring to cartilage between vertebrae.

Dislocation - Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Ecchymosis - Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Ectomy - Suffix connoting the affected part (e.g. meniscectomy, appendectomy).

Edema - Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body (swelling).

Effusion - Accumulation of fluid, or the fluid itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly found in the knee following injury.

Electrolyte Drink - Fluid for replacing electrolytes, such as Gatorade Thirst Quencher.

EMG - Electromyogram test to check nerve function.

Epicondylitis - Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse of either the flexor or extensor muscles attaching to the medial or lateral epicondyle of the humerus.

Eversion - Turning outward.

Extension - Motion of straightening a joint.

Extensor - A muscle, which upon contraction, results in straightening a joint.

External Rotation - Lateral movement of a joint or extremity to the outside.

Fascia - A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissues.

Femur - Thigh bone.

Fibula - The smaller of the two bones in the lower leg, located to the outside.

Flexibility - The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch force.

Flexibility Exercise - A general term used to describe exercise performed by a person to passively or actively elongate soft tissues without the assistance of a therapist.

Flexion - Bending a joint, as in flexing the arm or leg.

Flexor - A muscle which upon contraction flexes or bends.

Fracture - Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, encomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb - Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpo-phangeal joint of the thumb.

Glenoid - A cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to the form of the shoulder joint (the shoulder socket).

Groin - Junction of the thigh and abdomen.

Hamstring - Muscle running from the buttocks to behind the knee. Often injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility. Muscle responsible for flexing the knee joint.

Heat Stroke - Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat.

Heat Exhaustion - Mild form of shock caused by loss of fluid and electrolyte from the circulation because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat.

Heat Cramps - Painful muscle spasms of arms or legs causes by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolyte.

Hematoma - A tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hip Pointer - Contusion to the iliac crest.

Humerus - Bone of the upper arm.

Hyperextension - Extreme extension, or straightening, of a limb or body part.

Iliotibial Band - A thick, wide facial layer from the iliac crest to the knee joint.

Impingement Syndrome - Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder, which is common in throwing.

Isokinetic Exercise - A form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of movement of the limb is controlled by a pre-set rate-limiting device, such as Cybex, Biodex, etc.

Isometric (static) Contraction - A muscle contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done. There is not appreciable joint movement and the overall length of the muscle remains the same.

Isokinetic - A constant speed and consistent resistance exercise.

Isotonic (dynamic) Contraction - A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part (lifting a free weight).

Itis - Suffix connoting inflammation (e.g. tendinitis, bursitis).

Joint Mobilization - Passive traction and/or gliding movements applied to joint surfaces that maintain or restore the joint play normally allowed by the capsule, so that the normal roll-slide joint mechanic can occur as a person moves.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL) - Ligament of knee attaching lateral femoral condyle to the fibula head. It provides lateral stability to the knee.

Ligament - Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) - Provides highly detailed pictures of the body's interior, using highly magnetic fields. MRI does not require radiation.

Malleolus - Rounded projections on either side of the ankle joint.

Medial - Pertaining to or near the middle.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) - Ligament of knee attaching to medial femoral condyle to medial tibia. It provides medial stability to the knee.

Meniscectomy - An intra-articular procedure at the knee by which meniscus (fibrocartilage) is removed surgically.

Metatarsals - Five long bones of foot, just below toes.

Myositis - Inflammation of a muscle.

Myositis Ossificans - Inflammation in muscle resulting in the formation of bone-like substance.

Necrotic - Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neuritis - Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic - Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Osteochondritis Dissecans - A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma ad a cause of a lesion.

Parasthesia - Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella - The kneecap.

Patella Tendinitis - Inflammation of the patella tendon.

Pathology - Study of the nature and cause of disease.

Pectorals - Chest muscles beneath the breast, leading up to shoulder.

Peroneal - Muscles of the lateral lower leg responsible for everting the foot.

Plantar Fascia - The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.

Plica - A fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

PNF (Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation) - An approach to therapeutic exercise based on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) - Ligament of the knee attaching to posterior tibial plateau and anterior lateral aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from going backward.

Quadriceps (Quads) - The four powerful muscles in the front of the thigh, responsible for extending the knee joint.

Radiography - Taking of X-rays.

Radius - Forearm bone on thumb side.

Reconstruction - Surgical rebuilding of an injured joint.

Rotator cuff - Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area; supraspinatus, infraspinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis. Often irritated by overuse.

S-C joint - Sternoclavicular joint; articulation between the sternum and the clavicle.

Sacroiliac - Relating to the juncture of the hip bone and lower part of the spine.

Scan - Injection of radioactive fluid (equal in radioactivity to about one x-ray) which may then be displayed on a computer/monitor or film (e.g. bone scan).

Scapula - The shoulder blade.

Sciatic Nerve - Largest nerve in body located in back of leg which controls most of its function.

Sciatica - Irritation of the sciatic nerve, resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the cap.

Sesamoid Bones - Lies within and adds strength to tendons as they cover bony surface. The most commonly known is the kneecap.

Shin splint - A catch-all syndrome describing pain either in the front of the lower leg or on the inner aspect of the leg.

Spasm - Sudden, violent, involuntary contraction of a muscle.

Spleen - Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylolisthesis - Forward displacement of one lumbar vertebra.

Spondylosis - Abnormal vertebrael fixation or immobility.

Sprain - A joint injury. A violent twisting, stretching, pulling or tearing of a ligament.

Stinger - Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck.

Strain - A muscle injury. The stretching, pulling or twisting of a muscle of a tendon.

Stress X-Ray - A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum to see if the ligaments are intact.

Stress Fracture - A hair-line type of break in bone caused by overuse.

Stretching - Any therapeutic maneuver designed to lengthen (elongate) pathologically shortened soft-tissue structures and thereby increase range of motion.

Subluxation - Partial dislocation of a joint. Term usually implies that joint can return to normal position without formal reduction.

Synovial Fluid - Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or inner lining of the joint.

Synovitis - Inflammation of the synovium.

Tarsus - Arch of foot.

Tendinitis - Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, often caused by chronic overuse and/or sudden injury.

Tendon - Fibrous tissue that connects muscles to other structures.

Tennis Elbow - General term for lateral elbow pain.

Tibia - Larger of the two bones in lower leg; weight-bearing bone.

Tomograph - A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates the organ or tissue is a particular depth.

Trachea - The windpipe.

Trapezius - A flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps - Muscle of the posterior upper arm, opposite the biceps, that extends the elbow.

Turf Toe - Sprain of the metatarsophalangeal (MTP) joint of the great toe.

Ulna - One of two bones in forearm; extends from point of elbow and found on outer (little finger) side.

Ulnar Nerve - Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing or repeated trauma.

Wrist - The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetral, lunate and scaphoid).

First-year running back Maurice Hicks had a historic first start against Arizona on December 12, 2004, running 34 times for 139 yards with one touchdown and catching five receptions for 29 yards. His 39 touches were the 49ers most in a single game while he was just the third 49er to rush for over 100 yards in his first career start.

MAKING STRIDES

The Eighth 49ers Academy Graduation took place on June 9, 2005 at the 49ers Academy in East Palo Alto. Thirty-nine graduates celebrated their final step before entering high school next fall. This year marks the Ninth Anniversary of the 49ers Academy. The 49ers Academy provides students in grades six through eight with comprehensive academic, social and emotional services such as conflict resolution, art therapy and grief counseling.

COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENT TERMS

ACCRUED SEASON
A player receives one accrued season when he is on full pay status for a total of six or more regular season games. This does not include players placed on the Exempt Commissioner Permission list, the Reserve PUP list as a result of a non-football injury, or the practice squad.

RESTRICTED FREE AGENT
Any veteran player with less than four accrued seasons in a capped year is considered a restricted free agent at the expiration of his player contract. Any such player is free to negotiate and sign with any team, but is restricted under the terms of the Collective Bargaining Agreement. In order to receive right of first refusal and/or draft choice compensation the prior club must tender the player a qualifying offer on or before the first date of the restricted free agent signing period.

UNRESTRICTED FREE AGENT
Any player with four or more accrued seasons in a capped year becomes an unrestricted free agent at the expiration of his player contract. Any such player is completely free to negotiate and sign a player contract with any team.

EXCLUSIVE RIGHTS FREE AGENT
Any player with less than three accrued seasons in a capped year whose contract has expired may negotiate or sign a player contract only with his prior club, if his prior club tenders the player at least a one-year contract at or above the minimum salary applicable to that player. If the prior club does not make or withdraws the required tender by that date, the player is free to negotiate and sign a contract with any club.

FRANCHISE PLAYER
Each team is permitted to designate one of its players, who would otherwise be an unrestricted free agent, as a franchise player. The designation restricts the player from negotiating or signing a contract with another club. The designation will remain with that player for the duration of the contract signed. It may be removed by the club at the conclusion of the contract. Franchise players are guaranteed at least a one-year NFL player contract for the average of the five largest prior year salaries for players at the position the designated player played the most games the prior league year, or 120 percent of his prior year salary, whichever is greater.

TRANSITION PLAYER
Each team is permitted to designate one of its players, who would otherwise be an unrestricted free agent, as a transition player. The player is free to negotiate and sign a player contract with any club, but the designation gives the prior club right of first refusal on any contract the player signs. Transition players are guaranteed at least a one-year NFL player contract for the average of the 10 largest prior year salaries for players at the position the designated player played the most games the prior league year, or 120 percent of his prior year salary, whichever is greater.

OFFER SHEET
When a restricted free agent receives and agrees to an offer to sign a player contract from another NFL club, the player must submit a certificate which contains the principal terms of the contract (offer sheet) to the prior team. The prior club has seven days from the time it receives the offer sheet to exercise or not exercise its right of first refusal.

PHYSICALLY UNABLE TO PERFORM (PUP)
Players placed on Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform may attend team meetings, but are ineligible for all games and all practice sessions. Players on the PUP list are allowed to begin practicing with the team after the conclusion of the sixth regular season weekend and continuing after the conclusion of the ninth regular season weekend. The practice period is not to exceed 21 days. Any time during that 21-day period, teams are allowed to restore the player to the Reserve/PUP list or to the active roster.

MINI-CAMPS

Each team is allowed to hold one mandatory mini-camp for veteran players. If a team hires a new head coach it is allowed to hold two additional voluntary mini-camps for veteran players. There is no limitation on the number of mini-camps a club may hold for rookie players. Each mini-camp can be three days in length and no pads, excluding helmets, are allowed.

TRAINING CAMP

No veteran player, other than quarterbacks and injured players, will be required to report to a team's official training camp earlier than 15 days prior to the first scheduled preseason game or July 15, whichever is later. The July 15 date does not apply to teams participating in the Hall of Fame Game or any American Bowl game.

ACTIVE LIST

Each club is allowed to carry no more than 53 players on its active roster during the season. For each regular season game, the active list limit is 45 players per team. If a team carries the full squad limit of 53 players, it has to place eight players on the inactive list prior to each game.

PRACTICE SQUAD

Each team is allowed to establish a practice squad of no more than five players on the Monday after the final roster cutdown. Players who have served more than one season on the practice squad or have one accrued season of free agent credit are not eligible for the practice squad. A player who gained his one season of accrued free agent credit while being on the Reserve/Injured or Reserve/PUP list for an entire season is eligible for the practice squad.

The 49ers were represented in the Pro Bowl for the 24th consecutive year as long snapper Brian Jennings made his first trip to Hawaii. Jennings was chosen to serve as a "need" player in the Pro Bowl by the NFC coaching staff.

TRAINING CAMP

The San Francisco 49ers will hold training camp at their Santa Clara training facility again this season. The 49ers will open seven, free practices to the public during the team's 2005 summer slate. It marks the first time in the history of the Santa Clara facility that practices will be open. Sponsored by the San Jose Mercury News, each of the seven open practices will feature interactive contests, player autograph sessions and appearances by the 49ers Gold Rush Cheerleaders.

Location: Marie P. DeBartolo Sports Centre
4949 Centennial Blvd.
Santa Clara, CA 95054

Camp Dates: July 29-August 24

Reporting Dates: Entire team reports Friday, July 29, 2005

Camp Facts: The San Francisco 49ers will open training camp when the entire team reports to Santa Clara, CA on July 29, 2005. This is the third year the 49ers will hold training camp sessions in Santa Clara. The 49ers spent the previous five years (1998-02) at the University of Pacific in Stockton, CA. Prior to that, the team spent 17 years (1981-97) at Sierra College in Rocklin, CA before making the move to the University of the Pacific. The 17-year Rocklin stint tops the 13-year stay (1955-67) at St. Mary's College in Moraga, CA as the longest training camp visit in team history. San Francisco has also trained at Menlo College (1946-54), UC Santa Barbara (1968-75), San Jose State (1976-78) and Santa Clara (1979-80).

MEDIA SERVICES

Interview Requests: All interview requests for 49ers players, coaches or members of the administration should be made through the 49ers public relations department. Head Coach Mike Nolan will hold his weekly press luncheon during the season, Monday at noon. He will be available to the media after practice Wednesday, Thursday and Friday and following each game throughout the season. The locker room will be open for player interviews Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday after practice.

Postgame Interviews: After the game, no interviews are allowed on the playing field. No still cameras are allowed in the locker room and the area is reserved for properly credentialed working personnel only. Media members can leave the press box for the field at the 5:00 mark of the fourth quarter. Please be cognizant of fan sightlines. Visiting team credentials must stay on the visiting sidelines at all times. The locker room will be open to the media after each home game following a 10-12 minute cooling-off period. There is also a separate postgame interview area for both head coaches and key players.

Practice Policy: 49ers practices are open to local media only. Visiting and national media will not be permitted to attend practice. Photographers will be allowed to shoot up to, and including, stretching exercises.

Credential Requests: All home game credential requests must be submitted in writing on company letterhead to Jason Jenkins no later than Tuesday before the requested game. The requests must include the types of credentials needed (still photo, pressbox, TV, photo, etc.). Credential requests can be faxed to the 49ers at (408) 727-2760. Media members applying for credentials must call the 49ers public relations department beginning Thursday to verify approval. Credentials will be left at Press Will Call Gate B on game day. Two forms of identification will be required to pick up credentials. When the 49ers are on the road, credential requests need to be made through the host team.

Phone Lines: To order phone lines for 49ers home games, members of the media must call (800) 339-3204 (newspapers) or (800) 400-6990 (radio and TV) and request service to the minimum point of entry. Then call Curly Hardy at (415) 804-0669 to finalize the service.

Photographers: The digital photo compound is located under the stands on the visiting sidelines at Monster Park. Pool phones are available. To order a dedicated phone line, follow the instructions above.

High Speed Internet Access: The 49ers offer free wireless Internet access via a high speed DSL line in the press box on game days. It can be accessed by purchasing a wireless Internet card from the 49ers ($50). For further information on how to obtain a wireless card, please contact Rich Hilgersom, Senior Network Engineer for the 49ers, at (408) 562-4919.
